Gillette STADIUM™

Gillette Stadium, home to the three-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots and Major League Soccer's New England Revolution, is New England's premier sports and entertainment venue.

Fans have sold out Gillette Stadium for every Patriots home game since it opened in 2002. Fans also come to the stadium to see the New England Revolution, attend world-class concerts and participate in special events in the stadium's many function spaces.

Fan satisfaction is at the forefront of Gillette Stadium's design, with unobstructed views from the entire length of each of its wide concourses ensuring a great view of the field from practically anywhere inside the turnstiles. Additional gathering areas, such as the end-zone plazas, offer alternative viewing where fans can also gather to socialize before, during and after games. Once at their seats, guests relax in theater-style chairs, each one complete with a drink holder. For the ultimate in fan amenities, the Fidelity Investments Clubhouse offers more than 6,000 club members access to 120,000 square feet of space to enjoy not just on game days, but year-round. In addition to the Clubhouse areas, the stadium's 87 luxury suites are the largest in the NFL, ranging from 800 to 2,700 square feet. Each suite features luxurious furnishings as well as private bars and restrooms.

Gillette Stadium celebrates New England's heritage with a unique display of local flavor. A stylized lighthouse and bridge greet fans entering from the Patriot Place Gate and create the stadium's signature view. Fans gathering in the Patriot Place Plaza can enjoy a granite map of New England constructed with stone from each of the six states. The coastal heritage of the region is represented in a seascape scene that complements the bridge and lighthouse and flanks the players' entrance to the field. Guests can experience a unique view of the action from atop the bridge, which connects the east and west concourses at the base of the lighthouse.

THREE'S COMPANY

After the unveiling of the 2004 Super Bowl banner at the 2005 season opener, three Super Bowl championship banners hang in Gillette Stadium, each introduced at a season-opening ceremony at the stadium. The 2001 Super Bowl banner was unveiled at the Patriots' first regular season home game at Gillette Stadium in 2002.

COMING SOON: PATRIOT PLACE

Construction of Patriot Place, a super regional shopping and entertainment destination on the grounds of Gillette Stadium, began in the Spring of 2007.

Patriot Place will consist of more than one million square feet of commercial space on the north and west sides of Gillette Stadium. Portions of the project will begin opening to the public in the Fall of 2007. When completed in 2008, Patriot Place will be home to more than 70 retail stores, restaurants and entertainment establishments, featuring a dynamic mix of shopping and entertainment options. In addition to large and boutique retailers, restaurants and other nightlife options, Patriot Place will be anchored by Bass Pro Shops, a state-of-the-art movie theatre, a four-star hotel, a medical and wellness center and The Hall at Patriot Place.

Patriot PLACE

THE HALL AT PATRIOT PLACE

A cutting edge, highly interactive experience, The Hall at Patriot Place will showcase the history of the New England Patriots while providing a permanent home for the team's Hall of Fame. The Hall at Patriot Place will feature 30,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilize the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the story of the Patriots to life. The Hall will also explore the history of football in New England, and will feature an integrated educational program to benefit visiting school groups. The Hall at Patriot Place will be second-to-none among sports museums, and a must-visit attraction for any Patriots fan.

ROBERT KRAFT

CHAIRMAN AND CEO

"My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England."
— ROBERT KRAFT, JAN. 21, 1994

DIVISION TITLES: 96 97 01 03 04 05 06

CONFERENCE TITLES: 96 01 03 04

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

PLAYOFF SEASONS: 1994, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006

Robert Kraft announced his intention to bring New England a championship the day he bought the Patriots in 1994. In the 13 years since, he has made good on that pledge several times over, as the Patriots have won an unrivaled three Super Bowls, four conference championships and seven division championships during that time.

Back in 1994, Kraft's talk of the Patriots winning championships was likely interpreted as delusions of grandeur from a man who had just invested an unprecedented amount of money to purchase the floundering franchise. In the four seasons immediately preceding Kraft's acquisition (1990-93), the Patriots compiled an NFL-worst 14-50 (.219) overall record, which included a 1-15 finish in 1990 and a 2-14 record in 1992. They were not only last in the standings, they were also last in attendance and in overall revenue.

But it didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had not been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. The achievement ensured that local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history.

That year, the Patriots won their final seven regular season games to qualify for the postseason, ending an eight-year playoff drought. By his fifth anniversary as owner, the Patriots had already established themselves as perennial playoff contenders, qualifying for the postseason four times, twice as division champions. In 1996, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs as division champions and won the AFC Championship to represent the conference in Super Bowl XXXI.

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest long-term, worst-to-first revivals in sports history. In 2005, Forbes magazine valued the Patriots franchise at one billion dollars. The Patriots were just the fourth sports franchise in history to eclipse that financial plateau. That year, Forbes also named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports."

In Kraft's first 13 seasons in the NFL (1994-2006), no other NFL team won more, or more often, than the New England Patriots. In addition to their many Super Bowl, conference and division championships under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots also earned the distinction as the NFL's winningest franchise since 1994. Entering the 2007 season, the Patriots recorded more victories (144), including playoff victories (15), than any other NFL team and own the highest winning percentages in overall games (.629) and playoff games (.714) in the last 13 seasons.

Few owners in the history of professional sports have experienced the level of success enjoyed by the Kraft family over the last six seasons. In that time, the Patriots have won three Super Bowls, three conference championships and a franchise-record four consecutive division titles. In 2003 and 2004, the Patriots compiled back-to-back 17-2 seasons that were highlighted by consecutive Super Bowl championships. The 34 total victories in a two-year span set an 85-year NFL record. During that time, the Patriots also claimed pro football's consecutive-win records with the longest win streaks in the postseason (10), regular season (18) and with an overall 21-game win streak. Along the way, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history.

Kraft's impact on the Patriots was immediate and it didn't take him long to earn the respect of his NFL colleagues and peers. Since 1994, he has played an integral role on many of the NFL's most prominent league committees. As a member of the broadcast committee, he played a principal role in negotiating the two most lucrative broadcasting contracts in the history of sports. He was also instrumental in putting together a deal that made New England-headquartered Reebok International, Ltd. the official and exclusive apparel manufacturer for the NFL, helping to create a new model for the sports license apparel industry. Kraft is now widely recognized as one of the most respected and influential owners in sports.

Kraft began his business career with the Rand-Whitney Group, Inc. of Worcester, Mass., a company that converted paper into packaging for various industries. He later acquired the company. In 1972, he founded International Forest Products, a trader of paper commodities that now

THE BEST TEAM IN SPORTS

In 2005, Forbes selected the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft has built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

does business annually in more than 80 countries. Together, Rand-Whitney and International Forest Products comprise one of the largest privately-owned and fully integrated paper and packaging companies in the United States. Kraft founded The Kraft Group to serve as the holding company for the family's varied business interests, which are concentrated in five specific areas: the distribution of forest products, paper and packaging manufacturing, sports and entertainment, real estate development and private equity investing.

From 2000 to 2002, The Kraft Group's real estate development team oversaw the on-time and on-budget construction of Gillette Stadium, a privately-financed $325 million state-of-the-art stadium that the Patriots and their fans are proud to call home. The financial commitment from Kraft provided a solid foundation on which to build for the first time in the franchise's nomadic history. Moving from Foxboro Stadium into the majestic Gillette Stadium marked another worst-to-first transformation for the Krafts, who now operate New England's premier entertainment venue. After opening Gillette Stadium, Kraft was recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year and Sports Industrialist of the Year by two national publications.

The construction of Gillette Stadium was the first project of The Kraft Group's development team. Their current project, known as Patriot Place, is a 1.3 million square foot mixed-use lifestyle center and entertainment complex. The first phase of the project will be complete in 2007 and will feature New England's first outdoor superstore, Bass Pro Shops, as well as other large retailers. The next phase of the project will include a lifestyle center featuring a 14-screen Cinema de Lux movie theater, a state-of-the-art sports medicine and healthcare facility, a four-star hotel, a team pro shop and hall of fame as well as restaurants, retail shops and office space. Once completed, Patriot Place will forever change the landscape surrounding Gillette Stadium and will be the first super-regional lifestyle and entertainment complex of its kind.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward owning the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. It was another large investment, this time to purchase an antiquated stadium that was eventually demolished. But, with a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in his quest toward owning the team.

When his opportunity came in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buyout offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter nor'easter, 5,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus on another risky, long-term project: the construction of Gillette Stadium.

In 2000, Kraft took another risk when he surrendered a first-round draft choice to a division rival to acquire the services of Head Coach Bill Belichick from the New York Jets. The decision was heavily criticized at the time, but like so many of Kraft's decisions along the way, the risk was answered with great reward. Since then, the Patriots have recorded more wins and more championships than any other team in the NFL and Coach Belichick became the first head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four seasons.

A CHAMPIONSHIP ERA

Prior to 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs just six times during their first 34 seasons (1960-93). In the 13 seasons since Robert Kraft has taken ownership, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs nine times, seven times as division champions, and have won four conference titles and three Super Bowl championships.

For Kraft, a lifelong football fan, each decision represented a tremendous risk, but they were risks he was willing to take in pursuit of his goal of bringing New England a championship.

In 2001, the Patriots made their final season in Foxboro Stadium a memorable one. After a 1-3 start, the Patriots won 10 of their last 11 regular season games to claim another division title. In the final game at the 31-year-old stadium, the Patriots hosted the Oakland Raiders in a divisional playoff game under a heavy snowfall that created a heavenly ambience. The Patriots' 16-13 overtime victory over the Raiders is described by many as one of the most memorable games in NFL history. The victory propelled the Patriots through one of the greatest playoff runs in NFL history, as they advanced to score dramatic victories over two heavily favored opponents in championship games, including a 24-17 victory over the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game in Pittsburgh and a 20-17 victory over the St. Louis Rams on the final play of Super Bowl XXXVI.

In 2002, the Kraft family enjoyed a most memorable season opener when they celebrated the grand opening of Gillette Stadium with the unveiling of New England's first Super Bowl championship banner on Monday Night Football. That night, the Patriots defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers, 30-14, before the then largest home crowd in franchise history. Since its opening, the Patriots are 36-9 at Gillette Stadium and have won 32 of their last 38 regular season and postseason home games.

In 2003, the Kraft family enjoyed a historic 10th anniversary season that culminated with a second championship celebration just two seasons after winning the first title in team history. After suffering a season-opening loss, the Patriots rebounded to win 17 of their next 18 games and enjoyed a 15-game season-ending win streak. Only the 1972 undefeated Miami Dolphins enjoyed a longer single-season win streak.

In 2004, the Patriots became just the second team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in a four-year span and the seventh club to win consecutive Super Bowl championships.

In 2006, the Patriots extended their franchise record by winning their fourth consecutive division championship, but fell short of their quest of another conference title when they relinquished their lead to the Colts in the final minute of the AFC Championship game in Indianapolis.

A native of Brookline, Mass., Kraft attended local public schools before entering Columbia University on an academic scholarship. Upon graduation, he received a fellowship to attend Harvard Business School, where he earned a master's degree in business administration.

Kraft first became a fan of the Boston Patriots in their AFL days during the early 1960s. He attended games at each of the team's Boston venues: Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium. When the team moved to Foxborough in 1971, he invested in season tickets for his family. Kraft credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and other Patriots fans at Foxboro Stadium for his passionate pursuit of ownership of the franchise.

Over the past three decades, the Kraft family has been one of New England's most philanthropic families, donating millions of dollars in support of local charities and civic affairs. In 2007, the Krafts pledged half a million dollars to the Greater Boston Food Bank to enhance the Kids Café program. The contribution will assure thousands of Boston-area children will receive nutritious meals five days a week.

Kraft serves on the board of directors for Viacom and is on the executive committee of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Robert K. Kraft Family Blood Donor Center. He is a trustee emeritus of his alma mater at Columbia University and is a trustee of Boston College. He has served on the board of directors of numerous institutions, including the Federal Reserve of Boston (New England), the board of overseers of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and has received honorary degrees from a variety of New England universities. In 2006, Kraft was awarded the NCAA's highest honor when he received the Theodore Roosevelt Award, "presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishments." In 2004, the Kraft family received the Lifetime Achievement Award during an annual sports legends event in Boston. They were also recognized as Boston's most powerful family by Boston magazine.

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994, the Patriots have become the most successful franchise in the NFL. For the past 13 seasons (1994-2006), the Patriots have won more Super Bowl Championships (3) and twice as many conference championships (4) as any other NFL team and their seven division titles are tied with the Pittsburgh Steelers for the most in the NFL. In addition to championships titles, the Patriots have also won more, and more often, than any other NFL team, claiming 144 total victories and a .629 winning percentage, including 15 wins in the postseason. Their postseason winning percentage (.714) is also the best in the league.

Jonathan A. Kraft is the president and chief operating officer for The Kraft Group, the holding company of the Kraft family's varied business interests, and is also the president of the three-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots. As president of the Patriots, Kraft oversees the management and strategic planning of each department within the organization. He also works closely with his father to represent the Patriots in all league matters and has served on multiple NFL owner committees.

In March 2006, Kraft designed a revenue-sharing plan that led to the ratification of the league's collective bargaining agreement between the owners and the NFL Players Association. His plan provided an outline that led to a final proposal that was ultimately agreed to and ended a month-long stalemate in the negotiations.

Kraft's NFL obligations are only a small part of his day-to-day responsibilities, which are as diversified as the many different companies he oversees. The Kraft Group has a diversity of interests concentrated in five specific areas: the distribution of forest products, paper and packaging manufacturing, sports and entertainment, real estate development and private equity investing and Kraft is responsible for overseeing the operations of each division.

One of the most exciting new ventures that The Kraft Group has undertaken is the Patriot Place real estate development surrounding Gillette Stadium. Once complete, Patriot Place will be the first super-regional lifestyle center and entertainment complex of its kind. The first phase of the project will be complete in 2007 and will feature New England's first outdoor superstore, Bass Pro Shops, as well as other large retailers like Bed, Bath & Beyond, Circuit City and Christmas Tree Shops. The next phase of the project is a lifestyle and entertainment center, which is scheduled to open in the fall of 2008. The 1.3 million square foot complex will feature a 14-screen Cinema de Lux movie theater, a state-of-the-art sports medicine and healthcare facility, a four-star hotel, a team pro shop and hall of fame as well as restaurants, retail shops and office space. With Gillette Stadium providing a nearly 70,000-seat entertainment venue to the project, Patriot Place will truly be a unique destination location for millions of visitors each year.

Since his family purchased the team in 1994, Kraft has helped rebuild the franchise, bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization. It has been a remarkable transformation, as the Patriots have evolved from worst to first in many categories, both on and off the field.

Once tenants in the league's poorest venue, the Patriots now play in the NFL's premier stadium. Once last in the league in revenues, the Patriots now rank among the league's elite. Once a cellar dweller, the Patriots are now a perennial power. They own the pro football record for consecutive victories, including postseason games (21), consecutive regular season victories (18) and consecutive playoff victories (10) and are just the second team in league history to win three Super Bowls in four seasons. Since his family's purchase of the team in 1994, Kraft has successfully implemented many initiatives that have accelerated each of those transitions.

Of all the team's recent achievements, arguably the most significant contribution to the organization's future success was securing financial approval for the construction of a new world-class stadium, the first of its kind in the franchise's 42-year history. Kraft developed the creative private financing strategy for the $325 million construction of Gillette Stadium. Many financial experts dismissed the viability of his plan, which relied on year-round club memberships for new clientele rather than the more conventional sale of private seat licenses to existing season ticket holders. Kraft's unprecedented plan was considered a financial risk, but proved to be universally successful.

Throughout the stadium initiative, no one was more involved in each phase of the project, including the planning, construction, opening and ongoing operation and development of Gillette Stadium. Kraft worked closely with stadium designers to create a world-class sports and entertainment facility that would highlight features indigenous to New England. His team not only delivered on the promise of a fan-friendly facility, but did so on time and under budget.

Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices. In June of 2001, the Environmental Business Council presented The Kraft Group with the Environmental Award for Corporate Leadership. In May of 2002, the Kraft Group received New England's Environmental Merit Award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for the development and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In 2002, Jonathan and Robert Kraft received the Sports Industrialists of the Year award, presented annually by Sports Business Daily. The Krafts opened the year celebrating New England's first Super Bowl Championship. They christened their new stadium just a few months later, earning various awards and acclaim for the project. They negotiated a new naming rights partnership with Gillette and celebrated a spectacular grand opening by hosting the 2002 season premiere of Monday Night Football as Super Bowl champions, presenting both the stadium and their 2001 Super Bowl banner to the fans of New England. One month later, the Krafts' Major League Soccer franchise, the New England Revolution, won the Eastern Conference to qualify for the MLS Cup, which drew over 61,000 fans to Gillette Stadium, the then-largest crowd in MLS history.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots fan base was limited in range and scope. As a lifelong Patriots fan, Kraft was committed to expanding the Patriots fan base through an innovative multi-media outreach. Under his directive, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch an official website in March of 1995. Just two years later, the team debuted the first use of streaming video, offering a nightly video update. Since then, streaming video has been a constant feature on the team's website. The technology is also used to broadcast "Patriots Live!" featuring live feeds of every Patriots press conference. The Patriots' other Internet initiatives include a highly successful e-commerce division, providing Patriots fans around the world easy access to Patriots merchandise and apparel. In 2004, the team showed their commitment to globalizing the Patriots brand when they launched the NFL's first Chinese-language version of their website.

In April of 1995, the Patriots began publishing Patriots Football Weekly, the first full-color weekly publication offered by a sports team. It appears on newsstands throughout New England and is distributed to Patriots fans throughout the world.

Following the Super Bowl XXXVI championship, Kraft commissioned the production of a DVD entitled "3 Games to Glory," providing fans an opportunity to re-live three of the most memorable games in franchise history. Since then, he has overseen the production of its sequels, "3 Games to Glory II," and "3 Games to Glory III," each featuring over five hours of behind-the-scenes content on a two-disc DVD set. The Patriots remain the only team to produce and sell such extensive commemorative DVDs.

Since Robert Kraft's purchase of Foxboro Stadium in 1988, Jonathan Kraft has helped bring many world-class events to Foxborough, including international soccer matches and concerts. Past performers include The Rolling Stones, Aerosmith, Elton John, Billy Joel, Pink Floyd and The Dave Matthews Band. For his efforts, the Greater Boston Convention and Visitors Bureau, Inc. presented him with the "Spirit of Tourism" award for promoting tourism and economic activity in the Commonwealth.

A Williams College graduate, Kraft also earned an MBA from Harvard Business School. He is on the board of directors for several organizations, including the U.S. Soccer Federation, Citizen's Bank of Massachusetts and Children's Hospital Trust. He is also on the board of trustees at Williams College, the Belmont Hill School and Park School.

Kraft is active in youth athletics, coaching Pop Warner football, youth soccer and little league baseball in the greater Boston area. In 2006, he was the recipient of the Warner Award, named after Glenn S. "Pop" Warner. The award is presented annually and is considered Pop Warner's highest honor.

Jonathan and his wife, Patti, have three children.

Scott Pioli is in his eighth season with the Patriots and along with Head Coach Bill Belichick has instilled a football philosophy designed to create a consistent championship contender in New England. Their work has produced an NFL-best three Super Bowl championships, three conference titles and five division crowns since 2001.

Pioli's primary personnel objective is to build a team, not to simply collect individual talent. As a result, the Patriots have been able to prosper despite the NFL realities of injuries and the salary cap, which have proven in many cases to be impediments to long-term success in pro football. The depth and versatility of the clubs that Pioli and Belichick have assembled have been integral to the Patriots' success, as players from a wide spectrum of previous experience have played important roles in the team's achievements.

Once Pioli and Belichick arrived in New England in 2000, it took the pair just two seasons to rebuild the foundation of the team. Since orchestrating the franchise's first Super Bowl victory following the 2001 season, Pioli and Belichick have produced consistently solid results, becoming the only personnel director/head coach tandem in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in a four-year span (2001-04). The Patriots are the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last four seasons (2003-06) and are the only team in the league to win nine or more games in each of the last six seasons (2001-06). Additionally, New England's 12 playoff wins over the last six seasons are tied for the second-highest total by a team over any six-year span in NFL history.

In recognition of his achievements, Pioli was awarded The Sporting News' George Young NFL Executive of the Year award (voted on by NFL executives) following the 2003 and 2004 seasons. He is one of just three NFL executives, along with Bill Polian and Bobby Beathard, to win the award in consecutive years. Pioli is the youngest executive to win the award.

In each of the last four seasons, the depth and versatility of New England's roster helped overcome key injuries to win four straight AFC East titles. The Patriots have used an average of nearly 42 different starters over the last four seasons, and claimed two NFL records for success in that category. In 2005, the Patriots set a post-merger league record for a division champion by utilizing 45 different starters. In 2003, the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVIII despite using 42 different starters, the most in league history by a Super Bowl champion. In 2004, the Patriots employed 40 different starters as they won their second consecutive Super Bowl, and in 2006 won their fourth straight AFC East title while using 39 different starters. Of the 53 players on the Patriots' 2006 AFC Championship Game roster, 43 were acquired after the team's first championship in 2001 and 28 were acquired since the team's third title in 2004.

The Patriots have used an effective combination of free agent signings, trades and draft picks to acquire championship-caliber players. Players drafted by Belichick and Pioli have earned a total of three Super Bowl MVP awards and nine Pro Bowl berths, while Tom Brady (a sixth round pick in 2000) and Richard Seymour (a first-rounder in 2001) are widely considered to be among the NFL's elite players. Veteran free agents signed by Belichick and Pioli include defensive co-captain Rodney Harrison, outside linebackers Mike Vrabel and Rosevelt Colvin and three-time Pro Bowl special teams captain Larry Izzo among dozens of other contributors to New England's championship squads. New England's trades have netted improvement in drafting position that led to the ability to exchange draft picks for key veterans such as Corey Dillon, who set the Patriots' single-season rushing record in 2004, and Ted Washington, an important contributor to the 2003 title team.

Pioli was honored with Executive of the Year honors from national media outlets following the 2001, 2003 and 2004 seasons. Following the Patriots' first Super Bowl victory, the Dallas Morning News picked him as the league's top executive. Two seasons later, following Super Bowl XXXVIII, he earned Executive of the Year honors from Pro Football Weekly (voted on by the media), The Sporting News (voted on by NFL executives) and Sports Illustrated. In 2004, Pioli's accolades included the NFLPA's Award for Executive Achievement and NFL Executive of the Year awards from The Sporting News, USA Today, the San Francisco Chronicle and SI.com.

Pioli began his NFL career when Belichick hired him as a pro personnel assistant for the Cleveland Browns in 1992. In Cleveland, he was responsible for the evaluation of both college prospects and veteran free agents as well as negotiating various player contracts. He also coordinated all player tryouts. He was promoted to director of pro personnel after the Cleveland franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996. He spent one season with the Baltimore Ravens, where he oversaw all aspects of pro personnel and negotiated the contracts of free agents and several draft choices.

In 1997, while serving as head coach of the Jets, Belichick hired Pioli as the director of pro personnel. He was credited with the signing of a number of veteran free agents who played critical roles in the Jets' rebuilding process. In just two seasons, the Jets completed a worst-to-first turnaround, rebounding from 1-15 in 1996 to 12-4 in 1998. The 12 wins were the most in franchise history and gave the Jets their first division title since 1968.

Pioli played defensive tackle at Central Connecticut State (1983-87), where he was a three-time Division II All-New England selection. In 1988, after graduating with a degree in communications, he accepted a two-year graduate assistant position at Syracuse University, where he also earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications.

He accepted a full-time coaching opportunity at Murray State, where he spent one season as the offensive line coach (1990) and one season as the defensive line coach (1991). He left the coaching ranks to join the Browns personnel department in 1992.

Pioli was born on March 31, 1965 in Washingtonville, N.Y. He is an avid baseball fan. He currently serves on the board of directors for various non-profit foundations and serves on the board of directors for the Foundation for Excellent Schools, a national non-profit organization that partners with public schools in high-need communities to raise student aspirations and performance. He remains actively involved in fund raising for several organizations in his hometown (Washingtonville, N.Y.), and has participated in Eric Mangini's annual Football Fundamentals Mini-Camp in Hartford, Conn. He established the Rose Pioli Scholarship in the name of his grandmother to benefit children of educators, professional firefighters, police and other emergency medical service providers. He was enshrined in the Central Connecticut State Hall of Fame in 2005. Scott and his wife, Dallas, have a daughter, Mia Costa Pioli.

SUSTAINED PLAYOFF SUCCESS

The Patriots have won 12 playoff games since 2001, tying the NFL's second highest playoff victory total over a six-year span. New England won a pair of playoff games in 2006 en route to a berth in the AFC Championship Game.

Regular Season – 111-81 (.578)
Postseason – 13-3 (.813)
Patriots Record – 87-39 (.690)

Bill Belichick is in his 33rd season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl championships in a four-year span.

He was hired by Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000 and is in his eighth season as Patriots head coach in 2007.

In his first seven seasons in New England, Belichick has delivered three Super Bowl championships, three conference titles, five division crowns and 12 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 87-39. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004), and New England's 12 playoff victories since 2001 mark the second highest playoff win total for any head coach in a six-year period.

In 2001, just his second season as Patriots head coach, Belichick guided the Patriots to their first league title with a dramatic victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. In the seasons since then, he has directed New England to sustained success.

Belichick has led the Patriots to nine or more victories in each of the last six seasons, making the Patriots the only NFL franchise to accomplish that feat. Additionally, his teams have won the AFC East title and advanced in the playoffs in four straight seasons and have accomplished the feat in five of the last six seasons. The Patriots' four straight years of playoff advancement mark the longest such streak in the NFL and their string of four straight division crowns is a team record and is tied for the longest current streak in the league.

Belichick's accomplishments have placed him among the NFL's elite coaches. Belichick has led the Patriots to a 70-26 (.729) regular-season record since 2001, which is the best in the NFL over that period. New England's 12 playoff wins since 2001 are also a league best. Belichick owns a career playoff record of 13-3, with his .813 playoff winning percentage placing second in NFL history behind only the legendary Vince Lombardi (9-1, .900). Belichick's 13 career playoff wins rank fifth all-time.

In 2006, Belichick directed the Patriots to a berth in the AFC Championship Game for the third time in four years and for the fourth time in six seasons. New England won the AFC East division for the fourth consecutive season, tying the all-time record for consecutive AFC East titles. Last year the Patriots set a franchise record by allowing just 14.8 points per game, and their 14 total victories tied the second highest total in franchise history, trailing only the 17 wins achieved in 2003 and 2004.

In 2005, New England won 11 games despite being forced to use 45 different starters, an NFL record for a division champion. After starting the season 4-4 and being faced with a rash of injuries, the Patriots won six of their next seven games to claim their third straight division title.

From 2003-04, Belichick directed the Patriots through the most prosperous two-year period for any team in NFL history, netting back-to-back Super Bowl victories and consecutive 17-2 campaigns. The team's 34 victories in 2003-04 mark the highest two-year win total in the NFL's 87-year history. A winning streak of 21 consecutive games – also unprecedented in NFL annals – spanned the two seasons. The team's 17 wins in 2003 and 2004 are tied with the undefeated 1972 Miami Dolphins for the third-most in NFL history, trailing only the 1985 Chicago Bears and the 1984 San Francisco 49ers (both 18-1). New England was undefeated at home in both 2003 and 2004, and set a franchise record by winning 21 straight home games from 2002-05.

The 2004 season saw the Patriots tie the best regular-season record by a defending Super Bowl champion (14-2). New England capped off the year with another memorable playoff run, culminating in a 24-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX that made Belichick

EXTRA POINTS

- ★Coach Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four years (2001-04).
- ★Coach Belichick's 13-3 playoff record is the second best in NFL history. He trails only the legendary Vince Lombardi, for whom the Super Bowl trophy is named.
- ★Coach Belichick's Patriots teams own all of the major winning streaks in NFL history: consecutive overall wins (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular season wins (18 from 2003-04) and consecutive playoff wins (10 from 2001-05).
- ★Coach Belichick owns victories over 30 other NFL teams in his seven seasons as Patriots head coach, the most for any NFL head coach since 2000.
- ★With 33 years of NFL coaching experience, Coach Belichick is the longest tenured among active NFL head coaches.

WINNING WAYS

Bill Belichick has victories over 30 different NFL teams in his seven seasons with the Patriots, the most for any head coach in the league since 2000. The only club the Patriots have not beaten during his tenure with New England is the Washington Redskins.

HEAD COACHES WITH VICTORIES OVER THE MOST TEAMS SINCE 2000

just the fourth head coach in NFL history to win at least three Super Bowl titles. Only one coach (Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll, 4) has won more Super Bowls. Belichick's three Super Bowl titles tie Washington's Joe Gibbs and San Francisco's Bill Walsh for second place on the NFL's all-time list. Noll, Gibbs and Walsh are all enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

One of the hallmarks of Belichick's teams have been their ability to consistently succeed against top competition. The Patriots enter the 2007 season with a record of 22-8 (.733) against playoff teams since the beginning of the 2003 season. In their 38 regular season and playoff games in 2003 and 2004, the Patriots played 23 contests against teams that finished the season with a record of .500 or better. New England recorded a remarkable 22-1 (.957) mark in those games, while the rest of the league was a cumulative 74-182 (.289) against the same squads. In the playoffs, Belichick's Patriots are a perfect 5-0 against teams holding the top seed in their conference.

Belichick's teams have consistently relied on the depth and resiliency of the roster to overcome injuries and setbacks. In 2001, the Patriots opened the season 0-2 before rebounding to win 14 of their next 17 games. In 2003, a 31-0 season-opening setback in Buffalo was answered triumphantly, as the team rebounded to win 17 of the next 18 games despite using 42 different starters (then an NFL record for a division champion). In 2004, injuries were overcome yet again, as the Patriots used 40 different starters, including nine different starters in the secondary. In 2005, New England started 4-4, but went on to claim the AFC East title by using 45 different starters, breaking the NFL record that it had set two years earlier for the most starters by a division champion.

Belichick's Patriots have rarely been rattled and have been able to consistently maintain leads and bounce back following losses. Since 2001, his teams are 62-3 when leading at halftime and are 66-2 when leading after three quarters. Between 2001 and 2004, the Patriots won 38 consecutive games when leading after three quarters and 31 consecutive games when leading at halftime, with both marks setting post-merger NFL records. New England's resiliency was also on display when it went 57 games without losing back-to-back contests from 2002 to 2006, marking the NFL's second longest such streak since 1970.

In addition, the Patriots have maintained their focus throughout the year and have played their best football late in the season. Since 2001, the Patriots hold a 40-8 (.833) overall record in games played on Thanksgiving or later in the NFL season. As the season has gone on, the Patriots have only gotten better, posting a 19-3 (.864) mark in games played on Christmas or later in the NFL season.

EXTRA POINTS

- ★Since he was first named a defensive coordinator in 1985, Coach Belichick's teams have allowed an average of fewer than 20 points per game 18 times in 22 years.
- ★In 2004, Coach Belichick was named to Time Magazine's list of the 100 Most Powerful and Influential People in the World after winning his second Super Bowl in three seasons.
- ★Seven former assistants on Coach Belichick's staffs are head coaches in the NFL or college in 2007.

Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in a career during which he has helped produce five Super Bowl titles, six conference championships and 12 division titles since entering the NFL in 1975. Now in his 33rd season in the NFL, he has more years of NFL experience than any of the other 31 head coaches. He won his first two Super Bowls as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and again in 1990 before claiming three Super Bowl championships with the Patriots. George Seifert is the only other man to have won multiple Super Bowls as a head coach and as an assistant coach.

Once he became Patriots head coach, Belichick needed just one season to successfully implement his plan for success. In 2001, his second season in charge, he rebounded from a 5-11 record in 2000 to improve to 11-5, tying the franchise regular season record for wins. With a 20-17 victory over the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, the Patriots tied the franchise's then-record of 14 overall wins. In 2003 and 2004, the Patriots eclipsed those marks in each season, posting identical 14-2 records in the regular season and notching 17 total wins and a Super Bowl title in each year.

PLAYOFF SUCCESS

Coach Belichick has won 13 career playoff games, a total that is the fifth-highest by a head coach in NFL history.

Belichick returned to the Patriots as head coach after three seasons with the New York Jets (1997-99) as the team's assistant head coach/secondary coach, holding the responsibility of calling the team's defensive plays. In 1998, the Jets surrendered just 266 points, propelling the team to its first division title. After finishing the regular season with a franchise-best 12-4 overall record, as the Jets advanced to the AFC Championship game. Following the season, Belichick filled in for Bill Parcells as the head coach of the AFC's squad in the 1999 Pro Bowl.

Belichick was named head coach of the New York Jets on Feb. 3, 1997, an interim position he held until Parcells was formally announced as head coach a week later. During that week, Belichick hired Scott Pioli as the team's director of pro personnel. After Parcells was named head coach, Belichick became the assistant head coach/secondary coach. In his first season with the Jets, his defense surrendered just 287 points, an average of 17.9 points per game, marking a significant 10.5-point improvement per game from 1996.

Patriots fans witnessed Belichick's impact on a team firsthand in 1996 when he joined the Patriots after five seasons as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns. That year, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years with an 11-5 record and won their first two playoff games at Foxboro Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XXXI. The 1996 Patriots defense allowed just 19.6 points per game and forced 34 turnovers, second in the AFC. In two playoff games, the defense allowed just nine points combined, propelling the Patriots to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI against Green Bay.

Prior to joining the Patriots, Belichick spent five seasons (1991-95) rebuilding the Cleveland Browns, whose 3-13 finish in 1990 was the worst in the history of the franchise. By 1994, the Browns were again one of NFL's best teams, boasting the second-best record in the AFC. Belichick's first head coaching opportunity came following the 1990 season, when his defensive efforts with the New York Giants helped claim a second Super Bowl title in five years. At the age of 38, he became the NFL's youngest head coach. In his first season, Belichick began the rebuilding process by restoring the foundation of the aging squad he inherited. In 1991, the Browns improved to 6-10 and played in 11 games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

Following back-to-back 7-9 campaigns in 1992 and 1993, the Browns improved to 11-5 in 1994, a mark that is still tied for the second highest victory total in the 58-year history of the Browns franchise. The 1994 squad was defined by its defense, which allowed a league-low 204 points. In their return to the playoffs, the Browns eliminated Parcells' Patriots, 20-13, in a first-round wild-card game on New Year's Day 1995.

The 1995 season was disrupted by the mid-season announcement that the Cleveland Browns franchise would be moved to Baltimore at the conclusion of the campaign. The announcement caused an undeniable mid-season distraction resulting in a 5-11 finish. Belichick did not accompany the franchise's move to Baltimore after the 1995 season.

Belichick began his coaching career after graduating from Wesleyan University and accepting a staff assistant position with the Baltimore Colts in 1975. At the age of 23, he was named special assistant to Head Coach Ted Marchibroda. In 1976, Belichick joined Rick Forzano's staff with the Detroit Lions as an assistant special teams coach. The following year, he was given his first positional coaching assignment as the Lions' tight ends and receivers coach. In 1978, Denver Broncos Head Coach Red Miller hired Belichick as the assistant special teams coach and assistant to defensive coordinator Joe Collier.

NFL SENIORITY

Coach Belichick began his coaching career as a special assistant with the Baltimore Colts in 1975 at the age of 23. This year, he enters his 33rd season in the NFL and owns the distinction of having the most NFL coaching experience among current head coaches. The head coaches with the most NFL experience are listed below:

Years	Name	NFL Coaching Tenure
33	Bill Belichick	1975-2007
31	Wade Phillips	1976-2000,2002-2007

POSTSEASON PROWESS

Bill Belichick is the second winningest head coach in NFL playoff history, trailing only the legendary Vince Lombardi, whose name is emblazoned on the Super Bowl trophy. Coach Belichick won 10 playoff games in a row from 2001-05, setting an NFL record and eclipsing the previous mark set by Lombardi's Packers (9 from 1961-67).

HALL OF FAMERS

From 1981-88, Coach Belichick tutored the linebackers for the New York Giants. His unit featured Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson, both of whom are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 1979, Belichick joined Ray Perkins' staff with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, launching a 12-year tenure with the Giants. After the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. In 1983, he began coordinating the defense on Bill Parcells' staff and continued coaching the linebackers, a unit that would become known as one of the most dominant groups of all-time. He was officially appointed defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. During his time as the Giants' defensive signal caller, his units were never ranked lower than 11th in the NFL and finished as high as second in the league three times, including the Super Bowl seasons of 1986 and 1990. His contributions with the Giants throughout the 1980s brought him national recognition as one of the best young assistant coaches in the NFL.

Seven former assistant coaches on Coach Belichick's staffs in Cleveland or New England have gone on to become head coaches at the NFL or collegiate level. Two current NFL head coaches worked on Belichick staffs: Cleveland's Romeo Crennel and the New York Jets' Eric Mangini. Additionally, five college head coaches were hired as assistants by Belichick: Notre Dame's Charlie Weis, Alabama's Nick Saban, Iowa's Kirk Ferentz, Fresno State's Pat Hill and Virginia's Al Groh.

FOOTBALL FAMILY

Bill Belichick is one of only four head coaches in NFL history whose father played in the NFL. The others are Joe Walton, David Shula and Mike Nolan. Belichick's father, Steve, played fullback for the Detroit Lions in 1941 and coached for 33 years at the Naval Academy.

PHILANTHROPY

Throughout his career, Coach Belichick has been active in a wide array of charitable endeavors. In 2006, he presented the first ever Steve Belichick Award in conjunction with the Annapolis Touchdown Club. The award, presented in the name of Coach Belichick's father, a longtime Naval Academy assistant coach, honors an Annapolis resident deeply involved in sports without seeking a spotlight for their achievements. He established a scholarship in his father's memory at Struthers High School in Struthers, Ohio, aiding recipients in achieving their goal of attending college. Coach Belichick was a keynote speaker at the Frank McGuire Foundation's coaching seminar, addressing 600 New York-area high school coaches. He participated in the Samsung's Four Seasons of Hope annual fundraising gala, where he introduced longtime friend Jon Bon Jovi to a list of honorees that included Joe Torre, Arnold Palmer, Magic Johnson and Boomer Esiason. The star-studded affair raised over $500,000 to aid children and families in need. He was honored by Roxbury Comprehensive Community Center (RoxComp) and presented with the "Healthy Living Award." He has participated in Eric Mangini's annual Football Fundamentals Mini-Camp in Hartford, Conn. He is also a supporter of Hall of Famer Jim Brown's Amer-I-Can Foundation and has made speeches and appearances for Brown's foundation. While in Cleveland, the Belichick family launched a charitable foundation benefitting the Zelma George Home, a shelter for homeless women and children. The Belichicks also established an annual scholarship awarded to an Annapolis High School senior for academic and athletic achievement.

Since becoming Patriots head coach, Coach Belichick has participated in dozens of community events in New England, including the March of Dimes Walk America, the Rodman Ride for Kids, RoxComp's Reading is the Best Medicine Program and the Mayors Cup Regatta on the Charles River to benefit AccesSportAmerica, a charity dedicated to fitness of children and adults with disabilities. He is a supporter of the Pawtucket Police Athletic League. He has also participated in several events benefiting the Lazarus House, a non-profit charity serving the homeless of Merrimack Valley.

ACADEMICS

At Wesleyan's commencement in 2002, Coach Belichick received the prestigious Baldwin Medal, awarded annually by the Wesleyan University Alumni Association. It recognizes outstanding contributions to public interest and to Wesleyan. In 2005, he received a Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Wesleyan. He is proud to remain close to his Phillips Academy roots, where he was bestowed the Distinguished Alumni Award in 1987. He was also honored at Phillips Academy when the school declared a day in his honor in 2002. Annually, he makes several offseason visits to local schools to speak to students. Speaking engagements included visits to Southern Connecticut State University, Boston College, Wesleyan and Brown University, as well as Phillips Academy in Andover and a panel discussion on sports at the Fenn School's Alumni Dinner. He was a guest speaker at the 2006 NCAA Lacrosse All-American banquet held at the Final Four in Philadelphia. In 2004, he received honorary doctorates at Boston University and the New England Institute of Technology, where he also delivered the commencement address to over 900 graduates.

THE BELICHICK LIBRARY

Coach Belichick is an avid collector of football-related books, and along with his late father, Steve, amassed a library of more than 800 volumes. The library is believed to be the third-largest collection of football books in the world, behind only the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Library of Congress. In 2006, Coach Belichick moved his entire library to the Naval Academy, where his father coached for 33 years. The books are housed in a display at Ricketts Hall in Annapolis for future generations of football players, coaches and fans to enjoy.

DAUNTING DEFENSES

Coach Belichick's teams have always been renowned for having among the stingiest defenses in the NFL. Since Belichick was first named a defensive coordinator in 1985, his defenses have allowed an average of less than 20 points per game 18 times in 22 years. Belichick's defenses have allowed the fewest points in the NFL three times and his defenses have finished in the top 10 on 14 occasions. In 2006, the Patriots set a franchise record by allowing just 14.8 points per game.

NICK CASERIO

WIDE RECEIVERS

2ND COACHING SEASON ■ 7TH NFL SEASON ■ 7TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

COACHING

Nick Caserio was named wide receivers coach on Bill Belichick's staff in the spring of 2007. He is in his seventh season with the Patriots and his first as a position coach.

Caserio served as Patriots' director of pro personnel for three seasons from 2004 to 2006. He spent a total of five seasons in the Patriots' player personnel department and a season as a full-time offensive coaching assistant before being named to his current position.

Caserio joined the Patriots in June of 2001 as a personnel assistant and celebrated the Patriots' first Super Bowl title that season. During that year, his role was expanded to include film breakdown and scouting report preparation for the offensive staff. He became an offensive coaching assistant on Bill Belichick's staff in February of 2002, and returned to player personnel in 2003 as an area scout prior to becoming director of pro personnel in 2004. In addition to his duties in the personnel department, Caserio handled press box responsibilities for the coaching staff on game days from 2003-06.

He entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Saginaw Valley State University in 1999 and spent two seasons with the program. The Cardinals finished the 2000 season 9-2 and qualified for the Division II playoffs. Following a brief time with Central Michigan as a graduate assistant in the spring of 2001, he joined the Patriots scouting department.

PLAYING

Caserio was a standout player at John Carroll University, starting at quarterback in each of his four seasons where the teams compiled a 33-7-2 record. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-Conference performer. In 1997, he helped to lead the Blue Streaks to a 10-2 record and the school's second appearance in the NCAA Division III Tournament, where it advanced to the national quarterfinals.

PERSONAL

Caserio is a native of Westlake, Ohio. He was a teammate of Patriots offensive coordinator Josh McDaniels at John Carroll. He earned his degree in finance from John Carroll and later earned his Master of Business Administration from Saginaw Valley State. Caserio was a three-time Academic All-Conference selection at John Carroll.

JOEL COLLIER

SECONDARY

19TH COACHING SEASON ■ 17TH NFL SEASON ■ 6TH PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Joel Collier returned to New England when he joined Bill Belichick's staff on February 23, 2005. Collier had previously spent three seasons (1991-93) in the Patriots' coaching and scouting departments before serving an 11-year tenure as an assistant coach with the Miami Dolphins (1994-04).

In 2006, Collier's secondary contributed to a defense that set the franchise record in points allowed per game (14.81) and the defensive backfield was key in surrendering the fewest touchdown passes in the league (10). Patriots' opposing quarterbacks had the second lowest cumulative passer rating (66.1) in the league and lowest inside the 30-yard line (50.8). Collier's work with cornerback Asante Samuel helped him tie for the league lead in interceptions with 10 in 2006.

In 2005, Collier helped the secondary improve down the stretch after losing six players to season-ending injuries. In New England's last seven regular-season and playoff games, opponents averaged just 188 passing yards per game while throwing for a total of only five touchdowns. In those final seven contests, opposing teams were held to fewer than 200 total passing yards five times. The synergy that the group achieved was remarkable considering that 13 different starters were utilized during the season, including six starters at strong safety over an eight-week midseason span. Collier's tutelage helped cornerbacks Asante Samuel and Ellis Hobbs tie for the team lead with three interceptions apiece while combining to produce a total of 30 passes defensed.

Collier rejoined the Patriots in 2005 after completing a seven-year assignment as Miami's running backs coach, during which time he helped produce three 1,000-yard seasons and coached three different players who finished among the NFL's top five rookie rushers in their respective rookie seasons. Under Collier's tutelage, running back Ricky Williams recorded the top two rushing seasons in Dolphins history, notching an NFL-leading franchise-record 1,853 yards in 2002 and following that with a 1,372-yard effort in 2003. Williams earned a Pro Bowl nod in 2002, becoming the first Dolphins running back since Delvin Williams in 1978 to earn such recognition. Collier was also credited with assisting the development of former Miami fullback Rob Konrad, who became known as one of the league's top blocking fullbacks.

His experience on the defensive side of the ball includes a four-year stint as Miami's defensive staff assistant beginning in 1994. In that role, Collier helped to coach the Dolphins linebackers in addition to assisting with the overall football operation. In 1997, he was credited with assisting in the development of linebacker Derrick Rodgers, who earned Sports Illustrated's Defensive Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Collier spent three seasons in Foxborough as the Patriots' assistant running backs and receivers coach (1991-92) and as a pro scout (1993). He was hired as a member of Head Coach Dick MacPherson's staff in 1991, and his assignments included assisting wide receivers coach (and current Patriots running backs coach) Ivan Fears.

Collier began his coaching career in 1988 as a graduate assistant under MacPherson at Syracuse University before entering the NFL as an offensive assistant for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1990.

PLAYING

Collier was a three-year starter at inside linebacker for Northern Colorado University. He was an academic All-North Central Conference selection.

PERSONAL

Joel Collier was born on Dec. 25, 1963 in Buffalo, N.Y. He is the son of Joe Collier, who was on the Patriots' original coaching staff from 1960-61 and served as New England's defensive coordinator under Dick MacPherson from 1991-92. Joe Collier was also head coach of the Buffalo Bills and a longtime defensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos, where Joel served as a ballboy while growing up. Joel and his wife, Shirley Ann, have a son, Jeremy Grayson, and a daughter, Evelyn.

DON DAVIS

ASST. STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

1ST COACHING SEASON ■ 12TH NFL SEASON ■ 5TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: XXXVI, XXXVIII

COACHING

Don Davis was hired as an assistant strength and conditioning coach on Head Coach Bill Belichick's staff in the Spring of 2007. This season will be Davis' first as a coach after an 11-year playing career with the New Orleans Saints, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, St. Louis Rams and the Patriots. The former linebacker and special teams player won two Super Bowls with the Patriots.

PLAYING

Davis played in 148 games during his 11-year NFL career (1996-2006), including four years with the Patriots (2003-06). He recorded 170 career special teams tackles along with 136 tackles at linebacker (76 solo), one interception, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

After five seasons as a reserve with the Saints and Buccaneers, Davis joined the Rams in 2001 and became a starter at outside linebacker. He tallied 104 tackles in two seasons in St. Louis and started in the Rams' Super Bowl XXXVI loss to the Patriots. After joining the Patriots in 2003, Davis immediately became one of the team's most productive special teams players. After notching 24 special teams stops to finish second on the team in 2003, he finished third on the Patriots with 19 special teams stops in 2004 and first with 25 in 2005. His 2006 season was cut short by an injury. Prior to entering the league as rookie free agent with the New York Jets, Davis was a three-year starter at the University of Kansas.

PERSONAL

Donald Earl Davis Jr. was born on Dec. 17, 1972 in Olathe, Kansas. In 2004, he received the Ernie Tavila Award given by the Athletes in Action organization to the professional athlete who displays exemplary values on and off the field. He was a human development major at Kansas. Don and his wife Yannette have two daughters: Dominique and Denay.

IVAN FEARS

RUNNING BACKS

32ND COACHING SEASON ■ 17TH NFL SEASON ■ 11TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: XXXV, XXXVII, XXXVIII

COACHING

Ivan Fears, a 32-year coaching veteran, is now enjoying his 17th season in the NFL and his 11th with the New England Patriots. He returned to New England in 1999 and since then has enjoyed five division championships, three conference titles and three Super Bowl championships. He is in his sixth season as running backs coach, after having coached New England's wide receivers from 1999-2001 and previously from 1991-92.

In 2006, Fears helped coach a rushing attack that averaged 123.1 yards per game, including a 236-yard rushing performance at Cincinnati (10/01). Under Fears' tutelage, Corey Dillon became the NFL's active career rushing leader and scored 13 touchdowns on the ground. Rookie Laurence Maroney finished third among rookie running backs with 745 rushing yards.

The 2005 season saw healthy production from the running backs despite injuries that forced the Patriots to start four different players at the position. Six different running backs combined to rush for 1,388 yards on 395 carries in 2005. Additionally, Corey Dillon tied his then career high with 12 rushing touchdowns despite missing four games due to injury.

In 2004, the Patriots enjoyed one of the finest rushing seasons in franchise history as the team averaged 4.07 yards per carry, the most since 1985 (4.13-yard average). The Patriots ran for more than 200 yards in a game on three occasions, including a 210-yard performance in the divisional playoffs. Additionally, the team's 225 rushing yards against Cleveland (12/5) were the most in any game since 1993. Dillon set the team's single-season rushing record with 1,635 yards and led the NFL with an average of 109.0 yards per game in which he appeared.

The 2003 season saw the Patriots exceed the 100-yard rushing plateau as a team in eight of 16 regular-season games, an improvement on their five games exceeding the century mark in 2002. The Patriots also passed the 100-yard mark in two of three postseason contests, including a 127-yard output in their victory in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Fears took on running backs duties in 2002, and in his first season the position produced 1,508 yards rushing – the second highest total by the Patriots since 1996. The Patriots averaged 3.8 yards per carry, tying 2001's average as the highest since 1995.

As receivers coach in 2001, Fears helped both Troy Brown and David Patten produce career years. Brown established a franchise record with 101 receptions for a career-high 1,199 yards and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. It was Brown's first 1,000-yard season of his eight-year career. Patten, who entered the season with just 71 career receptions in four seasons, claimed the starting role opposite Brown and was credited with 51 receptions for 749 yards and four touchdowns.

Fears originally joined the professional coaching ranks as the receivers coach on Dick MacPherson's staff with the Patriots in 1991. After two seasons in New England, he accepted a position with the Bears in Chicago, where he coached the receivers for six seasons (1993-98) before returning to New England in 1999.

In 1991, his receiving corps featured Irving Fryar, Greg McMurtry and Michael Timpson. That year, Fryar turned in his first 1,000-yard season of his career, finishing with 1,014 yards on 68 receptions (14.9 avg.).

In 1993, he joined the Chicago Bears and inherited the team's first-round selection, Curtis Conway. In 1994, the Bears added Jeff Graham, a reserve receiver from the Steelers, and Fears helped develop the two into one of the premier receiving tandems in the league over a two-year span. In his first year with the Bears, Graham started 15 games and led the team with 68 receptions for 944 yards. In 1995, Conway and Graham became the first receiving tandem in franchise history to each record over 1,000 yards receiving in a single season. In 1996, Conway produced a career-high 81 receptions for 1,049 yards and became the first Bear in franchise history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.

Fears began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at William & Mary in 1976. In 1977, he drew his first positional responsibilities coaching receivers. His next two seasons (1978-79), he coached quarterbacks before accepting the role as receivers coach at Syracuse in 1980, a position he held for the next 12 seasons.

PLAYING

A three-year letterman as a running back at William & Mary (1973-75), his playing career was cut short after undergoing three knee operations during his collegiate career.

PERSONAL

Ivan Fears was born Nov. 15, 1954 in Portsmouth, Va. He grew up in Suffolk, Va., where he starred at John Yates High and was twice named the school's Outstanding Player of the Year. He also earned all-state honors as a senior. Ivan and his wife, Beverly, have three children, Joshua, Aaron and Kimberly.

COACHING

Pepper Johnson is enjoying his 21st season in the NFL, including his eighth season on Bill Belichick's coaching staff. Johnson has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams, earning a pair of rings during his illustrious 13-year playing career and also contributing to three championship teams as a Patriots assistant coach. All five of his Super Bowl rings have been earned while teamed with Coach Belichick. In 2007, Johnson enters his fourth season mentoring the defensive line after spending three seasons as the Patriots' inside linebackers coach.

Last season, the defensive line was a key component of a defense that set the franchise record in points allowed per game (14.81). Anchored by the defensive line, the Patriots defense was ranked in the top 5 in the NFL for the final 10 weeks of the season, and the New England defense ended the season tops in fourth down conversion percentage. Defensive co-captain Richard Seymour was selected to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl, and Ty Warren had a breakout year, submitting career highs in tackles (117) and sacks (7.5). Nose tackle Vince Wilfork finished fourth on the team with 81 tackles despite missing the final three games, and top reserve Jarvis Green notched a career-high 7.5 sacks.

In 2005, Johnson tutored a defensive line whose performance down the stretch helped the Patriots claim four wins in December to clinch the division title. In those four December games, New England allowed a total of just 125 rushing yards, an average of only 31.3 rushing yards per game. Defensive co-captain Richard Seymour earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and maintained the high level of production that has earned him accolades as one of the NFL's top defensive players. Former first-round draft choices Ty Warren and Vince Wilfork each started all 16 games and reached career-high tackle totals. Wilfork's 91 stops placed second on the team, while Warren's 77 tackles ranked third.

In his first season as defensive line coach in 2004, Johnson successfully integrated young talent with a solid veteran presence to form a versatile unit. The line was key in helping New England's run defense rank sixth in the NFL, and the defensive line accounted for 14.5 sacks on the season. Seymour earned his third straight Pro Bowl nod, while Warren, a second-year pro, and Wilfork, a rookie, each came into their own as top-line NFL starters.

In 2003, Johnson coached an inside linebackers unit that was a key part of a defense that held its opponents to a franchise-record and NFL-best 14.9 points per game. The inside linebacking corps was a major reason the Patriots ranked fourth in the NFL in run defense in 2003, up from 31st in the league in 2002. In addition, inside linebacker Tedy Bruschi returned two interceptions for touchdowns and credited one of Johnson's practice drills with improving his nose for the ball.

Johnson originally joined Coach Belichick's staff as part of the NFL's summer coaching fellowship in the summer of 2000. He spent the season with the Patriots as a defensive assistant, working primarily with the linebackers. In 2001, he joined the staff as the inside linebackers coach, the same position at which he excelled for 13 NFL seasons. After injuries sidelined Ted Johnson and Bryan Cox in 2001, Bruschi made the transition from outside to inside linebacker and helped fuel the Patriots defense through a season-ending win streak that culminated with a Super Bowl title. In 2002, linebackers Phifer and Ted Johnson finished first and second in tackles with 109 and 96 tackles respectively. It was the first time two linebackers led the Patriots in tackles since 1994.

PLAYING

Johnson started 158 of 193 regular season games and played for four different teams during his 13-year NFL career from 1986-98. The two-time Pro Bowl performer won Super Bowl titles as a member of the New York Giants in 1986 and again in 1990. His presence helped form one of the most dominant defensive units in the history of the game. In 13 seasons, he totaled over 1,200 tackles, including 25.5 sacks. He also forced 12 fumbles, recovering eight, and intercepted 14 passes, including two that he returned for touchdowns. In a game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991, he set a Giants franchise record with 4.5 sacks. He played seven seasons with the Giants (1986-92) before joining the Cleveland Browns in 1993. In 1994, he recorded a career-high with 207 tackles for the Browns. He signed with the Detroit Lions for one season in 1996 before being reunited with Bill Belichick in New York when he signed with the Jets in 1997. He played two seasons with the Jets before retiring in 1999. In his first season with the Jets, he was voted team captain before the start of the regular season. A midseason injury vs. New England (10/19/97) sidelined him for the remainder of the season, but he returned as team captain and started every game for the Jets in 1998. Prior to his injury, he had not missed a game or a practice in 11-plus NFL seasons.

A two-time co-captain and defensive MVP at Ohio State, Johnson was drafted by the New York Giants in the second round of the 1986 NFL Draft after an All-American campaign as a senior for the Buckeyes in 1985.

PERSONAL

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson was born July 29, 1964 in Detroit, Mich. He was nicknamed "Pepper" by an aunt who observed his ritual of sprinkling pepper on his breakfast cereal as a youngster. After an all-star prep career at MacKenzie High in Detroit, Johnson became a scholar-athlete at Ohio State, where he majored in counseling and physical education. In 1999, his alma mater named him to the school's all-century team. In 2001, he was inducted into the Ohio State Hall of Fame. He formed Pepper Johnson Enterprises, a non-profit community organization that operates in Detroit to support youth and anti-crime programs. Johnson's many philanthropic endeavors have earned him honors for his work with Special Olympics, the March of Dimes, the Make-a-Wish Foundation, Children's Leukemia Foundation and Pepper Johnson's Youth Foundation. He is also a supporter of the Michael Landon Foundation, the Carol M. Baldwin Breast Cancer Research Foundation, Dylan MalaMala Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and the Trey Whitfield Foundation. While in New York, he sponsored a charity golf tournament on Long Island to benefit a home for babies born to drug-addicted mothers. Pepper has a son, Dionte, who is a senior at Ohio State.

PETE MANGURIAN

TIGHT ENDS

28TH COACHING SEASON ■ 16TH NFL SEASON ■ 3RD PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Pete Mangurian was named the tight ends coach on Head Coach Bill Belichick's staff on March 7, 2005. He is entering his 16th year in the NFL and his 28th year as a coach, including a successful three-year stint as the head coach at Cornell University and a tenure as the offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons in 2003.

Last season, Mangurian's group contributed consistent offense as the Patriots introduced several new receivers into their offensive attack. Benjamin Watson had a career year, finishing second on the team with a career-high 49 receptions for 643 yards while rookie David Thomas emerged late in the year as a threat in the passing offense, making his first start at Jacksonville (12/24) and catching five balls for 83 yards and his first career touchdown.

In 2005, his first season tutoring the Patriots tight ends, Mangurian's group scored 12 touchdowns (the most by Patriots tight ends in 21 years) while averaging 13.2 yards per catch (the highest by Patriots tight ends in 18 years). The 12 touchdowns included three scoring grabs from linebacker Mike Vrabel, who occasionally lined up as a tight end in goal-line situations. The last time the Patriots' tight ends had seen the end zone that often was in 1984, when New England's tight ends and H-Backs also notched 12 scores. Additionally, Patriots tight ends recorded 56 receptions for 737 yards, with the average of 13.2 yards per catch, representing the highest yards-per-catch figure by a group of New England tight ends since 1988. That season Russ Francis and Lin Dawson led a unit that averaged 13.3 yards per catch.

The 2005 campaign featured a tight ends unit that was one of the NFL's most consistent big-play threats at the position. Tight ends Daniel Graham and Benjamin Watson combined to produce eight regular-season receptions of 25 yards or longer, a mark that led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL (Atlanta, 9). Additionally, the duo produced six receptions of 30 yards or longer and 14 receptions of 20 yards or longer. In addition to those regular-season marks, Watson grabbed a 63-yard touchdown pass in the first round of the playoffs that stands as the longest touchdown reception in Patriots postseason history.

Prior to joining the Patriots, Mangurian was a member of Dan Reeves' staff with the Atlanta Falcons for three seasons from 2001-03, a period during which the Falcons notably excelled in rushing and pass protection. As Atlanta's offensive coordinator in 2003, Mangurian oversaw an offensive unit that averaged 4.48 yards per carry and allowed just 35 sacks, the fewest for the Falcons since 1991. His promotion to offensive coordinator came following a 2002 season during which he served as Atlanta's offensive line coach and contributed to a season in which the Falcons set team records for yards-per-carry (4.53), rushing touchdowns (23) and most 30-point games (8).

Mangurian returned to the NFL in 2001 after spending three seasons as the head coach at Cornell. In his final two seasons (1999-2000), Cornell won a total of 10 Ivy League games under Mangurian, more than any other team in the league. His 10-4 league record over that span ties the best two-year Ivy League record in school history. Mangurian recorded an overall record of 16-14 (.533) before returning to the NFL for the 2001 season.

The California native began his NFL coaching career in 1988, when Reeves hired him as the tight ends/H-backs coach for the Denver Broncos. He went on to become the team's offensive line coach in 1991. Mangurian spent a total of five seasons with the Broncos and was on the staff of the 1989 AFC Championship team that appeared in Super Bowl XXIV. In 1993, he joined the New York Giants and spent four seasons mentoring the offensive line, helping to pave the way for Rodney Hampton to record three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons. Overall, he spent 13 seasons as an assistant to Reeves with Denver, New York and Atlanta.

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Mangurian spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career in 1979, accepting a position as the assistant offensive line coach at Southern Methodist University. From there, he spent one season as the offensive line coach at New Mexico State (1981), then spent two seasons working with the offensive line at Stanford. In 1984, he began a four-season stint as the offensive line coach at his alma mater, Louisiana State, helping the Tigers earn four consecutive bowl bids and set school records for total offense on three separate occasions.

PLAYING

Mangurian was a defensive tackle at Louisiana State.

PERSONAL

Peter K. Mangurian was born on June 17, 1955 in Los Angeles, Calif. Pete and his wife, Amy, have two daughters, Lauren and Katie, and a son, Will.

8TH COACHING SEASON ■ 7TH NFL SEASON ■ 7TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

COACHING

Josh McDaniels enters his seventh NFL season and his seventh season in New England. He joined the Patriots on March 1, 2001 as a personnel assistant in the scouting department and assisted the defensive coaching staff for three seasons. He began serving as the Patriots' quarterbacks coach in 2004 and was named offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach on January 20, 2006.

In 2006, McDaniels helped integrate several new players into the offense, including free agent signee Reche Caldwell, mid-season acquisition Jabar Gaffney and rookie Laurence Maroney. In all, six new Patriots caught at least 10 passes, including Caldwell, who led the team with career-highs in receptions (69) and receiving yards (760). Gaffney, acquired prior to week six, became a starting receiver by the end of the regular season and was the team's most productive receiver in the playoffs. Maroney, splitting time with Corey Dillon, was the third leading rusher among NFL rookies.

In his role as quarterbacks coach, McDaniels has worked closely with starting signal caller Tom Brady. In three seasons working with McDaniels, Brady has compiled the top three passer ratings of his seven-year career – 92.6 (2004), 92.3 (2005) and 87.9 (2006).

In 2005, Brady led the NFL with a career-best 4,110 passing yards, a number that exceeded his previous career high by nearly 350 yards and represents the second highest yardage total in Patriots history. In 2004, Brady set a career high by recording a 92.6 passer rating, besting his previous career mark by six points.

In 2005, Patriots quarterbacks threw 28 touchdown passes, tying the fourth-highest total for the position in franchise history. The mark was also achieved in 1986, 2002 and 2004, McDaniels' first season as quarterbacks coach. Also in 2005, the Patriots finished the season as the NFL's second-ranked passing offense (257.5 yards per game), marking the team's highest ranking in that category in 11 seasons.

In addition to assisting in Brady's continued development, McDaniels has tutored Matt Cassel, a four-year backup quarterback in college and a seventh-round draft choice in 2005. In the 2005 regular-season finale, Cassel threw his first two touchdown passes since high school as he led the Patriots on a fourth-quarter comeback against Miami that fell just two points short.

In 2004, McDaniels earned his first positional coaching responsibilities and worked with Brady to help the quarterback produce the highest passer rating of his career (92.6) and the second highest single-season passer rating in team history.

Brady's 28 touchdown passes ranked second in the AFC and tied his career high set in 2002.

Upon his arrival in New England prior to the 2001 season, McDaniels served as a personnel assistant and quickly expanded his role to include film breakdown and scouting preparation for the defensive coaching staff. He became a coaching assistant in February of 2002. In that role, his responsibilities included film breakdown and scouting chart preparations for the defensive staff. In 2003, he drew additional responsibilities working with the defensive backs.

McDaniels began his coaching career in 1999 as a graduate assistant at Michigan State, working under head coach Nick Saban.

PLAYING

McDaniels attended John Carroll University, where he played wide receiver for the Blue Streaks. He was a college teammate of Patriots wide receivers coach Nick Caserio, who played quarterback for John Carroll from 1996-99.

PERSONAL

Josh McDaniels was born in Canton, Ohio and attended Canton McKinley High School. He was a quarterback and kicker for McKinley. His father, Thom McDaniels, was a longtime head coach at McKinley High and is currently the head coach at Massillon Jackson High in Massillon, Ohio. Josh and his wife Laura have a son, Jack Thomas, and a daughter, Maddie.

COACHING

Harold Nash was hired as an assistant strength and conditioning coach on Head Coach Bill Belichick's staff on February 23, 2005. Nash's responsibilities with the Patriots include assisting strength and conditioning coach Mike Woicik in implementing the team's year-round conditioning program. Nash also assists in coordinating the Patriots' player development programs.

Nash is in his third season as a full-time coach following an all-star career as a defensive back in the Canadian Football League and is a veteran of 11 seasons of mentoring young athletes. Beginning in 1994 and continuing throughout his CFL tenure, Nash served as an assistant to highly-regarded speed coach Tom Shaw, assisting over 30 college defensive backs in their preparations for the NFL Draft. Starting in 2000, he also worked with the Nike Football Group to teach speed, agility and quickness to some of the nation's top college prospects.

In 2006, Nash won the NFL's Player Development Most Outstanding Financial Education Program award.

PLAYING

Nash was a defensive back in the Canadian Football League for 11 seasons from 1994-2004. He was a three-time all-star and recorded a total of 367 tackles and 24 interceptions while playing for the Shreveport Pirates (1994-95), Montreal Alouettes (1996-99), Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1999-2003) and Edmonton Eskimos (2004). Nash is Winnpeg's all-time leader in pass knockdowns and was selected to the West all-star squad while playing with the Blue Bombers in 2000 and 2001. He also earned the nod as a CFL all-star in 2001 and earned East All-Star recognition in 1997 while playing for Montreal.

Nash attended the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now Louisiana-Lafayette), where he joined the team as a walk-on and played defensive back for four seasons. He was voted a permanent team captain by his peers in recognition of his leadership, and earned the Cajun Spring Training Award from the coaching staff in recognition of his work ethic.

Following his college career, Nash signed with the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent and was a member of the team during training camp in 1993.

MATT PATRICIA

LINEBACKERS

10TH COACHING SEASON ■ 4TH NFL SEASON ■ 4TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 04

COACHING

Matt Patricia enters his fourth season in the NFL and his second as the Patriots' linebackers coach.

Last season, the Patriots linebackers were a key component of a defense that set the franchise record in points allowed per game (14.81) and was ranked in the top 5 in the NFL in rush defense for the final 10 weeks of the season. The Patriots linebackers also helped hold the line on a defense that was tops in the league in opponents' fourth down conversions and passer rating within the 30-yard line.

In 2005, Patricia assisted in tutoring an offensive line that allowed just 28 sacks, marking the first time in a decade the Patriots had allowed fewer than 30 sacks in two straight seasons. The offensive line achieved that mark despite using two rookies as primary starters on the left side and having two opening day starters suffer season-ending injuries. The line helped the Patriots finish the season as the NFL's seventh-ranked total offense (352.0 yards per game). New England also ended the year as the league's second-ranked passing offense (257.5 yards per game).

Patricia joined the Patriots in 2004 and spent his first season with the team as an offensive coaching assistant. His primary responsibilities in that role were breaking down opponents' film, scouting preparations and practice assistance. The former college center and guard also drew some duties in assisting Dante Scarnecchia with the offensive line.

Patricia joined the Patriots after spending six seasons in the college ranks. Immediately preceding his move to the NFL, he was an offensive graduate assistant at Syracuse University for three seasons. Prior to joining the Orangemen, he spent two seasons (1999-2000) as the defensive line coach at Amherst College. Patricia's first coaching experience came in 1996, when he served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

PLAYING

Patricia was a standout offensive lineman at R.P.I., playing both center and guard. He helped his senior class to an overall record of 31-8 and the Engineers won three ECAC Championships during his collegiate career.

PERSONAL

Matt Patricia was born on Sept. 13, 1974 and was raised in Sherrill, N.Y. He attended Vernon-Verona-Sherrill Central School, where he lettered in football and wrestling. He earned his bachelor's degree in aeronautical engineering from R.P.I. and later earned a master's degree in education from the University of Massachusetts.

DEAN PEES

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

35TH COACHING SEASON ■ 4TH NFL SEASON ■ 4TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 04

COACHING

Dean Pees, a 35-year coaching veteran, was named the defensive coordinator on Bill Belichick's staff on January 17, 2006. Pees served as the Patriots' linebackers coach from 2004-05 and his coaching credentials include six seasons as a collegiate head coach and 15 seasons as a defensive coordinator at the college level. Pees joined Bill Belichick's staff prior to the 2004 season after a tenure as the head coach at Kent State.

In his first season as defensive coordinator, Pees' defense set a franchise record for points allowed per game, giving up an average of just 14.81 points per opponent as the Patriots finished 12-4 and won the AFC East. The New England defense was fourth in the NFL in takeaways and first in opponents' fourth down conversion percentage. The Patriots defense was also second in the league in opponent passer rating. Pees' defense steadily improved over the course of the season, and remained in the NFL's top 10 in total defense for the entire second half of the season. The Patriots finished second in the league in points allowed in 2006.

In 2005, Pees tutored a Patriots linebackers unit that featured three of the defense's top five tacklers and accounted for 22 of the team's 33 sacks. Mike Vrabel transitioned from outside linebacker to inside linebacker during the season and paced the team with a career-high 114 tackles (80 solo), while Rosevelt Colvin's 73 tackles (49 solo) marked the second highest total of his career and placed fourth on the team. Tedy Bruschi, who missed the first six games of the season while recovering from a stroke, placed fifth on the team with 72 tackles (38 solo) despite playing in just nine games.

The contributions of the linebackers in the second half of the 2005 season were a key reason the Patriots were able to clinch the AFC East title by recording six wins in a seven-week span over the final two months of the season. During the month of December the Patriots shut down the run, allowing just 31.3 rushing yards per game. The effort helped to produce four straight December wins, including a 28-0 shutout over Tampa Bay on December 17 to claim the AFC East crown. Additionally, New England allowed just 10 total points over a three-game December span, marking the fewest points allowed over any three games in team history.

Pees marked a solid first season in the NFL in 2004, mentoring a linebackers unit that produced three of the team's top four tacklers. The Patriots defense ranked sixth in the NFL against the run, while New England linebackers recorded 27.5 quarterback sacks. Tedy Bruschi finished second on the team in tackles (128), and fellow starters Ted Johnson (112) and Vrabel (76), finished third and fourth, respectively. Outside linebacker Willie McGinest, also a starter in the Patriots' 3-4 alignment, paced the team with 9.5 sacks. Bruschi, in his ninth NFL season, earned his first Pro Bowl selection.

Pees was hired as the head coach at Kent State on December 17, 1997, faced with the challenge of rebuilding a program that had not produced a winning season in 12 years and had not won more than three games in a season for six years. Once his system was fully implemented, the Golden Flashes showed significant improvement.

In 2001, Pees led the Golden Flashes to a 6-5 record, notching the school's best mark in 14 years, and only the second winning season in 25 years. In his last three seasons at Kent State, Pees' teams won more games than the school had won in the previous decade. Pees' six-year tenure with the Golden Flashes made him the longest-serving head coach in the program's last 40 years.

Prior to securing the head job at Kent State, Pees was the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach on Nick Saban's staff at Michigan State. The Spartans qualified for a postseason bowl game in each of Pees' three seasons in East Lansing and finished with the 13th-ranked overall defense in the nation in his final season. While with the Spartans, Pees assisted in the development of linebacker Ike Reese, now with the Atlanta Falcons, who was the only two-time captain in Michigan State history and finished his career third on the school's all-time tackles list.

Pees joined Michigan State after serving as secondary coach on Lou Holtz's staff at Notre Dame during the 1994 season. While in South Bend, Pees coached Eagles Pro Bowl cornerback Bobby Taylor during his senior season in which he was named to numerous All-American teams. He joined the Fighting Irish after four seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of Toledo, where he was first hired by Saban in 1990. In 1992, Pees' defense allowed just 13.9 points per game as Toledo posted an 8-3 record, including two shutout victories. Pees also served a three-year stint as the secondary coach at the Naval Academy (1987-89). He began his college coaching career as the defensive coordinator/ secondary coach for the University of Findlay (1979-82) and then held the same title at Miami (Ohio) University (1983-86).

PERSONAL

Dean Pees is a native of Dunkirk, Ohio and is a graduate of Bowling Green State University. Pees and his wife Melody have six children – Laura, Meredith, Steffani, Matt, Elli and Tarrin – and a grandchild, Kade.

38TH COACHING SEASON ■ 26TH NFL SEASON ■ 24TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

COACHING

Dante Scarnecchia is a 38-year coaching veteran who is enjoying his 26th season as an NFL assistant. He owns the longest coaching tenure in Patriots history, now entering his 24th season on the Patriots sidelines. Since joining the Patriots in 1982, he has spent all but two seasons (1989-90) in Foxborough. Scarnecchia has the distinction of being the only coach in franchise history to be a member of all five Super Bowl teams. He has been on the Patriots coaching staff during 12 of the franchise's 15 playoff seasons and has coached in 27 of the 31 playoff games in team history.

For the ninth consecutive season, Scarnecchia's primary responsibility will be the offensive line, a position he has coached for 22 of his 38 seasons in the profession. Bill Belichick named Scarnecchia the Patriots assistant head coach/ offensive line coach on Feb. 1, 2000.

The offensive line is one of the youngest and most talented positional groups on the team. Of the offensive linemen who saw action in 2006, all will begin the season under the age of 30, yet the line has also allowed fewer than 30 sacks in each of the last three seasons. In 2006, starting quarterback Tom Brady was sacked just 26 times while making 516 passing attempts.

New England's offensive line has been a significant contributor to the team's success. In both 2004 and 2005 the Patriots ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense, marking the first time since 1980-81 that the franchise finished among the NFL's top 10 offenses two seasons in a row.

Offensive line cohesion and consistency were important factors in the team's three recent Super Bowl victories. In 2004, the line allowed just 26 sacks, the fewest in 10 years (22, 1994). Additionally, the offensive line opened holes for running back Corey Dillon to set a single-season franchise record with 1,635 rushing yards and led the NFL with 109.0 yards per game played.

In 2003, Scarnecchia guided the offensive line to a solid season despite three of the five opening day starters ending the season on injured reserve. The offensive line was a force in Super Bowl XXXVIII, holding the heralded Carolina Panthers defensive line to no sacks and opening lanes for New England to rush for 127 yards and a touchdown. In the playoffs, the offensive line did not allow a sack in any of the team's three games despite 126 pass attempts.

In 2001, he worked with a unit that featured three new starters, including two young offensive tackles, but still produced a powerful rushing attack and a balanced passing attack. Running back Antowain Smith rushed for 1,157 yards, the most by a Patriot back in six years.

Prior to coaching the offensive line, Scarnecchia handled the Patriots special team units for two seasons (1997-98). In 1998, Adam Vinatieri scored a career-high 127 points, sixth in franchise history and the most by a Patriot since Tony Franklin's 140 points in 1986.

In 1997, Scarnecchia's special teams units produced the league's second-best punter (Tom Tupa), fifth-best kick returner (David Meggett) and the AFC's special teams Pro Bowl representative (Larry Whigham). Tupa set a franchise record and led the AFC with a 45.8-yard average (gross) per punt. It was the first time in franchise history that a Patriots punter led the conference in punting.

Scarnecchia originally joined the Patriots and made his NFL coaching debut in 1982 as a member of Ron Meyer's staff. He coached the tight ends and special teams for the Patriots for seven seasons (1982-88) before moving on to Indianapolis with Meyer in 1989. He rejoined the Patriots in 1991 after spending two seasons (1989-90) as the Colts offensive line coach. From 1991 to 1992, he coached the tight ends and special teams on Dick MacPherson's staff. On Nov. 4, 1992, MacPherson fell ill and appointed Scarnecchia to serve as the team's spokesman in his absence. Scarnecchia fulfilled the obligation for seven of the Patriots' final eight games and held the responsibilities of the head coach for both of the Patriots victories that season.

In 1993, he was the only Patriots assistant retained from the previous staff. He was appointed special assistant from 1993-94, which was re-defined as defensive assistant from 1995-96. During that time, he assisted defensive coordinator Al Groh with the development of the team's linebacking corps.

His coaching career began in 1970 as the offensive line coach at California Western University. He moved to Iowa State in 1973, where he served as the assistant offensive line and assistant defensive backfield coach. He spent the 1975 and 1976 campaigns at Southern Methodist University, before becoming the University of Pacific's offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1977 through 1978. In 1979, Scarnecchia coached at Northern Arizona and then accepted an opportunity to return to Meyer's staff at SMU as the offensive line coach in 1980 and 1981. In 1982, Meyer was hired as the head coach of the New England Patriots and Scarnecchia was among a number of the SMU assistants who joined Meyer's staff in New England.

PLAYING

Scarnecchia played offensive guard and center at California Western University from 1968-70. He began his collegiate career at Taft Junior College in 1966 before transferring to California Western.

PERSONAL

Dante Scarnecchia was born Feb. 15, 1948, in Los Angeles, Calif. He holds a master's degree in physical education from U.S. International. Dante and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Lisa, and a son, Steve.

30TH COACHING SEASON ■ 19TH NFL SEASON ■ 9TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

COACHING

Brad Seely is a 30-year coaching veteran who is enjoying his 19th season in the NFL and his ninth year with the Patriots. He joined the Patriots as the special teams coach on Jan. 27, 1999 and has celebrated three Super Bowl championships as a member of Bill Belichick's staff.

Since Seely arrived in New England, the Patriots special teams have consistently contributed to the team's accomplishments, reflecting Coach Belichick's emphasis on special teams as a major factor in building a championship club.

In the last six seasons, New England has earned four Pro Bowl berths from its special teams players and has won three Super Bowls by three points each.

Last season, Seely tutored rookie place kicker Stephen Gostkowski, who converted 20 of 26 field goals in the regular season, including 13 of his final 15, and was a perfect eight for eight in the playoffs. Gostkowski's success came while having three different holders over the course of the season, a result of injuries that also forced Seely to have three different Patriots punters make at least 10 punts in 2006. Under Seely's tutelage, another rookie found success in 2006, as running back Laurence Maroney finished second in the NFL with a 28.0-yard kickoff return average.

In 2005, New England averaged 44.6 yards per punt, a figure that ranked fourth in the NFL and tied the 1983 Patriots for the second best mark in franchise history. Punter

Josh Miller's 45.1-yard average placed second in single-season franchise history, while his four touchbacks were the fewest among the NFL's top 10 punters.

In 2004, New England sent two special teams players to the Pro Bowl. The coverage units were represented in the NFL All-Star Game by specialist Larry Izzo, who earned his second trip to Hawaii in three years. Additionally, New England's field goal unit was the best in the league, as Adam Vinatieri went to the Pro Bowl after setting career highs with 141 points and a franchise-best 93.9 percent accuracy rate (31-33).

In 2003, New England's special teams units led the AFC in three categories. New England produced the AFC's leading kickoff returner for the second consecutive season, as rookie Bethel Johnson averaged 28.2 yards per return. New England's punt coverage unit led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL by allowing just 6.3 yards per punt return. The Patriots also led the AFC in field goal defense, forcing opponents to miss 10 kicks.

In 2002, the Patriots special teams units were among the best in the league and sent two representatives to the Pro Bowl, Vinatieri and Izzo. As a team, the Patriots led the league in both field goal percentage categories, converting 90 percent while holding their opponents to just 58.8 percent (20-of-34). Kevin Faulk led the AFC and ranked second in the league in kick returns with a 27.9-yard average.

Seely earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors in 1996 as an assistant with the Carolina Panthers, but may have had his most complete season in 2001, based on the rankings and performances of each of his special teams units. The Patriots coverage units ranked first in punt returns (allowing just 4.8 yards per return), first in gross punt average (allowing just 39.5 yards per punt) and first in net punt average (limiting opponents to 31.6 net yards per punt). Troy Brown led the league with a 14.2-yard average per punt return (second in franchise history).

Prior to joining the Patriots, Seely spent four seasons with the Carolina Panthers, where he helped groom an expansion team into a team that competed for the NFC Championship. In 1996 and 1997, Panthers kickoff returner Michael Bates became the first player in 35 years to lead the league in kick return average in consecutive seasons. He also earned two consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl for his efforts.

In 1996, not only did Seely help produce the NFL's best kick return specialist, but he also had the league's best kicker, as John Kasay set an NFL single-season record with 37 field goals. In addition to the success of Bates and Kasay, Carolina also boasted one of the league's top coverage units, ranking first or second in nearly every statistical category.

Seely began his coaching career in 1978 at South Dakota State. The following year, he accepted a graduate assistant position at Colorado State, where he was later hired as the offensive line coach in 1980. In 1981, he was named the assistant offensive line coach (assisting Dante Scarnecchia) on Ron Meyer's staff at Southern Methodist. He helped coach a line that opened holes for SMU's "Pony Express" backfield of Eric Dickerson and Craig James. The next year, he coached at North Carolina State before coaching at Pacific in 1983. In 1984, he started a five-year stint as the offensive line coach at Oklahoma State, which helped produce the likes of Thurman Thomas and 1988 Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders.

He made the transition to the professional ranks in 1989 when he was named the special teams and tight ends coach of the Indianapolis Colts. During that five-year tenure, he assisted in the development of two Pro Bowl special teamers – punter Rohn Stark and return specialist Clarence Verdin.

PLAYING

Seely earned a degree in economics and physical education while earning all-conference honors as an offensive guard at South Dakota State.

PERSONAL

Brad Seely was born Sept. 6, 1956 in Vinton, Iowa. Brad and his wife, Patti, have three daughters: Sarah, Hannah and Brynn.

MIKE WOICIK

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

30TH COACHING SEASON ■ 18TH NFL SEASON ■ 8TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS:

COACHING

Mike Woicik was named the Patriots strength and conditioning coach on Bill Belichick's staff on Feb. 16, 2000. The 30-year coaching veteran is now in his 18th season in the NFL and has initiated strength and conditioning programs that have contributed to the success of six Super Bowl Championship teams, three with the Patriots and three with the Dallas Cowboys.

Woicik's six Super Bowl rings are more than any player or head coach in NFL history has earned. Woicik is a two-time winner of the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Society's Coach of the Year Award, earning the honor in 1992 and 2004.

Woicik's year-round conditioning program has proven to be a significant factor in the Patriots' success, as the team has remained fresh and saved its best football for the end of the season. Since 2001, New England has compiled a 55-12 (.821) record in games played after November 1, a record that exemplifies the solid conditioning approach employed by Woicik. Additionally, New England has been able to sustain lengthy winning streaks during Woicik's tenure, compiling an NFL-record 21-game winning streak from 2003-04 and also achieving a 12-game winning streak from 2001-02.

Woicik entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Dallas Cowboys in 1990 and was voted the NFL's "Strength Coach of the Year" in 1992. During his seven seasons (1990-96) with the Cowboys, the team totaled an 89-38 record, including 12 playoff victories and three Super Bowl championships.

Prior to joining the Patriots, he spent three seasons with the New Orleans Saints (1997-99) working under head coach Mike Ditka.

Woicik began his strength and conditioning training at Springfield College in 1978. He served as the track coach and weight room coordinator from 1978-80. In 1980, he was hired by Syracuse University, where he developed the strength and conditioning programs for the university for the next decade (1980-89).

Woicik is the author of the 1985 book "Total Conditioning for Football: The Syracuse Way."

PERSONAL

Mike Woicik was born in Baltimore, Md. and raised in Westwood, Mass. He graduated from Westwood (Mass.) High and starred on the track and football teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in history from Boston College and a master's degree in physical education from Springfield College. Woicik was an outstanding discus thrower at Boston College, setting a school record of 180 feet, 5 inches. He also earned All-East honors and qualified for the NCAA Championships while competing in the discus at Boston College. In addition to the discus, he also competed in the shot put and hammer throw.

Kevin Bickers is in his second year as a coaching assistant after joining the Patriots in 2006. Bickers began his coaching career in 2000 as an assistant at Odessa-Permian High School in Odessa, Texas. He served as an offensive graduate assistant at Baylor University in 2002 and joined East Tennessee State University as a tight ends coach in 2003. Prior to joining the Patriots, he served as a graduate assistant at Florida State University during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. He is a native of Sugarland, Texas where he attended John Foster Dulles High School. He graduated from Texas A&M University in 2002.

Josh Boyer is in his second year as a coaching assistant after joining the Patriots in 2006. Boyer began his coaching career in 2000 as an assistant coach at Kings College (Pa.). He served as a graduate assistant at the University of Dayton (2001) and Kent State (2002-2003) before becoming defensive backs coach at Bryant University in 2004. In 2005, he served as defensive coordinator for the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology. Boyer is a native of Heath, Ohio. He attended Muskingum College (Ohio), where he played wide receiver and defensive back. He graduated in 2000 with a degree in physical education and health.

Bill O'Brien was named a coaching assistant on February 27, 2007. O'Brien had previously served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Duke University for two seasons. He coached in the Atlantic Coast Conference for 12 seasons, including tenures at Georgia Tech (1995-2002), Maryland (2003-04) and Duke (2005-06).

O'Brien spent eight seasons at Georgia Tech (1995-2002), and served as the Yellow Jackets' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in his final two seasons. He also served as a graduate assistant (1995-97) and running backs coach (1998-2000) at Georgia Tech. In addition to his normal duties, he also served as an assistant head coach in 2002 and was Georgia Tech's recruiting coordinator from 1999-2000. He served as Maryland's running backs coach from 2003-04.

O'Brien attended Brown University, where he was a linebacker and defensive end from 1990-92. He also began his coaching career at Brown, coaching tight ends in 1993 and tutoring inside linebackers in 1994. O'Brien was born on October 23, 1969 in Andover, Mass.

BUCKO KILROY 1921-2007

LEGENDARY NFL PLAYER AND EXECUTIVE

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIPS: 1948, 1949, 1960, 2001, 2003, 2004

SUPER BOWL APPEARANCES: V, XX, XXXI, XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX

DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIPS: 1947, 1948, 1949, 1960*, 1966*, 1967*, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1978, 1986, 1996, 1997, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006

*-Conference champions in pre-merger NFL

Francis "Bucko" Kilroy, who passed away on July 10, 2007, was a veteran of 64 seasons in the NFL as a player and an executive. During his storied career, he contributed to six league championship squads, six Super Bowl appearances and 18 division title winners.

Kilroy was a member of the Patriots organization for 37 years, serving as personnel director (1971-78), general manager (1979-82), vice president (1983-93) and scouting consultant (1994-2007). He was a contributor to 14 of the club's 15 playoff seasons, and played a role in each of the Patriots' five trips to the Super Bowl.

Kilroy was originally hired by the Patriots in 1971 as the team's player personnel director and helped build some of the best teams in franchise history. He laid the groundwork for more than a dozen years of success during his first five years as personnel director (1971-75). During the following three years (1976-78), the Patriots compiled a 31-13 (.705) record, including two playoff appearances. Over the 13 seasons from 1976-88, the Patriots finished .500 or better 12 times while compiling a record of 113-83 (.577).

Kilroy was promoted to general manager in 1979 and was responsible for directing the Patriots' day-to-day business operations, as well as handling all contract negotiations. On Feb. 16, 1983, he was promoted to vice president, a position he held until he retired following the 1993 season. From 1994 until his passing in 2007, he provided assistance as a scouting consultant to the Patriots personnel department.

Kilroy is revered in scouting circles, having started many of the scouting services now used throughout the NFL. He was one of the originators of the National Football Scouting Combine, which has grown into one of the most important events on the NFL offseason calendar. He also developed and trained numerous personnel analysts who later became NFL scouting directors.

Kilroy began his professional football career in 1943 playing for the wartime "Steagles" (the combined Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles during World War II). During the next 12 seasons with the Eagles, he earned All-Pro honors six times, three as an offensive guard (1947-49) and three as a defensive middle guard (1952-1954). In 1948 and 1949, his Eagles team became the only squad in history to post back-to-back shutouts in championship games. He is a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1940s. During his final three seasons with the Eagles, Kilroy was a player/coach before serving as a full-time line coach for six seasons. He also served as the Eagles' player personnel director during that time, becoming one of the five original talent scouts in the league. In 1962, he was named director of player personnel for the Washington Redskins and later served as a "super scout" for the Dallas Cowboys from 1966-1970 before joining the Patriots.

THOMAS DIMITROFF

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

SUPER BOWLS: 03 04

Thomas Dimitroff Jr. is in his 18th season in player personnel and his sixth year with the Patriots. After serving the 2002 season as the team's national scout, he was named the director of college scouting on June 11, 2003. He oversees a staff of area scouts responsible for evaluating all of the nation's eligible college prospects. As the team's national scout, he gathered reports on each of the nation's top college prospects and tracked the development and availability of recently drafted players.

He joined the Patriots after serving the previous nine seasons in the scouting departments of three different NFL teams. His first NFL personnel opportunity came in 1993 as a part-time scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. In 1994, he was given a full-time opportunity to serve as an area scout for the Detroit Lions, a position he held through 1997. Prior to joining the Patriots, he gained four seasons of experience working in the scouting department of the Cleveland Browns (1998-2001).

Prior to entering the NFL, Dimitroff spent three years scouting two other pro football leagues. He spent the 1990 and 1991 seasons in the Canadian Football League, followed by a season in the World League in 1992. His season in the World League was spent scouting all NFL, CFL and World League rosters and tracking player transactions. He served two seasons in the CFL as the Canadian scouting coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Thomas Dimitroff Jr. was born in Barberton, Ohio. He played football throughout college and captained his University of Guelph (Canada) football team from 1987-89. His father, Tom, was a long-time personnel scout for the Cleveland Browns and was a member of the original Boston Patriots in 1960. Thomas and his wife, Angeline, were married in 2005.

JAY MURACO

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

Jay Muraco is enjoying his 12th season in the NFL, including his eighth season with the New England Patriots. He joined the Patriots personnel department in 2000 as the college scouting coordinator after four seasons in the scouting department of the Philadelphia Eagles. While attending Kent State, he interned with the San Diego Chargers personnel department during their 1992 training camp and then volunteered to work for the Cleveland Browns personnel department from 1992-95. He graduated from Kent State in 2000 with a degree in history.

REGIONAL SCOUT

Bob Quinn enters his eighth season in the Patriots personnel department and is in his fourth season as a regional scout. Quinn joined the team in 2000 as a player personnel assistant and was promoted to pro scout in 2002, serving for two seasons in that position. Prior to joining the Patriots, Quinn spent two seasons as a graduate assistant within the Division of Athletics at the University of Connecticut (1998-99). Quinn earned his master's degree in sports management from the University of Connecticut in 2000. He completed his undergraduate studies at UConn in 1998. Quinn is a native of Norwood, Mass. and attended Norwood High School. Bob and his wife, Julie, have a son, Kyle.

JONATHAN ROBINSON

SUPER BOWLS: 03 04

Jonathan Robinson is in his sixth season with the Patriots and is in his second year as a regional scout. He joined the organization in 2002 as an area scout after four seasons of coaching at the collegiate level, including his last three seasons at Nicholls (La.) State. In 2001, he instructed the team's linebackers and held regional recruiting responsibilities for the Colonels. The Union City, Tenn. native attended high school at Union City and lettered as an offensive and defensive lineman. He originally signed with the U.S. Air Force Academy, where he attended and played for one semester. Robinson then transferred to Southeast Missouri State, where he played three seasons as a defensive lineman and earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics education. Following his playing career, he earned his first coaching assignment with his alma mater in 1998, prior to joining the Nicholls State staff in 1999. Jon and his wife, Jaimie, were married in 2002 and have one daughter, Taylor Brooke.

MARVIN ALLEN

AREA SCOUT

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

Marvin Allen is enjoying his 15th season with the New England Patriots, including his 11th season in the player personnel department. As an area scout, he is responsible for the collection of data on all of the prospects in his assigned region. He returned to the Patriots organization on June 19, 1997 when he was hired as a regional college scout. Allen was originally drafted by the Patriots in the 11th round (294th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft after averaging 5.1 yards per carry (73 rushes) as a senior running back at Tulane. In four seasons with the Patriots (1988-91), he rushed for 378 yards and two touchdowns on 94 carries (4.0 avg.). He also returned 43 kickoffs for 844 yards (19.6 avg). Allen was born Nov. 23, 1965 in Wichita Falls, Texas.

TIM HEFFELFINGER

AREA SCOUT

Tim Heffelfinger is enjoying his 10th season as an NFL scout and his third season as an area scout for the Patriots. He joined New England's personnel department prior to the 2005 season after a seven-year stint as an area scout for the New Orleans Saints (1998-2004). Heffelfinger entered the NFL scouting ranks in 1998 after spending two-and-a-half years as a graduate assistant coach at UCLA (1996-98), where he worked with the offensive line and the tight ends. He also earned a master's degree from the UCLA Graduate School of Education.

He was a defensive tackle at Northwestern University before his playing career was cut short by a career-ending back injury. He graduated from Northwestern in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in organizational studies and worked in the business sector as a sales representative for The Quaker Oats Company and Converse before returning to football. Tim and his wife, Amy, have two children, Kassidy and Ryan.

FRANTZY JOURDAIN

AREA SCOUT

Frantzy Jourdain enters his fifth season with the Patriots personnel department and his third year as an area scout. He is responsible for the collection of data on all of the prospects in his assigned region. He was originally hired by the team in 2003 as a player personnel assistant. Jourdain joined the Patriots after spending the 2002 season as the secondary coach and co-special teams coordinator at Duquense University, a season during which the Dukes led Division I-AA in interceptions, scoring defense and fewest total yards allowed per game. He attended the University of Rhode Island (1993-97), where he was a three-year starter for the Rams at running back and strong safety. He also attended North Carolina Central University, where he coached running backs and worked on a master's degree in criminology from 1998-2000.

SUPER BOWLS: 03 04

JIM NAGY

AREA SCOUT

Jim Nagy is in his sixth season with the Patriots after joining the organization in 2002 as a college scout. He is responsible for the collection of data on all of the prospects in his assigned region. He joined the Patriots scouting department after a season as the West Coast regional scout for the Washington Redskins. Prior to his time in Washington, Nagy spent three years (1998-2001) as the director of NFL scouting for War Room Scouting, Inc. He also worked with SFX Sports Group as a recruiting coordinator and draft consultant from 1997-2000. He launched his NFL career as an intern with the Green Bay Packers during their 1996 Super Bowl Championship season. In addition to personnel evaluations, he served as an on-set consultant for "NFL Today" from 1998-2000 and wrote a weekly NFL column for The Sporting News from 2000-01. Nagy was born June 4, 1974 in Frankfort, Mich. and attended Traverse City (Mich.) High, where he was a four-sport letterman in football, basketball, baseball and track. He majored in sports management and communications at the University of Michigan. Jim and his wife, Lindsay, have a son, Hayden.

SUPER BOWLS: 03 04

KYLE O'BRIEN

AREA SCOUT

SUPER BOWLS: 01 03 04

Kyle O'Brien is in his eighth season with the Patriots personnel department. He is in his third season as an area scout, resuming those duties in 2006 after previously holding the position in 2003. He is responsible for collecting information on all of the prospects in his assigned region. O'Brien joined the Patriots full-time in 2002 as a scouting assistant, and was a pro scout from 2004-05. He originally joined the Patriots as a player personnel intern in 2000 and continued those duties during the Patriots' first Super Bowl season of 2001. Prior to coming to New England, O'Brien was a player personnel intern for the New York Jets in 1999 after serving as a ball boy for the team in 1998. The Garden City, N.Y. native attended Harvard University, where he lettered in lacrosse. He is also a graduate of Phillips Academy in Andover, Mass., where he lettered in football and lacrosse.

MONTI OSSENFORT

AREA SCOUT

SUPER BOWLS: 03

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Tom Brady was drafted by the New England Patriots in the sixth round (199th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Brady enters 2007 with a record of 82-26 (.759) in regular-season and playoff games. It is the best record of any NFL quarterback in the Super Bowl Era (since 1966) with at least 40 starts.
- Brady enters 2007 with a 12-2 (.857) playoff record, the second best in NFL history behind Bart Starr (9-1, .900).
- Brady is the only quarterback in NFL history to start and win three Super Bowls before his 28th birthday, having quarterbacked the Patriots to victories in Super Bowl XXXVI when he was 24 years old, Super Bowl XXXVIII (26) and Super Bowl XXXIX (27).
- Brady is the fourth quarterback in NFL history to lead his team to three or more Super Bowl wins, joining Terry Bradshaw (4), Joe Montana (4) and Troy Aikman (3).
- Brady owns two Pete Rozelle Awards as Super Bowl MVP (XXXVI and XXXVIII). He is just the fourth player in Super Bowl history to earn multiple MVP awards, joining Joe Montana, Terry Bradshaw and Bart Starr, all three of whom are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- Brady enters 2007 with a 26-5 record in games where the final margin was less than a touchdown, including a 6-1 playoff record and a 3-0 Super Bowl record in such games.
- Brady enters the 2007 season having started 108 consecutive regular-season and playoff games for the Patriots, good for the third-longest streak among active NFL quarterbacks (trailing only Brett Favre and Peyton Manning).
- Brady enters 2007 as the NFL's all-time leader in overtime wins without a defeat, recording a perfect 7-0 mark in overtime in his career. Terry Bradshaw is the only other quarterback to be undefeated in at least five overtime games, posting a 5-0 record.
- Brady enters 2007 as the winningest quarterback in Patriots history in terms of total victories (82) and winning percentage (.759).
- Brady enters 2007 as the Patriots' all-time leader in career completion percentage (61.9 percent) and passer rating (88.4). He ranks second in completions (1,896), third in yards (21,564) and third in touchdowns (147).
- Brady has orchestrated 24 game-winning drives to break a tie or take the lead in the fourth quarter or overtime. Six of his game-winning efforts have come in the postseason, where he has played in 14 games.
- Brady has led a game-winning drive to break a tie or take the lead in the fourth quarter of each of the Patriots' three Super Bowl victories, becoming the only quarterback in NFL history to lead three such game-winning drives in the Super Bowl.
- Brady enters the 2007 season with a career record of 40-8 (.833) in games played on Thanksgiving or later in the NFL season, including a 12-2 playoff mark.
- Brady enters the 2007 season with a career record of 21-2 as a starter (.913) in games played in temperatures below 40 degrees.
- Brady enters the 2007 season with a career record of 23-2 as a starter (.920) in games played on artificial surfaces.
- Brady recorded six passer ratings over 100.0 in 2006. He has recorded 39 ratings over 100.0 in his career, and the Patriots are 38-1 in those games.
- Brady tied an NFL record in 2005 by distributing his 26 touchdown passes to 12 different players. The only other NFL player to accomplish the feat was Brad Johnson in 2003.
- Brady set a career high in 2004 with a 92.6 passer rating, the second highest rating in Patriots history among players with at least 150 attempts (Tony Eason, 93.4 in 1984).
- In 2004, Brady averaged 7.79 yards per pass attempt – more than a full yard higher than his career mark of 6.62 yards per attempt heading into the 2004 season.
- Brady tied his career high and ranked second in the AFC with 28 touchdown passes in 2004.
- Brady owns the Super Bowl record for pass completions in a game, connecting on 32 passes in Super Bowl XXXVIII.
- Brady won his first 10 playoff games, setting an NFL record for the most consecutive playoff wins.

EXTRA POINTS

★ Tom made an eight-day visit to Africa in the Spring of 2007 as part of a listening and learning trip sponsored by DATA, an African advocacy organization founded by Bono from the rock group U2. On the trip, Tom traveled to Ghana and Uganda, where he visited health clinics, schools and other projects that are saving and transforming lives in Africa with the support of American funding and international cooperation.

★ When he was just four years old, Tom attended the 1981 NFC Championship Game with his father. He was in the stands at Candlestick Park when Joe Montana found Dwight Clark for "The Catch" that sent the 49ers to the Super Bowl.

- Brady was voted an offensive captain by his teammates in 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006.
- Brady completed a streak of throwing for at least one touchdown in 15 straight games, including playoffs (12/14/03 — 11/22/04), recording the longest such streak in Patriots history.
- Brady led the NFL with 28 touchdown passes in 2002 and became the first Patriot to lead the league in touchdown passes since Steve Grogan shared the lead with Cleveland's Brian Sipe (28) in 1979.
- Brady set a franchise single-game record by completing 84.6 percent of his passes (22-26) at Buffalo (11/03/02, min. 20 attempts).
- Brady threw at least two touchdown passes in each of the first five games of the 2002 season, the first Patriot to accomplish that feat and the first Patriot to throw for at least two touchdowns in five straight games in a single season since Butch Songin (10/23/60—11/18/60).
- Brady (24 years, 184 days old) was voted MVP of Super Bowl XXXVI and was the third-youngest player to earn the honor (Marcus Allen, 23 years and 301 days at Super Bowl XVIII and Lynn Swann, 23 years, 316 days at Super Bowl X).
- Brady was voted to the 2001 Pro Bowl and became just the second Patriots quarterback to receive the honor (Drew Bledsoe, 1994, 1996 and 1997). He also became just the fifth quarterback since 1970 to be voted to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a starter, joining Dan Marino (1983), Brett Favre (1992), Kurt Warner (1999) and Daunte Culpepper (2000).
- Brady threw for 53 yards on the Patriots' game-winning drive in Super Bowl XXXVI, completing five of his eight passes. Two of his pass attempts were spiked to kill the game clock. With just 1:21 remaining, he moved the Patriots into field goal position without the benefit of timeouts.
- Brady completed over 70 percent of his passes in four consecutive games during the 2001 season and joined an exclusive club of quarterbacks who accomplished the feat. He joined Joe Montana (8 games, 1989), Troy Aikman (4, 1995), Steve Young (4, 1993) and Sammy Baugh (4, 1945).
- Brady completed the first 162 passes of his career without an interception. It was the longest streak to start a career in NFL history and ranks third for most attempts without an interception in Patriots franchise history.

COMEBACK KID

Tom Brady enters 2007 having engineered 24 career game-winning performances to lead his team to a victory from a fourth-quarter deficit or tie. He accomplished the feat three times in 2006, including once in the playoffs. The performances are the latest addition to a long list of late-game heroics for Brady, who has led three Super Bowl-winning drives.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Brown is the Patriots' Patriots all-time leading receiver with 557 career receptions. He places second on the franchise's receiving yardage list with 6,366 yards.
- Brown is the Patriots all-time leading receiver in the postseason with 58 catches in 20 playoff games. His 694 career receiving yards in the playoffs also rank first in franchise history.
- Brown set a franchise single-season record with 101 receptions in 2001. His 97 catches in 2002 stand as the second highest total in franchise history.
- Brown amassed a single-game franchise-record 16 catches vs. Kansas City (9/22/02), which ranked as the most receptions in one game in the NFL in 2002. It also tied the fourth highest single game total in NFL history shared by Keenan McCardell (10/20/96), Jerry Rice (10/20/94) and Sonny Randle (11/4/62).
- Brown became the Patriots' all-time receptions leader when he caught his 535th career pass in the third quarter against Indianapolis on Nov. 5, 2006. Brown passed Stanley Morgan's old record of 534 receptions. Morgan had been the Patriots' all-time receptions leader since Nov. 11, 1984, when he recorded his 293rd career catch to pass Gino Cappelletti's then-record of 292 catches.
- Brown became the second player in Patriots history to record 6,000 or more career receiving yards in a game against the Buffalo Bills on Sept. 10, 2006.
- On Nov. 27, 2005, Brown grabbed his 500th career reception in a game at Kansas City. Brown became just the second player in Patriots history to achieve the feat (Stanley Morgan).
- In 2004, Brown earned accolades for his play on defense, showing a level of versatility unmatched in recent NFL history. After injuries had taken a toll on the Patriots' secondary, he pitched in as the team's nickel back for the final nine games of the regular season and all three of the Patriots' postseason contests. He reprised his role on defense in the 2005 playoffs, recording four solo tackles in a wild card round victory over Jacksonville (01/07/06).
- The team's all-time leading receiver finished second on the team with three interceptions in the 2004 regular season and matched his reception total with 17 tackles on defense.
- Brown became the only player in Patriots history to record a reception and an interception in the same game when he pulled the feat against Buffalo (11/14/04).
- Brown's 321 receptions from 2000-03 are the highest four-year total in Patriots history. Tight end Ben Coates ranks second with a four-year total of 308 (1994-97).
- Brown has been the longest-tenured Patriot since 2002 and was voted an offensive captain by his teammates in each of the past five seasons (2002-06).
- Brown is the Patriots all-time leading punt returner, topping the team's all-time lists in returns (246) and yardage (2,570), and tying for the franchise record with three punt returns for touchdowns. He became the franchise's all-time leading punt returner in 2002, surpassing Irving Fryar's career total of 2,055 yards.
- Brown became the first Patriot in club history to record three 80-catch seasons (97, 2002; 101, 2001; 83, 2000).
- Brown has recorded 13 career 100-yard receiving games during his 14-year career and is tied for second in Patriots history behind Stanley Morgan (39).
- Brown has played in 191 games during his 14-year Patriots career, the most of any active Patriot. He enters the 2007 season tied for fourth on the Patriots all-time games played list (Raymond Clayborn).
- Brown earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2001 season and became just the third Patriots wide receiver to be selected to the Pro Bowl since 1970 (Stanley Morgan, 4 and Terry Glenn, 1).
- Brown accumulated 1,199 receiving yards in 2001, the second highest total in franchise history (1,491-Stanley Morgan, 1986).
- Brown recorded a 55-yard punt return for a score against Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship game (01/27/02). It was the first special teams return for a score in the playoffs in franchise history and was the first punt return for a score in AFC Championship game history.
- Brown's 14.2-yard punt return average in 2001 was the second-highest in franchise history, behind Mack Herron's 14.8-yard average in 1974.
- Brown caught 83 passes and accumulated 944 receiving yards during the 2000 season. His 83 receptions were the seventh-highest single-season total in franchise history.

EXTRA POINTS

★ The 2007 season marks Troy's 15th year with the Patriots. Only Steve Grogan (16 seasons) has achieved a longer tenure with the team. Julius Adams also spent 15 seasons with the Patriots.

★ Troy is the only player in Patriots history to record a reception and an interception in the same game. He achieved the feat twice during the 2004 season.

★ Troy earned the New England Patriots Ron Burton Community Service Award in 2004 for his commitment to the community and helping others.

- Finished second on the team with eight catches for 76 yards in the Patriots' 32-29 Super Bowl XXXVIII win. Hauled in three receptions for 46 yards during the Patriots game-winning drive that concluded with Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal.

■ 2002 (14/13): Voted an offensive captain for the 2002 season by his teammates … Led the team or tied for the team lead in receptions in 10 of his 14 games … Led the team and ranked fourth in the AFC with 97 receptions … His 97 catches were the second highest total in franchise history, four behind his record of 101 catches in 2001 … Caught a franchise-record 16 passes vs. Kansas City (9/22), which ranked as the most receptions in one game in the NFL in 2002 and equals the fourth most in NFL history … Became the first Patriot in club history to record three 80-catch seasons with his 80th grab at Tennessee (12/16) … More than half of his receptions (49) resulted in first downs … Tied for the fourth best receiver in the AFC on third down, with 26 receptions for 303 yards and a touchdown.

- Led the Patriots receiving corps with nine receptions and 94 yards as the Patriots defeated the Jets (9/15). Moved into fourth place on the Patriots all-time receptions list, passing Terry Glenn with his 330th career catch, good for 19 yards midway through the first quarter.
- Set a career high and a Patriots single-game record with 16 pass receptions in the Patriots 41-38 overtime win over the Chiefs (9/22). The 16 receptions equaled the fourth highest total in NFL history … Amassed a career-high 176 receiving yards, the fourth-highest total in Patriots annals … It was his 12th career 100-yard receiving game … On the Patriots first possession of the second half, caught passes on five straight plays for 52 yards, then hauled in a nine-yard touchdown pass two plays later.
- Became the Patriots all-time punt return leader, passing Irving Fryar with a 16-yard return late in the third quarter against Chicago (11/10). Led the Patriots with 11 receptions for 90 yards in their thrilling 33-30, come-from-behind win over the Bears. Caught a two-point conversion pass from Tom Brady following the game-winning touchdown.
- Recorded his second 100-yard game of the season and the 13th of his career, grabbing 10 passes for 111 yards in the Patriots 20-12 win over the Lions on Thanksgiving (11/28). Passed Gino Cappelletti and Terry Glenn to move into fifth place on the Patriots all-time receiving yards list.
- Caught a three-yard touchdown pass from Brady with 2:46 remaining to cut Miami's lead to three points in the Patriots 27-24 overtime win over the Dolphins (12/29). Grabbed a seven-yard pass in overtime to help set up Adam Vinatieri's game-winning, 35-yard field goal on the following play. Finished the day with eight catches for 67 yards, his sixth performance of eight or more receptions in 14 games.

■ 2001 (16/13, 3/3): Voted offensive co-captain for the 2001 season by his teammates…Started 13 of 16 regular season games at wide receiver … Set a Patriots single-season record for receptions with 101 catches and became the first Patriot in franchise history to record 100 catches in a season … Brown finished the season ranked fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with 101 catches … Led the team and was fourth in the AFC with 1,199 yards receiving … Led the team with three 100-yard receiving games … Led the NFL with a 14.2 yard punt return average … Just the second Patriot to lead the NFL in punt return average (Irving Fryar-14.1, 1985) … Also was the only player in the NFL in 2001 to have two punt returns for touchdowns.

- Recorded the eighth 100-yard receiving game of his career, with 106 yards receiving against Cincinnati (9/9). Named Patriots Miller Lite Player of the Game and scored the first Patriots points of the season on a 14-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe.
- Led all receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards against San Diego (10/14). His 11 catches were the highest single game total of the season and tied the sixth highest single game total in franchise history. Recorded 40-yard punt return that put the Patriots in position for their game-tying scoring drive.
- Led the Patriots with eight catches for 120 yards against Indianapolis (10/21). Scored on a 60-yard pass from fellow wide receiver David Patten.
- Returned a punt 85 yards for a touchdown against

SINGLE-SEASON RECEIVING HIGHS

Troy Brown owns the top two single-season receiving performances in Patriots history. He set the team's all-time record with 101 receptions in 2001, then placed second in team history with 97 catches in 2002. Including his 83-catch season in 2000, Brown holds three of the top seven single-season reception totals in Patriots history.

Cleveland (12/9). The return was the second for a touchdown in his career (vs. Tampa Bay 09/03/00). Recorded a team-high seven receptions for 89 yards. Set a new single-season career-high with 1,033 receiving yards (944, 2000). Also eclipsed the 1,000 yard mark for the first time in his nine-year career. Voted Patriots Miller Lite Player of the Game for his performance.

- Totaled a game-high eight receptions for 121 yards against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game (1/27). His 121 yards were then the highest single-game total in Patriots postseason history. Opened the Patriots scoring with a 55-yard punt return for a touchdown. His score was the first Patriots punt return for a touchdown in postseason history. Recovered a blocked field goal attempt and returned it 11 yards before lateraling to Antwan Harris who proceeded to go 49 yards for a touchdown.
- Totaled a game-high six receptions and a team-high 89 yards against St. Louis in Super Bowl XXXVI. Caught a key 23-yard reception and was able to get out of bounds with 21 seconds remaining on a late fourth quarter drive that ended in an Adam Vinatieri game-winning 48-yard field goal as time expired.

■ 2000 (16/15): Started at wide receiver in 15 of 16 games and recorded 83 receptions for 944 yards ... Voted Patriots Miller Lite Player of the Year, after earning the Player of the Week award five times … Set career highs with 39 punt returns and 504 punt return yards ... Ranked third in NFL with 504 punt return yards and seventh with 12.9 punt return average … Moved past David Meggett (1,438) into second place on Patriots all-time leading punt return yardage list against Buffalo (11/5) and eclipsed his 1997 total of 467 punt return yards for the fifth-best single season punt return total.

- Was a unanimous selection as Patriots Miller Lite Player of the Game after he accumulated 221 all-purpose yards, including 118 punt return yards, 70 receiving yards and 33 rushing yards against Tampa Bay (9/3). Established a then career-high, with seven receptions and recorded a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown, the first punt return for touchdown in his career. The return was the first Patriots punt return for touchdown since David Meggett's 60-yard touchdown return against Giants (12/21/96).
- Set a then career-high with eight receptions for 110 yards in the Patriots 16-13 victory over Cincinnati (11/19). Terry Glenn joined Brown over the 100-yard plateau with 129 yards, marking the first time since Nov. 1, 1998 (Tony Simmons and Ben Coates each had 109 yards at Indianapolis) that the Patriots had two players with more than 100 yards receiving.
- Earned Patriots Miller Lite Player of the Game honors for fifth time during the 2000 season during the Patriots 30-24 victory over the Chiefs (12/4). Notched a then career-high 12 receptions for 119 yards, including 17-yard touchdown pass.

■ 1999 (13/1): Played in 13 games and made one start at wide receiver … Missed three games due to injury … Proved once again to be among the Patriots most versatile performers, contributing as a wide receiver, punt returner and kickoff returner during the course of the season ... Became the Patriots second-leading all-time return specialist with 2,890 combined return yards, trailing David Meggett's franchise record of 3,999 yards … Led the team in punt return (10.7) and kickoff return (33.9) averages and finished third on the team with 36 receptions for 471 yards … 10.7-yard average per punt return ranked fifth in the AFC … Handled the kickoff return duties in four games, including the last two of the regular season, and averaged 33.9 yards per return.

- Scored his only touchdown of the season on a 31-yard touchdown toss by Drew Bledsoe in a fourth quarter comeback attempt that pulled the Patriots to within a touchdown against the Jets (11/15).
- Provided four receptions for 40 yards, including an 11-yard first down reception which led to the game-winning touchdown in a 13-6 victory over the Cowboys (12/5). It was the Patriots first victory in the series in franchise history.
- Named offensive co-captain for the game and produced 122 all-purpose yards with 53 yards receiving and 69 yards on four punt returns against Indianapolis (12/12).
- Selected as Miller Lite Player of the Game for his performance against the Eagles (12/19). Led all receivers with five receptions for 105 yards as both totals represented individual season highs. His five receptions were the most since the 1998 season opener, while his 105 yards receiving was, at the time, the third highest total of his career. Also recovered a special teams fumble caused by Marty Moore on a kick return in the second quarter.

■ 1998 (10/0; 1/0): Returned to the role as the team's primary punt returner, a position he held for the first two years in the league (1993-94) and played in 10 games as a returner and reserve receiver ... Finished the season fifth on the team with 23 receptions for 346 yards and a touchdown ... Led the team with a career-high 13.2 punt return average on 17 returns (225 yards) ... His 13.2 average would have led the AFC, but his 17 returns were not enough to qualify for the conference rankings.

- Led all receivers with 97 yards on five receptions to earn Miller Lite Player of the Game honors in the season opener at Denver (9/7). Caught a 52-yard pass from Drew Bledsoe, his longest reception of the season.
- Shared team-high honors with three receptions for 50 yards against Indianapolis (9/13). Returned one punt against the Colts for 38 yards, then, two plays later, extended the scoring drive with a 26-yard reception.
- Led the team with 46 yards on four receptions and returned four punts for 27 yards in a playoff loss at Jacksonville (1/3).

■ 1997 (16/6; 2/0): In his fifth NFL season, Brown earned his first career starting assignment as a replacement for an injured Terry Glenn and recorded 41 receptions (third on the team) for 607 yards (third) and six touchdowns (second) … His six touchdown receptions were second only to tight end Ben Coates (8) … He was the only Patriot receiver to post multiple 100-yard receiving games in 1997.

- Made his NFL starting debut at Indianapolis (9/7) and caught three passes for 35 yards and scored his first career touchdown reception on a 21-yard pass from Drew Bledsoe.
- Earned Staples Star of the Game and Miller Lite Player of the Game honors against Chicago (9/21) when he led the team with six receptions for 124 yards, including a 52-yard touchdown.
- Received Staples Star of the Game and Miller Lite Player of the Game honors at the New York Jets (10/19) when he recorded a then career-high with 125 yards and a touchdown on just five receptions. 112 of those yards came on three third-quarter receptions. Posted a career-long 67-yard reception - a reception in which he shook off three would-be tacklers and was highlighted on ESPN as the "Hardest Working Play of the Week."
- Started against Miami (11/23) and posted 46 yards on three receptions, including a 35-yard touchdown pass from David Meggett, his fourth touchdown of the season.

■ 1996 (16/0, 2/0): Played in every regular season game and each of the first two playoff games, but was inactive for Super Bowl XXXI due to a hernia injury ... Shared in the kickoff return duties, handling 29 returns for a career-high 21.9-yard average ... Also posted 21 receptions for 222 yards (10.6) with a long of 38 yards.

- Registered a season-long 51-yard kickoff return at Baltimore (10/6), which set up a Ben Coates touchdown in a 46-38 victory. Totaled a season-high 105 yards on four kickoff returns (26.3 avg.) in that game.
- 20 of his 21 receptions came in the final nine games of the regular season, topped by a then career-high effort in the season finale when he grabbed seven receptions for 75 yards, including a long of 38 yards at the New York Giants (12/21). Made one of the most dramatic receptions of the season against the Giants when he snared a 13-yard pass from Bledsoe on third-and-13, extending a drive which led to the game-winning touchdown in a 23-22 come-from-behind victory. The "circus catch" was made while lying on his back as he extended to make the reception. The victory secured the AFC East title and first-round playoff bye for the Patriots.

■ 1995 (16/0): Played in every game and finished the season with 14 receptions for 159 yards (11.4 avg.) ... Set a career-high with 31 kickoff returns for 672 yards and a 21.7-yard average.

- Scored his first career touchdown on one of the most unusual plays of the 1995 season when he picked up a David Meggett fumble on a kick return against the New York Jets (12/10) and raced down the sideline for a 75-yard touchdown.
- Emerged as the Patriots third receiver early in the season and recorded a season-high with five receptions for 72 yards (14.4 avg.) and returned two kicks for 61 yards (30.5 avg.) at San Francisco (9/17) to earn his first career Miller Lite Player of the Game honors.

■ 1994 (9/0, 1/0): Re-signed with the Patriots at midseason after his preseason release and led the team with 24 punt returns for 202 yards ... His 8.4-yard punt return average ranked ninth in the AFC.

- Returned a punt 38 yards against Indianapolis (12/11) and finished the day with a career-high four returns for 62 yards (15.5 avg.).

■ 1993 (12/0): Played in 12 games during his rookie season and was used mostly as a kickoff and punt return specialist ... Led the team and finished seventh in the league with a 9.0-yard average on 25 punt returns (224 yards) ... Finished second on the team with 15 kickoff returns for 243 yards (16.2 avg.) ... Caught two passes for 22 yards ... Inactive for three games before being placed on injured reserve with a quadriceps injury (12/31).

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Tedy Bruschi was drafted by the Patriots in the third round (86th overall) of the 1996 NFL Draft ... The selection was obtained from Detroit along with 1996 fourth-round (Chris Sullivan) and sixth-round (Marrio Grier) selections in exchange for New England's 1996 third-round selection (76th overall, Ryan Stewart) … Placed on physically unable to perform list (7/28/05) … Activated from physically unable to perform list (10/29/05).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Bruschi has averaged 115 tackles over the last four seasons. His 2003-06 total of 461 stops are the most on the team over that span.
- In 2006, Bruschi was a captain on a Patriots defense that set a franchise record by allowing just 14.81 points per game. The defense allowed just 237 points, the fewest by any Patriots club over a 16-game season.
- Bruschi led the Patriots with 124 tackles (67 solo) in 2006, marking the first time in his career that he led the team in tackles. He has finished second on the team in tackles four times (1999, 2002, 2003, 2004).
- In the 2006 playoffs, Bruschi led the Patriots with 24 tackles (16 solo), marking the highest playoff tackle total of his career.
- Bruschi, the NCAA's all-time sack leader, has provided 28.5 sacks in 11 seasons as a Patriot. The Patriots are 23-2 in the 25 regular season games in which Bruschi has recorded at least one sack.
- Since 2002, Bruschi's nose for the ball has created seven defensive touchdowns. He scored four of those touchdowns on interception returns (two in both 2002 and 2003), forced two fumbles that were picked up and returned for scores (10/03/04 and 11/28/04), and tipped a pass that was grabbed by James Sanders and returned for a touchdown (12/11/05).
- In December, 2005, Bruschi was a key part of a run-stuffing unit that allowed an average of just 31.3 rushing yards per game during the month as the Patriots won all four contests to claim the 2005 AFC East title.
- Bruschi helped to anchor a Patriots defense that set a franchise record by allowing a total of just 10 points over a three-game span from 12/04/05 to 12/17/05.
- In his first game after suffering a stroke that sidelined him for the first six games of the 2005 season, Bruschi earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors following a 10-tackle performance against Buffalo (10/30/05).
- Bruschi earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2004 after a season in which he co-captained a Patriots defense that allowed 16.25 points per game, the second fewest in the NFL and the third fewest in franchise history.
- Bruschi is the only player in NFL history to return four consecutive interceptions for touchdowns and his career total of four picks returned for scores ranks second in Patriots history. He is tied for fourth in NFL history among linebackers, and Bruschi is the only Patriots linebacker to return multiple interceptions for scores in a single season (2002 and 2003).

- Bruschi's 12 career interceptions rank fourth all-time among Patriots linebackers. Eleven of his 12 regular-season picks have come in the last six seasons. Bruschi also has two postseason interceptions to his credit, including one in the fourth quarter of Super Bowl XXXIX.
- In the 2004 regular season, Bruschi finished second on the team with 128 tackles (84 solo) and tied for second on the team with three interceptions. His solid play continued in the playoffs, where he finished second on the squad with 23 tackles (18 solo) and added a sack, an interception, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.
- Bruschi was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week three times in 2004. He earned the honor twice in the regular season (Weeks 4 and 17) and also won it following a 20-3 win over Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoffs, when he forced a fumble and recovered two fumbles as the Patriots defense held the highly-regarded Colts offense to just three points.
- Bruschi recorded a single-game career high 17 tackles (7 solo) against the New York Jets (11/12/06).
- Bruschi ranked second on the team with 137 tackles (87 solo) in 2003, just three shy of Rodney Harrison's team-leading 140 stops. His 137 tackles were just one short of his career high, set in 1999.
- In 2003, Bruschi was a captain of a Patriots defense that became the first defensive unit in 65 years not to allow a touchdown in four consecutive home games in one season. The last team to accomplish the feat was the 1938 New York Giants.
- Bruschi was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week twice in 2003, following his contributions to Patriots victories in Week Two at Philadelphia and in the AFC East-clinching victory over Miami in Week 14.
- Bruschi tied a career-high and ranked third on the team with 4.5 sacks in 2002.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Rosevelt Colvin was signed by the Patriots as an unrestricted free agent on March 11, 2003 ... He was originally drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round (111th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft ... Signed by the Bears (7/21/99) ... Placed on injured reserve with a hip injury (9/22/03).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Colvin has amassed 386 career tackles, including 48.5 sacks, 11 forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries while starting in 65 of 106 games.
- Colvin has led the Patriots in sacks in each of the last two seasons, totaling 8.5 sacks in 2006 and 7.0 sacks in 2005.
- Colvin led the Patriots with 26 quarterback hits in 2006, recording double the total of the next highest Patriots player in that category (Ty Warren, 13).
- Colvin's 73 tackles in 2005 were the second highest total of his career, trailing only his 80 stops in 2001.
- In 2006, Colvin was a starter on a Patriots defense that set a franchise record by allowing just 14.81 points per game. The defense allowed just 237 points, the fewest by any Patriots club over a 16-game season.
- Colvin was part of a Patriots defense that allowed a franchise-record 10 total points over a three game span late in the 2005 season (12/04/05 to 12/17/05).
- Colvin rebounded from injury to record 5.0 sacks in 2004 while appearing in every game for the Patriots. He capped his season by getting a starting nod in Super Bowl XXXIX and came up with a big play when he stopped Brian Westbrook for a 6-yard loss in the fourth quarter.
- Colvin led the Bears with 10.5 sacks in both 2001 and 2002 and became the first Bears player to record back-to-back double-digit sack seasons since defensive end Richard Dent accomplished the feat in 1990 (12.0) and 1991 (10.5). He also became the only linebacker in Bears history to accomplish the feat.
- Colvin was the first Bears linebacker in 16 years to record double-digit sacks in a single season (Otis Wilson, 1985) with his career-high 10.5 sacks in 2001.
- Established a Bears record with a sack in eight consecutive regular season games (12/23/01-10/07/02).
- Colvin collected a single-game career-high 2.5 sacks at Atlanta (10/07/01).
- Amassed a career-high 10 tackles (7 solos), including a sack, at San Francisco (12/17/00).

EXTRA POINTS

★ Rosevelt and his wife Tiffany own two UPS Stores in Indianapolis.

★ The official website of Rosevelt Colvin is R59.com

★ In June 2007, Rosevelt hosted the first annual R59 Shootout, a 5-on-5 charity basketball tournament at his high school alma mater, Broad Ripple High in Indianapolis. Proceeds from the tournament will help provide scholarships for two 2008 graduating seniors.

★ During the 2006 season, Rosevelt teamed up with CVS to create "Rosey's Sack Pack," a back-to-school backpack that was sold at CVS stores throughout New England. The efforts benefited Easter Seals, which received $5.00 for each bag sold.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Kevin Faulk was selected by the Patriots in the second round of the 1999 NFL Draft (46th overall) ... The pick was acquired in a trade with the Tennessee Titans in exchange for the Patriots second-round pick (52nd overall – John Thornton) and fourth-round pick (117th overall – Donald Mitchell) ... Signed a five-year contract with the Patriots (7/28/99) ... Placed on injured reserve with an ankle injury (12/19/99).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Faulk is the Patriots' all-time leader in receptions by a running back, totaling 276 catches in his eight-year career. Faulk passed Tony Collins (260 catches) to become the Patriots' all-time leader on Nov. 26, 2006 against Chicago.
- Faulk enters the 2007 season as the Patriots' all-time leading return specialist, totaling 4,641 combined return yards (3,871 kick return yards and 770 punt return yards).
- Faulk is the Patriots' all-time kickoff return leader with 169 returns for 3,871 yards and two touchdowns. He became the all-time leader on Oct. 13, 2002, surpassing David Meggett's career total of 2,561 yards.
- Faulk has recorded at least 25 rushes and 25 receptions in each of the last seven seasons (2000-06).
- Over his eight-year career (1999-2006), Faulk has recorded 276 career receptions, ranking second on the team over that span (Troy Brown, 456).
- Faulk led the Patriots with a career high 20 punt returns in 2004, gaining a total of 133 yards.
- In the 2004 playoffs, Faulk participated in all three games and recorded 133 rushing yards on 22 carries (5.2 avg).
- Faulk registered his 200th career reception in the Patriots' 29-6 victory over Buffalo (11/14/04).
- Faulk led the Patriots with a career-high 1,078 yards from scrimmage in 2003. He finished second on the team in both carries (178) and receptions (48), gaining a career-high 638 yards on the ground and catching 440 yards worth of passes.
- Faulk finished second in the NFL in 2002 with a career-high 27.9-yard kickoff return average in 2002 (26 att. - 725 yds).
- Faulk returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2002 (86 yds at Oakland 11/17 and 87 yds vs. N.Y. Jets 12/22) and became just the second Patriot to return multiple kickoffs for touchdowns in one season, joining Raymond Clayborn, who returned three in 1977.
- Faulk was the first player in Patriots history and the only NFL player in 2002 to score multiple touchdowns rushing (2), receiving (3) and via kickoff return (2).
- Faulk has two 100-yard receiving games to his credit, one each in 2002 and 2003. He amassed a career-high 109 receiving yards on seven catches at Chicago (11/10/02), becoming the first Patriots running back to eclipse the 100-yard receiving mark since Tony Collins gained 109 yards on six catches at Tampa Bay (10/27/85). In 2003, Faulk came within a whisker of his career-high with an eight-catch, 108-yard effort at Houston (11/23/03).
- Completed his first career pass attempt when he took a direct snap from center and found quarterback Tom Brady for a 23-yard gain vs. Miami (12/22/01).
- Faulk set a career high with 11 catches vs. Tampa Bay (9/3/00).
- Earned Miller Lite Player of the Game honors after contributing in nearly every facet of the game vs. Minnesota (9/17/00), gaining 80 yards rushing, 31 yards receiving, 56 kickoff return yards and 22 punt return yards for 189 all-purpose yards.
- Set a career-high with a 95-yard kickoff return vs. N.Y. Jets (11/15/99). It was the eighth longest return – and the longest non-scoring return – in franchise history.

EXTRA POINTS

★ In May 2007, Kevin hosted a celebrity softball game in Brockton, Mass. to benefit the United Way of Massachusetts Bay and the United Way of Acadiana in his home state of Louisiana. Many of Kevin's teammates joined him for the event, including Tedy Bruschi, Rosevelt Colvin, Vince Wilfork, Ty Warren, Wes Welker and others.

★ Kevin resisted the temptation of turning pro following his junior season at LSU and stayed in school to earn his degree in Kinesiology in just three and a half years.

COLLEGE

Finished his collegiate career placing 13th in NCAA Division 1-A history with 369 points and 14th with 70 successful field goals ... His 369 career points set a Memphis record, shattering the old mark of 263 points by Joe Allison (1990-93) ... Made 70-of-92 field goals during his career, good for a 76.1 percent accuracy rate ... Over his final two seasons, made 85.7 percent of his field goal attempts (42-of-49) ... Holds the top three spots on the Tigers' single-season record list for points scored by a kicker, totaling 101 points in 2003, 108 in 2004 and 101 in 2005 ... His 44 successful extra points in 2003 topped the old school single-season record of 42 by John Cobb (1949), and his 48 extra points in 2004 broke the previous record of 44, which he had established a year earlier.

EXTRA POINTS

★ Stephen has a simple yet consistent warm-up routine on the sidelines prior to each kick. Once the Patriots offense crosses the 50-yard line into opponents' territory, he will kick three footballs into a net, take three gulps of water, stretch, and get ready to go if he's needed.

★ As a rookie in 2006, Stephen nailed 21 of his final 23 field goal tries (91.3 percent), including a perfect 8-for-8 performance in the playoffs.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Rodney Harrison was signed by the New England Patriots as a veteran free agent on March 12, 2003 ... Originally drafted by the San Diego Chargers in the fifth round (145th overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft ... Signed by the Chargers (6/29/94) ... Released by the Chargers (2/27/03) ... Placed on injured reserve with a knee injury (9/27/05).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Harrison is the NFL's all-time leader in sacks by a defensive back, having recorded 28.5 sacks in his 13 seasons heading into 2007.
- Harrison is the only player in NFL history to record at least 25 sacks and at least 30 interceptions in his career. Harrison enters the 2007 season with 28.5 sacks and 32 interceptions in his regular-season career.
- Harrison has come up big on the biggest stage, with six interceptions in his last six playoff games, including two in Super Bowl XXXIX. His four picks in the 2004 playoffs tied for the third most in a single postseason since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Additionally, his six career playoff interceptions are tied for the fourth most since the merger.
- In 2006, Harrison was a captain on a Patriots defense that set a franchise record by allowing just 14.81 points per game. The defense allowed just 237 points, the fewest by any Patriots club over a 16-game season.
- In 2006, Harrison was part of a Patriots secondary that allowed just 10 touchdown passes by opponents, a mark that led the NFL and stands as the fewest allowed in team history for a single season.
- In his first two seasons in New England, Harrison was not only the Patriots' leading tackler each year, but also led all NFL defensive backs in tackles in both seasons. He set a career high with 140 tackles in 2003, and then followed that with a 138-tackle performance in 2004.
- Harrison was voted as a defensive captain by his teammates in each of his first four seasons in New England (2003-06).
- Harrison was the Patriots' leading tackler in both the 2003 and 2004 postseasons while also recording a total of two sacks, six interceptions, seven passes defensed and two forced fumbles in the six games leading to New England's back-to-back world championships.
- Harrison recorded a career-high 20 tackles (12 solo) at Pittsburgh on Oct. 31, 2004. He posted double-digit tackle totals in a team-high seven games in 2004, including an 11-tackle performance in the divisional playoffs against Indianapolis (1/16/05).

- Harrison has shown a knack for coming up with interceptions at crucial times. In the 2004 regular season and playoffs, five of his six interceptions came inside the opponents' 20-yard line, with four of those picks coming inside the 4-yard line and two of them coming in the end zone. His only 2004 pick that did not come inside the 20-yard line was his interception in the fourth quarter of Super Bowl XXXIX, a pick that ended Philadelphia's last-gasp drive and clinched the Patriots' world title.
- As an all-around contributor, Harrison recorded 12 special teams tackles in 2004, his highest total since notching 20 special teams stops as a rookie in 1994.
- Harrison posted double-digit tackle totals in six games in 2003, including a season-high 14 tackles (11 solo) against Tennessee (10/5/03) and a 10-tackle effort (7 solo) in the AFC Championship Game against Indianapolis (1/18/04).
- In 2003, Harrison was part of a Patriots defense that led the NFL in four key categories: opponents' points per game (14.9), opponents' passer rating (56.2), interceptions (29) and passing touchdowns surrendered (11).
- Harrison was selected to the Associated Press All-Pro first team in 2003 and earned AP second-team honors in 2004.
- Harrison was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1998 and 2001.
- Harrison has eclipsed the 100-tackle mark seven times during his career, including a career-high 140 tackles (105 solo) in 2003.
- Harrison amassed a career high six sacks during the 2000 season. His six sacks led all NFL defensive backs and ranked second on the team.
- Harrison established a career high with six interceptions in 2000 for 97 yards, including a 63-yard touchdown.
- Harrison was selected as the Chargers defensive player of the year four times, as voted by his teammates (1996-97, 2000-01).
- Harrison was chosen among the franchise's all-time greats when he was selected to the Chargers 40th Anniversary All-Time Team during the 2000 season.
- Harrison made NFL history in 1997 when he became the first player to score touchdowns on a fumble return, interception return and kickoff return in the same season.
- Harrison led the Chargers with 20 special teams tackles as a rookie in 1994.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Artrell Hawkins was signed by the Patriots as a veteran free agent on Nov. 16, 2005 ... Originally selected in the second round (43rd overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals ... Released by the Bengals (3/5/04) ... Signed by the Carolina Panthers (3/10/04) ... Released by the Panthers (3/1/05) ... Signed by the Washington Redskins (6/23/05) ... Released by the Redskins (8/27/05).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Hawkins has appeared in 122 career games with 92 starts and has recorded 482 tackles (415 solo), 11 interceptions for 166 yards and a touchdown, 70 passes defensed, 12 forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries.
- Hawkins started 12 games at safety for the Patriots in 2006 and also finished tied for the team lead with 15 special teams tackles. Hawkins' 62 tackles (42 solo) in 2006 tied for the highest total by any Patriots defensive back that season.
- In 2006, Hawkins was part of a Patriots secondary that allowed just 10 touchdown passes by opponents, a mark that led the NFL and stands as the fewest allowed in team history for a single season.
- Hawkins was signed by the Patriots on Nov. 16, 2005, and transitioned from cornerback to safety to help a secondary that had suffered numerous injuries. He started four of the five games he appeared in and posted 16 tackles, including a season-high seven stops and a sack in a start against Tampa Bay (12/17/05). He also started both playoff games at safety.
- In 2004, Hawkins started four of 14 games for the Carolina Panthers while serving as the nickel back for most of the season.
- In six seasons with the Bengals (1998-2003), Hawkins started 72 of 89 games at cornerback and was credited with 375 tackles and nine interceptions.
- Hawkins's most productive season as a pro came in 2002 when he started 15 games and had a career-high 76 tackles with two interceptions.
- On Nov. 3, 2002, Hawkins intercepted Houston's David Carr and returned the ball 102 yards for a touchdown. The play is tied for the third longest interception return in NFL history entering the 2007 season. Hawkins earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors following the game.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Josh Miller was signed by the Patriots as a veteran free agent on March 15, 2004 ... Played for the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League from 1994-95 and was signed into the NFL by the Seattle Seahawks in the spring of 1996 ... Released by Seattle and signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers as a free agent (8/14/96) ... Placed on injured reserve (12/19/02) ... Released by the Steelers (3/6/04) … Placed on injured reserve with a shoulder injury (11/24/06).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Miller has played in 164 games in his 11-year career and enters the 2007 season having punted 747 times for 32,176 yards, good for an average of 43.1 yards per kick.
- Miller has shown a knack for placing his punts deep in his opponents' territory, placing 247 career punts inside the 20-yard line, with just 83 career touchbacks.
- In 2005, Miller finished fourth in the NFL with a 45.1 punt average, a figure that ranks second in single-season Patriots history (Tom Tupa, 45.8, 1997).
- Miller recorded just four touchbacks in 2005, the fewest among the NFL's top 10 punters.
- Miller sealed the Patriots' Super Bowl XXXIX victory by pinning the Eagles deep in their own territory with a 32-yard punt that was downed at the Philadelphia 4-yard line with 46 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.
- Miller's consistency as a holder helped the Patriots set a franchise record by hitting an NFL-best 93.9 percent of their field goals (31-of-33) in 2004. Including a 48-for-48 performance on extra points, the trio of Miller, kicker Adam Vinatieri and long snapper Lonie Paxton produced 79 successful kicks in 81 attempts (97.5 percent).
- Miller's best statistical season to date was the 1999 season, when he was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate, averaging 45.2 yards per kick and gaining a net average of 38.1 yards. Both his net and gross averages ranked third in the NFL and second in the AFC.
- In 2000, Miller placed 34 of his 90 punts inside the 20-yard line, tying his career high (1998) and finishing second in the NFL.
- Miller led the NFL in 1998 by placing 34 of his 81 punts inside the 20-yard line.

SEASONAL REVIEWS

■ 2006 (0/0, 0/0): Listed as a day of game inactive for the first nine contests of the season before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 14, 2006.

COLLEGE

Mills' 201 career receptions at Tulsa ranked second in Division I-A history among tight ends and ranked third in school history among all players ... His 2,389 career receiving yards are tied for second in Division I-A history among tight ends (with Boston College's Pete Mitchell) and rank sixth on Tulsa's all-time list among all players ... Became the first tight end in school history to top 2,000 career receiving yards ... Caught 23 touchdown passes, placing him fourth in school history ... Gained over 100 yards receiving in eight games during his career ... Did not miss a game, playing in 50 contests with 33 starts and catching 201 passes for 2,389 yards (11.9 avg) and 23 touchdowns ... Added two kickoff returns for 21 yards and recorded 26 special teams tackles ... Was Tulsa's leading receiver for three straight seasons (2003-05) ... Caught at least one pass in each of his final 40 games, compiling the longest streak of any of the nation's tight ends when his college career ended … As a senior in 2005, recorded 87 catches for 1,235 yards (14.2 avg) and nine touchdowns, with all of those marks tops among NCAA Division I-A tight ends ... His 1,235 receiving yards ranked fifth in the nation and set an NCAA Division 1-A record for a tight end, breaking the old mark of 1,156 yards by Chris Smith of Brigham Young in 1999 ... His 87 receptions ranked second on the Division 1-A single-season list for tight ends, trailing only James Whalen of Kentucky (90 in 1999).

EXTRA POINTS

★ Garrett collected 201 career receptions at Tulsa, ranking him second in Division I-A history among tight ends and third in school history among all players.

★ The University of Tulsa was the only school to offer Garrett the chance to play tight end. Other schools like Air Force, New Mexico State and Oklahoma State offered scholarships with the idea of him playing linebacker.

★ University of Tulsa football is special in the Mills family. Garrett's father, Mike, played offensive line for Tulsa and his uncle, Kevin Harlan, suited up at tight end for the Golden Hurricane.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Sammy Morris was signed by the Patriots as an unrestricted free agent on March 3, 2007 … Originally was a fifth-round draft choice (156th overall) by the Buffalo Bills in the 2000 NFL Draft … Signed a two-year contract with the Miami Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2004 … Re-signed to a one-year contract with Miami on April 3, 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Morris joins the Patriots in 2007 as a veteran of seven NFL seasons with AFC East rivals Buffalo (2000-03) and Miami (2004-06), playing in 94 games with 23 starts.
- Morris enters 2007 with 374 career rushes for 1,469 yards and 14 touchdowns and has also totaled 112 receptions for 792 yards and one touchdown.
- Morris enters 2007 with 105 career special teams tackles. He led the Buffalo Bills in special teams tackles for two seasons, totaling a career-best 31 in 2002 and finishing the season with 28 while serving as Buffalo's special teams captain in 2001. He also led the Dolphins with 16 special teams stops in 2005.
- In three seasons with Miami (2004-06), Morris started 14 of 41 games and rushed for a total of 1,081 yards and eight touchdowns on 240 carries. He also had 51 receptions for 340 yards as a Dolphin.
- Morris finished the 2006 season with a career-best 4.3 yards per carry, totaling 400 yards on 92 rushes, including a career-long 55-yard run.
- Morris set single-game career highs while playing for Miami against the Patriots on Dec. 10, 2006. In that game, he started at running back and ran for a career-high 123 yards on a career-high 25 carries.
- Morris had a solid ending to the 2006 season, when he started four times in the final six games and ran for 365 yards on 77 carries (4.7 avg) in those final six contests.
- Morris set single-season career highs in 2004, his first season with the Dolphins. That year, he started eight of 13 games and led Miami with 523 rushing yards on 132 carries and six touchdowns. All three of those figures represent career-highs entering 2007.
- As a rookie in 2000, Morris led all Buffalo running backs with 37 receptions for 268 yards and a touchdown. He also added 341 rushing yards on 93 carries that season.

SEASONAL REVIEWS

■ 2006 (12/4 – Miami): Finished second on the Dolphins in rushing with 92 rushes for 400 yards and one touchdown ... Added 21 catches for 162 yards ... Tied for third on the team with eight special teams tackles ... Led the Dolphins in rushing four times and in receptions once ... Started at running back four times (including three games in place of the injured Ronnie Brown) ... In those three starts when Brown was inactive he rushed for 241 yards on 57 carries ... Missed the first four games of the season due to an NFL suspension. New England (10/8): Made his season debut primarily on special teams ... Rushed the ball twice for five yards. Green Bay (10/22): Had one rush for five yards and added one reception for 44 yards ... The 44-yard catch was the longest reception of his career, surpassing his previous long reception of 24 yards, accomplished three previous times. Detroit (11/23): Played extensively following a hand injury to Ronnie Brown and responded by leading the Dolphins in rushing with 12 carries for 91 yards, including a career-long 55-yard run ... His 91 yards at the time tied his single game career high, which he first attained at Buffalo (10/17/04) ... His 55-yard run surpassed his previous career best, a 35-yard touchdown run at Baltimore (1/2/05). Jacksonville (12/3): Started at running back and led the Dolphins in rushing with 12 carries for 47 yards ... Added three catches for 20 yards. New England (12/10): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 25 carries for 123 yards and one touchdown, coming on a three-yard run ... Collected two catches for 39 yards ... His 123 yards rushing was his single game career high and his first career 100-yard game, surpassing his previous best of 91 yards, which he accomplished twice previously ... Registered a 44-yard run, the second longest run of his career. Buffalo (12/17): Led the Dolphins in rushing and receptions with 20 carries for 71 yards and five catches for 12 yards ... His five receptions at the time tied for the second highest single-game total of his career. N.Y. Jets (12/25): Recorded six carries for 14 yards and added four receptions for 23 yards.

■ 2005 (16/2 – Miami): Played in all 16 games, including two starts ... Rushed for 58 yards and a touchdown on 16 attempts and caught eight passes for 54 yards ... Led team with 16 special teams tackles, where he also forced a fumble.

- Rushed for 14 yards on two carries in opener, including a nine-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter that gave the Dolphins a 20-3 lead in their 34-10 victory over Denver (9/11).
- Posted four special teams tackles and a forced fumble in the 23-21 win over San Diego (12/11). Stripped the ball from Darren Sproles on a kickoff return in the third quarter, as Olindo Mare recovered the fumble at the Chargers' 24, leading to a Dolphins touchdown.

■ 2004 (13/8 – Miami): Started eight of the 13 games in which he played, serving primarily as a running back, backup fullback and special teamer ... Injuries thrust him into the starting lineup at running back for much of the year ... Led team with career-high figures of 523 yards rushing and six touchdowns on 132 attempts ... Average per rush attempt of 4.0 also was the best of his NFL career ... Added 22 receptions for 124 yards and one kickoff return for 27 yards.

- Moved into starting spot at halfback against Buffalo (10/17), his first start since the 2001 season. Responded with a then career-high 91 yards rushing on 18 attempts, while also catching two passes for 28 yards.
- Compiled 83 yards rushing on a career-high 28 attempts, including an eight-yard touchdown run in the first quarter against St. Louis (10/24).
- Scored from two yards out and one yard away against New England (12/20), marking the first time in his career he recorded two rushing touchdowns in a game. His one-yard run with 2:07 to play in the game brought the Dolphins to within five points of the lead at 28-23 in a game they would go on to win, 29-28. Recorded career-high figures of six receptions for 46 yards.
- Concluded the season with 89 rushing yards and a touchdown on 12 carries for a season-best 7.4-yard average per rush attempt against Baltimore (1/2). The touchdown run came on a then career-long 35-yard jaunt.

■ 2003 (9/0 – Buffalo): Played in nine games, all in a reserve role with the Bills ... Was inactive for seven contests ... Rushed for 70 yards and a touchdown on 19 carries and caught 14 passes for 100 yards ... Added six kickoff returns for a 24.3-yard average with a long of 52 and nine tackles on special teams.

- Scored his lone touchdown of the year on a seven-yard run against Indianapolis (11/23). Caught a season-high three passes for 23 yards and tallied three stops on special teams.

■ 2002 (16/0 – Buffalo): Played in all 16 games in a reserve role ... Served as Buffalo's special teams captain for the second consecutive year ... Rushed for five yards on two attempts and registered three receptions for 48 yards ... Led the Bills' special teams with 31 tackles.

- Collected a season-high five special teams tackles against Denver (9/22).

■ 2001 (16/1 – Buffalo): Played in all 16 games, including one start ... Rushed for 72 yards on 20 carries and had seven receptions for 36 yards ... Served as a captain on special teams and led that unit with 28 tackles.

- Started his only game of the season at running back and rushed the ball twice for four yards against the N.Y. Jets (10/7).
- Rushed for a season-high 28 yards on five carries against the N.Y. Jets (12/30).

EXTRA POINTS

★Sammy plans to attend the Dallas Theological Seminary in order to pursue a career in counseling following his playing days. He feels as though he can use what he has learned during his NFL career to assist others off the field.

★Sammy registered his first career 100-yard rushing game, a career-best 123-yard performance against the Patriots on Dec. 10, 2006.

■ 2000 (12/8 – Buffalo): Played in 12 games, including eight starts in his rookie season … Rushed for 341 yards and five touchdowns on 93 attempts … Caught 37 passes for 268 yards and a score … Contributed 11 tackles on special teams … Rushing total ranked third on the team, while his reception figure was fourth on the club and tops among running backs.

- Collected his first NFL start and rushed for nine yards on three carries and caught three passes for 11 yards against the N.Y. Jets (9/17).
- Scored his first career NFL touchdown on a three-yard run against Miami (10/8). That began a stretch of four straight games in which he had a touchdown run, the second-longest such streak by a rookie in Bills history, trailing only the five-game streak by Joe Cribbs in 1980.
- Amassed a season-high 60 rushing yards on eight attempts, including a 32-yard scoring run against San Diego (10/15).
- Had a pair of scores against the Vikings (10/22), when he ran for a one-yard touchdown and caught an 18-yard touchdown pass.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Randy Moss was acquired by the Patriots from the Oakland Raiders on April 29, 2007 in exchange for a fourth-round selection in the 2007 NFL Draft (110th overall – DB John Bowie) … Originally drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft (21st overall) … Traded by Minnesota to the Oakland Raiders on March 2, 2005 in exchange for linebacker Napoleon Harris, a first-round selection in the 2005 NFL Draft (seventh overall – WR Troy Williamson) and a seventh-round selection in the 2005 NFL Draft (219th overall – DB Adrian Ward).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Moss enters the 2007 season as a veteran of nine NFL seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (1998-2004) and Oakland Raiders (2005-06). He has played in 138 career games with 132 starts and has caught 676 passes for 10,700 yards (15.8 avg.) and 101 touchdowns.
- Moss is one of seven players in NFL history to record more than 100 receiving touchdowns and is one of 27 players in league annals to record more than 10,000 receiving yards. His 101 career receiving touchdowns rank fifth on the NFL's all-time list, his 10,700 career receiving yards rank 21st and his 676 career receptions rank 29th.
- Moss has recorded seven seasons with 1,000 or more receiving yards and has caught 10 or more touchdown passes in six seasons. The Marshall product is the only player in NFL history to record 1,000 or more receiving yards in each of his first six NFL seasons.
- Moss was named to the Associated Press All-Pro Team following the 1998, 2000 and 2003 seasons and has earned five career Pro Bowl selections (1998, 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003).
- Moss caught his 100th career touchdown pass while playing in his 132nd career game (10/8/06). Moss and Jerry Rice (100 touchdowns in 120 games) are the only two players in NFL history to record 100 touchdown receptions in fewer than 140 NFL games.
- Moss became the first receiver in league history to record 1,000-yard seasons in his first six years.
- Moss enters the 2007 season having recorded 48 games with 100 or more receiving yards, including three such games in the playoffs.
- Moss surpassed the 10,000 receiving yard plateau for his career at Denver (12/24/05), becoming the 25th player in NFL history to achieve the milestone.
- Moss enters 2007 having caught at least one pass in 134 of his 138 career regular season games played and in 142 of 146 games including playoffs.
- Moss was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2002 Pro Bowl after setting records for catches (nine) and receiving yards (212) in the game along with scoring the final touchdown of the day in a 51-31 win by the NFC.
- Moss led the NFL in receiving touchdowns in 1998, 2000 and 2003. He led the NFC in receiving yards in 1999 (1,413) and 2002 (1,347). He led the NFC in receptions in 2002 (106) and ranked second in 2003 (111).
- Moss has caught three touchdown passes in a game five times, the last time coming vs. San Francisco (9/28/03).
- In 138 career regular season games, Moss has 16 catches and 10 touchdowns of 60-plus yards, 29 catches and 19 touchdowns of 50-plus yards and 57 catches and 31 touchdowns of 40-plus yards.

EXTRA POINTS

★ Randy has a college football award named after him. The Randy Moss Award is presented annually to the top return man in college football based on a vote of sports information directors. The inaugural recipient of the award in 2006 was California's DeSean Jackson. In 1996, Moss was the leading kickoff returner in Division I-AA, averaging 34.6 yards per return.

★ Randy owns several franchises of Inta Juice, a Colorado-based juice bar chain. He owns two stores in Charleston, W.Va., near his hometown of Rand, W.Va. and plans to open new locations in Florida, Louisiana, North Carolina, Ohio and Texas. Randy also is a member of Inta Juice's national board of directors.

★ Randy was twice selected as West Virginia's High School Basketball Player of the Year while playing alongside current Miami Heat point guard Jason Williams.

Asante Samuel was selected by the New England Patriots in the fourth round (120th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft ... Signed with the Patriots (07/15/03).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

■ Samuel has started 39 of 59 career regular-season games and has notched 184 tackles (162 solo), 16 interceptions for 224 yards and two touchdowns, 63 passes defensed and three forced fumbles.

- Samuel tied for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions in the 2006 regular season, achieving the second highest interception total in Patriots history and the most in club annals since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Samuel's 10 interceptions trail only Ron Hall's total of 11 for the Boston Patriots in 1964.
- Samuel led the NFL with 24 passes defensed during the 2006 regular season (Chris McAlister, 22), becoming the first Patriot to lead the league in passes defensed since Ty Law (23) in 2004.
- Samuel set a career high with three interceptions against Chicago on Nov. 26, 2006, becoming the first Patriots player to have three picks in a regular season game since Roland James on Oct. 23, 1983.
- Samuel returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the 2006 playoffs, giving him three career playoff interceptions returned for touchdowns. He is tied with Oakland's Willie Brown for the all-time NFL playoff record in that category.
- Samuel has shown an ability to consistently find the end zone, having returned five interceptions for touchdowns in four NFL seasons, including three in the playoffs. He returned one pick for a score in both the 2003 and 2004 regular seasons and also found the end zone in the 2005 and 2006 playoffs.
- In 2006, Samuel was part of a Patriots secondary that allowed just 10 touchdown passes by opponents, a mark that led the NFL and stands as the fewest allowed in team history for a single season.
- In 2005, Samuel started all 15 regular-season games in which he played and tied for the team lead with a career-high three interceptions and led the team with a career-high 18 passes defensed. He also notched a career-high 53 tackles (41 solo).
- Samuel's four career playoff interceptions are tied with Ty Law for second in Patriots playoff history, trailing only Rodney Harrison (6).
- Samuel played in 13 games with eight starts in 2004 and led the team with 12 passes defensed.
- Samuel started all three postseason contests for the Patriots in 2004 and finished tied for the team lead with four pass breakups.
- Samuel tallied his second career touchdown with a 34-yard interception return for a score against Cincinnati (12/12/04).
- Samuel was named NFL rookie of the week for his performance in the Patriots' victory over the Jets in New England's 2003 home opener. He returned his first career interception 55 yards for a touchdown to seal a 23-16 Patriots victory.
- Samuel spent much of his rookie season as the Patriots' fifth defensive back, and earned his first career start in place of an injured Ty Law in the Patriots' 19-13 overtime win at Miami (10/19/03).

Was a versatile athlete, playing quarterback, defensive back, kicker and punter in football in addition to being a member of the basketball and baseball teams ... On the gridiron as a junior, he saw considerable action at quarterback where he threw for 1,800 yards and rushed for 500 yards ... Concentrated on defense his senior year and earned All-Broward County honors from the Miami Herald as well as All-State honors ... Considered one of the county's top pass defenders, tallying 75 tackles and four interceptions and earned an invitation to the North-South Shrine Game ... Also saw limited action as the backup quarterback, completing 18 passes for 198 yards and three touchdowns in his final year ... Asante has three children, A.J., Ashante and Amaya ... Majored in business at Central Florida.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Richard Seymour was drafted by the Patriots in the first round (sixth overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft ... Signed by the Patriots (7/24/01).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Seymour has earned a Pro Bowl berth in each of the past five seasons and is the only member of the Patriots to currently own a streak of multiple Pro Bowl seasons. His five Pro Bowl berths are the most by any Patriots defensive lineman since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- Seymour is the first Patriots defender since Andre Tippett (1984-88) to earn five straight Pro Bowl nods. He is the fifth player in team history to earn five straight Pro Bowl selections, joining John Hannah (eight straight from 1978-85), Mike Haynes (five straight from 1976-80), Ben Coates (five straight from 1994-98) and Tippett.
- In 2006, Seymour was a captain on a Patriots defense that set a franchise record by allowing just 14.81 points per game. The defense allowed just 237 points, the fewest by any Patriots club over a 16-game season.
- In 2005, Seymour was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press for the third consecutive season. From the time he returned from an injury on Nov. 13, 2005, until the end of the regular season, the Patriots allowed just 14.8 points per game while recording a 6-2 record.
- Seymour helped to anchor a dominating three-game defensive effort from Dec. 4-17, 2005, when the Patriots allowed just 10 total points over the three contests, setting a franchise record for the fewest points allowed over a three-game span.
- Seymour was named a defensive captain by his teammates in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006.
- Seymour scored his first career touchdown on a 68-yard fumble return to ice the Patriots' victory over Buffalo on Oct. 3, 2004. The fumble return was the longest in franchise history.
- In 2004, Seymour was a co-captain on a Patriots defense that allowed 16.25 points per game, the second fewest in the NFL and the third fewest in franchise history.
- Seymour finished second on the Patriots with a career-high 8.0 sacks in 2003, while also setting career highs with 79 tackles (45 solo) and 10 pass deflections.
- Seymour earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2002 and became the first Patriots defensive tackle ever selected and the first Patriots defensive lineman to be honored since Willie McGinest in 1996. Former Patriots defensive tackles Houston Antwine (6) and Jim Lee Hunt (4) both earned multiple trips to the AFL All-Star Game during their careers.
- Seymour collected 5.5 sacks during the 2002 season and shared the team lead with Willie McGinest.
- Seymour has blocked five field goals in his four-year career, including a block in the 2003 divisional playoffs (1/10/03). Seymour blocked two field goals during the 2002 regular season, becoming the first Patriot since Chad Eaton in 2000 to block two field goals in one season.
- Intercepted the first pass of his career vs. Buffalo (12/8/02) and returned it six yards.
- Seymour finished second among Patriots defensive lineman with 44 tackles (25 solos) during his rookie season in 2001.

★ Richard established the Richard Seymour BGC (Blessing God's Children) Foundation to empower low-income children through actvities such as camps and health fairs.

★ Richard wears a size 17 shoe, the largest on the team.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Vinny Testaverde was signed by the Patriots as a free agent on November 14, 2006 … Originally drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers with the first overall pick in the 1987 NFL Draft … Signed by the Cleveland Browns on (3/31/93) and became a Baltimore Raven when the franchise moved to Baltimore (3/11/96) … Released by Baltimore (2/2/98) … Signed by the New York Jets (6/24/98) … Released by the Jets (6/2/04) … Signed by the Dallas Cowboys (6/3/04) … Re-signed by the Jets as an unrestricted free agent (9/27/05).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Testaverde enters 2007 ranked in the top 10 in NFL history in four major passing categories: passing yards (6th – 45,281), completions (6th – 3,693), touchdown passes (8th – 270) and attempts (7th – 6,529).
- In 20 NFL seasons entering 2007, Testaverde has played in 226 career games with 208 starts.
- Testaverde has posted career passing numbers that include 6,529 attempts, 3,693 completions, 45,281 yards and 270 touchdowns and has rushed 421 times for 1,638 yards and 15 touchdowns.
- Testaverde has thrown for 300 or more yards 30 times in his career, 400 or more four times, and has posted a passer rating of 100.0 or higher on 48 occasions.
- Testaverde has thrown for a touchdown pass in 20 consecutive seasons (1987-2006), achieving an all-time NFL record. He broke the old record of 18 straight seasons with a touchdown pass (previously held by Johnny Unitas and Fran Tarkenton) when he connected on a 27-yard scoring pass to Laveranues Coles while playing for the New York Jets in a game against the Patriots on Dec. 26, 2005. He added to his record on Dec. 31, 2006, when he hit Troy Brown for a 6-yard touchdown while playing for the Patriots against Tennessee.
- After throwing for 3,532 yards in 2004 with Dallas, Testaverde became the first player to throw for more than 3,000 yards for four different teams (Tampa Bay, Baltimore, New York Jets, Dallas).
- Testaverde became the oldest quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000 passing yard mark at 41 years and 50 days old at the end of the 2004 season (Warren Moon was 41 years, 34 days when he accomplished the feat in 1997).
- Testaverde had a career year with the Jets in 1998, posting a 101.6 passer rating and being named to the Pro Bowl as he led the Jets to their first division title since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and a trip to the AFC Championship game.
- Testaverde was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Month in both November and December of the 1998 season as the Jets won 10 of their last 11 regular season games.
- Testaverde holds both Tampa Bay and Baltimore all-time records for most passing yards (14,820 – TB; 7,148 - BAL) and touchdowns (77 –TB; 51 - BAL). Also holds Tampa Bay records for attempts (2,160) and completions (1,126).
- Testaverde was selected first overall by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1987 NFL draft.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Adalius Thomas was signed by the Patriots as an unrestricted free agent on March 3, 2007 … Originally selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the sixth round (186th overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft … Re-signed with the Ravens on March 22, 2004.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Thomas joins the Patriots in 2007 as a veteran of seven NFL seasons. He has played in 96 career games with 73 starts, all with the Baltimore Ravens (2000-06). He has totaled 436 career tackles (287 solo), including 38.5 sacks for 242 yards, six interceptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns, 50 passes defensed, 15 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries (including three returned for touchdowns) and 78 special teams tackles.
- Thomas has recorded more sacks over the last three seasons than any other NFL linebacker, totaling 28.0 sacks from 2004-06.
- Thomas has been selected to the Pro Bowl twice – as a special teams player following the 2003 season and as a linebacker following the 2006 season. In the Pro Bowl following the 2006 season, Thomas started at outside linebacker for the AFC team (coached by Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick) and returned a fumble 70 yards for a touchdown in the game.
- In 2006, Thomas set career highs with 11.0 sacks and 106 tackles (75 solo) while starting every game on a Baltimore Ravens defense that led the NFL in allowing just 12.6 points per game.

- Thomas' 11.0 sacks in 2006 led all Ravens defenders and tied for the fourth highest total among all NFL linebackers. Thomas recorded a sack or shared in a sack in 11 of 16 regular-season games in 2006 and tallied at least one sack seven times in an eight-game span during the season.
- In 2005, Thomas started every game and set a Ravens franchise record by recording three defensive touchdowns (two fumble returns and one interception return), while leading the team with nine sacks and totaling 104 tackles (70 solo).
- Thomas became the first Raven to record three defensive touchdowns in a season in 2005.
- Started all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2004 and responded with then-career highs in tackles (80) and sacks (8). Posted five passes defensed, four forced fumbles and an interception.
- Thomas played linebacker, defensive end and was a special teams ace, earning his first-ever Pro Bowl nod in 2003. Saw action in 13 games, starting 11 while registering 34 tackles (26 solo), eight passes defensed, four sacks and a forced fumble. Also led the team with a career-high 23 special teams tackles and had a blocked punt in 2003.
- Enjoyed a strong 2002 campaign as a starting defensive end, posting 68 tackles and three sacks. Also collected three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and then-career highs with two interceptions (one was returned for a touchdown) and 11 passes defensed. Finished third on the team with 15 special teams tackles.
- Came into his own in his second year (2001), posting 37 tackles (29 solo), 3.5 sacks, three forced fumbles and eight passes defensed. Tied for the team lead with 18 special teams tackles.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Mike Vrabel was signed by the Patriots as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2001 ... He was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Over 10 NFL seasons, Vrabel has recorded 537 tackles (364 solo), 38.5 sacks, 10 interceptions for 68 yards and a touchdown, 31 passes defensed, 11 forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries.
- In 2006, Vrabel was a captain on a Patriots defense that set a franchise record by allowing just 14.81 points per game. The defense allowed just 237 points, the fewest by any Patriots club over a 16-game season.
- Vrabel finished third on the team with 101 tackles (59 solo) in 2006 and also tied for the team lead with three regular-season strip-sacks – at Buffalo (10/22), at Green Bay (11/12) and at Tennessee (12/31).
- Vrabel finished second on the team with 20 tackles in the 2006 playoffs and tied for the team lead with a pair of playoff sacks.
- Vrabel has recorded four strip-sacks in his 16-game playoff career. He recorded strip-sacks of Philip Rivers in the 2006 AFC divisional playoffs (1/14/07), of Peyton Manning in the 2004 AFC divisional playoffs (1/16/05), of Jake Delhomme in Super Bowl XXXVIII (2/1/04) and of Drew Bledsoe while playing for the Steelers against the Patriots in the 1997 AFC divisional playoffs (1/3/98).
- Vrabel had a productive season in 2005, leading the team with a career-high 114 tackles (80 solo) while starting all 16 games for the first time in his career.
- Vrabel has recorded eight career receptions in regular-season and playoff games, all going for touchdowns. He has caught six passes for eight yards and six touchdowns in the regular season and two passes for three yards and two touchdowns in the playoffs.
- On Dec. 26, 2005, Vrabel became the first player to record two touchdowns and a sack in the same game since sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982. In that game against the New York Jets, Vrabel caught a pair of 1-yard touchdown passes and also recorded a second-quartersack.
- Vrabel enjoyed a strong campaign in 2004, finishing second on the team with 5.5 sacks and fourth

EXTRA POINTS

★ Mike's Second and Seven Foundation, which he started with his Ohio State teammates Ryan Miller and Luke Fickell to promote literacy in Central Ohio, held its eighth annual FUNdamental Football Camp in 2007.

★ In April 2006, Mike and his wife Jen made a $75,000 donation to Ohio State in support of the Woody Hayes Athletic Center renovation project. Mike and Jen each attended Ohio State and earned bachelor's degrees from the university.

★ Mike has an interest in coaching after his playing career.

on the squad with 76 tackles (59 solo).

- Vrabel led the Patriots with a career-high 9.5 sacks in 2003, the most by any Patriot in the Bill Belichick era and the most by a Patriot since Willie McGinest notched 9.5 sacks in 1996. Vrabel accomplished the feat despite missing three games due to injury.
- Vrabel capped off 2003 with a strong postseason, finishing with three sacks, including two in Super Bowl XXXVIII. He also lined up as a tight end in the Super Bowl and caught the Patriots' final touchdown of the game on a one-yard play from Tom Brady in the fourth quarter.
- Vrabel recorded a career-high three sacks in the Patriots' 9-3 win over Cleveland (10/26/03, at the time was the most sacks in a game by a Patriot since Henry Thomas collected three against St. Louis (12/13/98)).
- Scored his first career touchdown at San Diego (09/29/02) when he lined up as a tight end and grabbed a one-yard pass from Tom Brady. Vrabel was the first Patriot defender to catch a touchdown pass since linebacker John Tanner caught a two-yard toss from Jim Plunkett at Baltimore (11/24/74).
- Vrabel intercepted two passes during the 2001 season, including one at the N.Y. Jets (12/02/01). The turnover triggered a momentum change which saw the Patriots outscore the Jets 17-3 in the second half and defeat the Jets 17-16.
- Vrabel applied pressure to Rams quarterback Kurt Warner in Super Bowl XXXVI, forcing an errant pass that was intercepted by Ty Law and returned 47 yards for a touchdown, giving the Patriots an early 7-0 advantage.
- Vrabel recorded one of the biggest plays for the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1997 playoffs, when he sacked Patriots quarterback Drew Bledsoe and forced him to fumble with less than two minutes remaining in the game. The Steelers were able to hold on for a 7-6 victory in an AFC Divisional playoff game versus New England (1/3).

EXTRA POINTS

★Ty and his wife Kesha established a non-profit foundation called "First and Goal" that contributes to a number of causes. In 2006, "First & Goal" sponsored a shopping spree for 25 children from the Yawkey Boys & Girls Club of Roxbury. More than 20 of Ty's teammates joined him to participate in the "Shop with a Jock" event.

★Ty and Kesha were members of the Boys & Girls Club growing up and have maintained strong ties to the organization. The couple has furnished their hometown Boys & Girls Club with game tables and also teamed up with Reebok to design and manufacture all-star jerseys for all three levels of all-star teams at the club.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Wes Welker was acquired by the Patriots from the Miami Dolphins on March 5, 2007 in exchange for a second-round selection in the 2007 NFL Draft (60th overall) and a seventh-round selection in the 2007 NFL Draft (238th overall) … Originally signed as a rookie free agent by the San Diego Chargers in the spring of 2004 … Waived by the Chargers (9/15/04) … Signed by the Miami Dolphins (9/21/04).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Welker enters 2007 as a veteran of three NFL seasons and has played in 47 career games with three starts for the San Diego Chargers (one game in 2004) and Miami Dolphins (2004-06).
- In 2006, Welker was the Dolphins' leading receiver with 67 catches for 687 yards and a touchdown. Welker led Miami in both punt returns and kickoff returns for three consecutive seasons from 2004-06.
- Welker enters 2007 having recorded 96 career receptions for 1,121 yards (11.7 avg.) and a touchdown; 127 punt returns for 1,232 yards (9.7 avg.); and 170 kickoff returns for 3,858 yards (22.7 avg.) and a touchdown.
- Welker is Miami's all-time leading kickoff returner in terms of both yardage and total returns.
- Welker is tied for the Dolphins' franchise record with 127 punt returns and ranks second in club history in punt return yardage.

- In addition to his contributions on offense and in the return game, Welker also took on kicking duties for the Dolphins in a game against the Patriots on Oct. 10, 2004, connecting on a field goal and an extra point while also handling kickoffs.
- Welker totaled 156 touches in 2006 (67 receptions, 41 punt returns and 48 kickoff returns), a mark that led all NFL wide receivers or specialists (Dante Hall, 109).
- Welker recorded a career-high nine receptions against the Patriots at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 8, 2006, and his 77 receiving yards in that game marked the second highest total of his career.
- As a rookie in 2004, Welker's 10.8-yard punt return average (43 returns for 464 yards) ranked second in the NFL to Dennis Northcutt's 12.0-yard average. He also averaged 23.2 yards on kickoff returns that season (61 returns for 1,415 yards).
- In a game against the Patriots at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 10, 2004, a pregame injury to Dolphins kicker Olindo Mare pressed Welker into service as Miami's kicker. He converted both of his kicking opportunities (a field goal and an extra point) to become the first player in NFL history to record a punt return, a kickoff return, a field goal, an extra point and a kickoff in the same game. Welker earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his efforts.
- After not recording a catch as a rookie, Welker emerged as a receiving threat in 2005, grabbing 29 passes for 434 yards and playing in all 16 games with one start. He once again led the Dolphins in punt returns (43 returns for 390 yards) and kickoff returns (61 returns for 1,379 yards).

- Finished with a season-high four receptions and 60 yards against Denver (9/11). Recorded his first NFL reception, a 15-yard catch from Gus Frerotte. All four catches came on third down while three were good for a first down. Also averaged 16.0 yards on four punt returns.
- Had three receptions for a career-high 97 yards against Tampa Bay (10/16), including a long of 41. Also fielded four punts for 70 yards, a career-best 17.5-yard average.
- Returned a season-high seven kickoffs for 162 yards against Kansas City (10/21). His seven returns tied a Dolphins single-game record, which had been achieved eight times previously by seven players. He had previously tied the record on January 2, 2005 at Baltimore. Also brought back two punts for 55 yards, including a season-long 47-yard scamper.
- Recorded the first start of his NFL career as the Dolphins opened the game in a three-wide receiver set against Oakland (11/27). Caught one pass for 16 yards and also fielded five kickoffs for a 28.2-yard average, including a long of 41.
- Tied a then-career high with four catches for 40 yards against Buffalo (12/4).

EXTRA POINTS

★ Wes has established the "83 Foundation" to provide underprivileged children in his hometown of Oklahoma City the opportunity to play football.

★ Texas Tech was the only Division I school to offer Wes a scholarship, and then only after another player had backed out of his commitment, but Wes went on to become one of the best athletes in Texas Tech history, breaking receiving and returning records and earning the nickname "The Natural."

★ In 2004, Wes became the first player in NFL history to return a punt, return a kick, kick a field goal, kick an extra point and kick off in the same game. He accomplished the feat against the Patriots.

■ 2004 (14/0 – Miami, 1/0 – San Diego): Played in a total of 15 games as a rookie … Waived by the Chargers (9/15) and signed with the Dolphins as a free agent (9/21) … For the season, returned 61 kickoffs for a 23.2-yard average, and scored on a 95-yard kickoff return for a touchdown … Fielded 43 punts for a 10.8-yard average, all with the Dolphins … His punt return average (10.8) ranked second in the AFC, trailing only Cleveland's Dennis Northcutt (12.0) … Also served as an emergency kicker against New England (10/10) and was 1-for-1 on field goals and 1-for-1 on PATs … Also recorded seven special teams tackles.

- In his only game with the Chargers, returned four kickoffs for 102 yards against Houston (9/12).
- Made his Dolphins debut against Pittsburgh (9/26). Returned three kickoffs for a 22.0-yard average and two punts for 20 yards.
- Served as Miami's return specialist and was pressed into service as an emergency kicker when Olindo Mare injured his calf in pre-game warm ups against New England (10/10). Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts. Kicked for the first time had kicked since his junior season at Texas Tech when he had a PAT blocked against Baylor. Convert his only field goal attempt – from 29 yards – and his only PAT against the Patriots. Also handled kickoff duties. Became the first player in NFL history to have a kickoff return, a punt return, a field goal, a successful PAT and kickoff in the same game. Became the first non-kicker in Dolphins history to record a PAT or field goal.
- Fielded two punts for a 43.5-yard average, including a season-long return of 71 yards, on Monday Night Football against New England (12/20). That return, which tied for the seventh-longest punt return in team history and is the longest not to have gone for a touchdown, came in the first quarter and put the Dolphins at the Patriots' 2-yard line, leading to a Sammy Morris touchdown run on the next play from scrimmage.
- Returned a kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown against Baltimore (1/2), becoming the first Dolphin to achieve the feat since October 1, 1989 when Marc Logan returned one 97 yards for a score at Houston. Overall on the day, fielded seven kickoffs for a 30.0-yard average, as the seven returns tied a club single-game record which had been achieved seven times previously.

2007 PRO BOWL

The Patriots had two players selected to the AFC's 2007 Pro Bowl roster: Defensive lineman Richard Seymour (fifth selection) and offensive tackle Matt Light (first selection). Seymour's five consecutive Pro Bowl selections are the most by a Patriots defender since linebacker Andre Tippett went to five straight Pro Bowls from 1984-88. Light became the fourth Patriots offensive tackle to be selected to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, joining Bruce Armstrong, Brian Holloway and Leon Gray.

2006 Television Ratings

The Patriots have annually produced some of the highest television ratings among the 2.4 million homes in the Boston area, the nation's sixth largest television market. Each ratings point represents one percent of the homes in the Boston market.

FRANCHISE HISTORY

PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

In 2007, the Patriots inaugurated a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the scheduled Fall 2008 opening of The Hall at Patriot Place. The new facility will provide a permanent location for the team's greats to be honored. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans making the final choice through Patriots.com each summer. The players listed below are the 11 members of the Patriots Hall of Fame as of July 2007, with the 12th member scheduled to be announced in August 2007.

Patriots Overtime Games

The Patriots are 17-18 all-time in regular-season overtime games during their 47-year history. New England enters the 2007 season with an eight-game overtime winning streak (including playoffs), setting an all-time NFL record for consecutive overtime victories. The Patriots are 13-15 when the game is decided by a field goal and 4-3 when a touchdown is the deciding factor. Below is a brief description of each overtime game.

09/26/77 ....at Cleveland 30, Patriots 27 L
John Smith sent the game into overtime with a 28-yard field goal with no time remaining in regulation. Cleveland's Don Cockroft capped a 10-play, 53-yard drive with a 35-yard game winning field goal after 4:45 of overtime.

Pittsburgh's Matt Bahr drilled a 41-yard field goal to give the Steelers the victory at the 5:10 mark in overtime. The clutch field goal came on Bahr's first professional attempt of his career.

11/25/79 ....Buffalo 16, at Patriots 13 L
Buffalo's Nick Mike-Mayer kicked a 29-yard field goal 4:45 into overtime to give the Bills the victory.

Uwe von Schamann kicked his third field goal of the day, a 23-yard game-winner, which gave Miami the three-point victory, 3:20 into overtime.

09/27/81 ....at Pittsburgh 27, Patriots 21.....L
The Patriots scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to recover from a 21-7 deficit. Unfortunately, Terry Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann with a 24-yard touchdown pass 3:19 into overtime to thwart the Patriots hopes for victory.

11/08/81 ....Miami 30, at Patriots 27 L
New England's John Smith nailed a 34-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining in regulation that sent the game into overtime. The Dolphins' Uwe von Schamann kicked a 30-yard field goal, 7:09 into the extra quarter, that gave Miami the victory.

09/04/83 ....Balt. Colts 29, at Patriots 23 L
The Colts' Raul Allegre kicked a 33-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime. On the first play of overtime, Baltimore's LB Johnnie Cooks picked up a Tony Collins fumble and rumbled 52 yards for the game-winning score.

11/24/85 ....at N.Y. Jets 16, Patriots 13.....L
New England's Tony Franklin sent the game into overtime with a 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds remaining in regulation. In the extra session, the Jets' Pat Leahy kicked a 32-yard field goal to give the Jets a 16-13 win.

11/15/87 ....Dallas 23, at Patriots 17 L
The Cowboys' Roger Ruzek's 20-yard field goal with 28 seconds remaining in regulation tied the game at 17. In overtime, Dallas running back Herschel Walker trotted 60 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

11/29/87 ....Philadelphia 34, at Patriots 31.....L
The Patriots scored the final 21 points of regulation to send the game into overtime tied at 31. After 12:16 elapsed in overtime, the Eagles' Paul McFadden connected from 38 yards, on his second field goal attempt in overtime.

12/11/88 ....at Patriots 10, Tampa Bay 7.....W
The Patriots were victorious in overtime for the first time in franchise history, snapping their 10-game overtime losing streak. Jason Staurovsky kicked a 27-yard field goal, 3:08 into overtime, for the win.

10/29/89 ....Patriots 23, at Indianapolis 20 .....W
New England's Greg Davis kicked a 51-yard field goal, 9:57 into overtime, for the 23-20 victory. The Colts' Dean Biasucci sent the game into overtime when he kicked a 39-yard field goal with 51 seconds remaining in regulation.

10/20/91 ....at Patriots 26, Minnesota 23 .....W
With no time remaining in overtime, New England's Jason Staurovsky nailed a 42-yard field goal that gave the Patriots a 26-23 victory. The field goal attempt was Staurovsky's second in overtime.

12/08/91 ....at Patriots 23, Indianapolis 17 .....W
The Patriots scored the game's final 20 points and won their fourth consecutive overtime game. Hugh Millen connected with Ben Coates for a 2-yard touchdown with seven seconds remaining in regulation and then repeated the feat in overtime when he hit Michael Timpson for the 45-yard game-winning touchdown.

11/15/92 ....Patriots 37, at Indianapolis 34 .....W
The Patriots' Charlie Baumann scored the final six points, including the game-winning 18-yard field goal, 11:35 into the extra session. The win snapped the Patriots' nine-game losing streak during the 1992 season. Baumann's 44-yard field goal with two seconds remaining in regulation sent the game into overtime.

12/27/92 ....Miami 16, at Patriots 13 L
The Dolphins were able to clinch the AFC East crown and a bye in the first round of the playoffs, after they scored the games' final 13 points to win 16-13. Pete Stoyanovich's 35-yard field goal, 6:43 into overtime, propelled the Dolphins to victory.

09/12/93 ....Detroit 19, at Patriots 16.....L
Detroit's Jason Hanson kicked a 38-yard field goal, his fourth of the day, 11:04 into overtime to lift the Lions to victory. Drew Bledsoe threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Vincent Brisby with two seconds remaining in regulation which sent the game into overtime.

11/07/93 ....Buffalo 13, at Patriots 10 L
Buffalo's Steve Christie kicked a 27-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to send the contest into overtime. Each team had two opportunities to score in the extra session, and Christie kicked the game winning 32-yard field goal on Buffalo's second chance.

01/02/94 ....at Patriots 33, Miami 27 .....W
Drew Bledsoe connected with Michael Timpson for the 36-yard game winning touchdown to cap one of the greatest endings in Patriots history. The lead changed four times in the fourth quarter as the two teams combined for 27 points. Miami's Pete Stoyanovich sent the game into overtime with a 24-yard field goal with four seconds remaining in regulation.

11/13/94 ....at Patriots 26, Minnesota 20 .....W
The Patriots completed one of the greatest comebacks in team history, recovering from a 20-0 deficit to defeat the Vikings. New England's Matt Bahr sent the game into overtime when he kicked a 23-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining. Drew Bedsoe completed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Turner 4:10 into overtime, to give the Patriots the victory.

10/29/95....Carolina 20, at Patriots 17.....L
The Patriots scored 14 points in the fourth quarter on two Curtis Martin touchdown runs and tied the score at 17. However, the expansion Panthers were victorious when John Kasay booted a 29-yard field goal with 7:52 remaining in the extra period.

09/22/96....at Patriots 28, Jacksonville 25.....W
The Patriots jumped out to a 22-0 first half lead but the Jaguars clawed their way back. Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell's touchdown passes of 51, 41 and 61 yards gave them life in the second half and Mike Hollis' 27-yard field goal in the fourth quarter tied the game at 25. However, Patriots' rookie kicker Adam Vinatieri converted five of six field goal attempts, including a 40-yarder in overtime to give the Patriots the victory.

09/14/97....at Patriots 27, N.Y. Jets 24.....W
The Patriots won their third consecutive game to open the 1997 season, 27-24, in dramatic fashion when placekicker Adam Vinatieri kicked a 34-yard field goal 6:57 into overtime. The Jets had a chance to win the game at the end of regulation, but defensive end Mike Jones blocked a 29-yard field goal attempt by John Hall with 16 seconds remaining in the game.

12/13/97....Pittsburgh 24, at Patriots 21.....L
The Steelers sent the game into overtime on a touchdown pass from Kordell Stewart to Mark Bruener and a two-point conversion. They capitalized on a Drew Bledsoe interception with just over two minutes remaining in the game. In the overtime period, the Steelers won the toss and took their only possession 61 yards downfield to set up the game-winning Norm Johnson field goal.

10/25/98....at Miami 12, Patriots 9.....L
The Dolphins scored the game's final six points, including Olindo Mare's game-winning 43-yard kick. New England's Adam Vinatieri accounted for all of the Patriots' nine points, connecting on three of four field goal attempts.

12/26/99....Buffalo 13, at Patriots 10.....L
The Patriots missed two field goals, one at the end of regulation and one in overtime, and lost to Buffalo. The Bills scored a touchdown to tie the game at 10 with 4:34 remaining and Steve Christie kicked a 23-yard field goal with 1:51 remaining in overtime for the victory.

Buffalo's Steve Christie booted a 32-yard field goal, the third of his career in overtime against the Patriots. He also tied the game with a 48-yard kick with four seconds remaining in regulation. The Patriots, playing without Drew Bledsoe, took the lead, 13-10 on a 43-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

12/17/00....Patriots 13, at Buffalo 10.....W
Amid a snowstorm in Buffalo, Patriots kicker Adam Vinatieri nailed a 24-yard field goal in overtime for the victory. The game time temperature was 35 degrees, with a wind chill of six, and 40 mile-per-hour winds blew snow across the field making traction difficult for both sides. The Patriots and Bills tied the 1984 and 1985 Denver Broncos and Oakland Raiders for an NFL record as they entered overtime for the third consecutive meeting.

10/14/01....at Patriots 29, San Diego 26.....W
The Patriots scored 10 points in the final nine minutes of regulation to tie the game at 26. Adam Vinatieri kicked a 23-yard field goal with 3:31 to play and Tom Brady connected with Jermaine Wiggins for a 3-yard touchdown to tie the game with just 36 seconds remaining. In overtime, Vinatieri nailed a 44-yard field goal for the victory.

12/16/01....Patriots 12, at Buffalo 9.....W
The Patriots and Bills needed overtime to decide the outcome of their game for the fourth time in five meetings. Adam Vinatieri converted all four of his field goal attempts, including the game-winning 23-yard field goal in overtime. Former Bills RB Antowain Smith led the Patriots with 95 yards rushing, including a 38-yard run in overtime to get New England in field goal position.

01/19/02....at Patriots 16, Raiders 13*.....W
Adam Vinatieri boomed a 45-yard field goal with 27 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game up at 13 and send it into overtime. The game time temperature dipped to 25 degrees and the field was covered by five inches of snow that didn't let up until the game was over. In overtime the Patriots drove 61 yards on 15 plays and Vinatieri nailed a 23-yard field goal for the 16-13 victory. The Patriots became just the second team in postseason overtime history (16 games) to win the contest on the opening drive of the extra stanza.
*-AFC Divisional Playoff Game

09/22/02....at Patriots 41, Chiefs 38.....W
The Patriots and Chiefs scored 42 points in the fourth quarter, including the last 14 by the Chiefs to tie the game at 38 at the end of regulation. The Patriots won the toss and drove 53 yards on nine plays and Adam Vinatieri nailed a 35-yard field goal for the Patriots victory. It was also the first overtime game at Gillette Stadium.

12/29/02....at Patriots 27, Dolphins 24.....W
The Patriots trailed 21-7 with 1:06 remaining in the first half, but outscored the Dolphins 20-3 the rest of the way for their sixth consecutive overtime victory. New England scored the game's final 11 points on a Tom Brady touchdown pass to Troy Brown, they successfully converted the two-point conversion on a Brady to Christian Fauria pass and then Adam Vinatieri boomed a 43-yard field goal with 1:09 remaining in regulation. New England won the toss and drove 43 yards on seven plays and Vinatieri kicked a 35-yard game-winning field goal.

10/19/03....Patriots 19, at Dolphins 13.....W
Richard Seymour blocked a 35-yard field goal attempt with 2:00 left in the game to send the game into the extra session. In overtime, Miami's Olindo Mare missed another 35-yard attempt wide right, then a Tyrone Poole interception at the Patriots' 18-yard line snuffed out another Miami opportunity in overtime. On the next play, Tom Brady hit Troy Brown for an 82-yard touchdown strike, sending the Patriots home with a 19-13 win.

11/23/03....Patriots 23, at Texans 20.....W
The Patriots set the all-time NFL mark with their eighth consecutive overtime victory in a nail-biter in the Lone Star State. The Texans took a 20-13 lead into the final minute of the game, but Tom Brady found Daniel Graham for a four-yard touchdown strike to tie the game at 20 with just 40 seconds left in regulation. The extra frame was a possession battle until the Patriots mounted a 76-yard drive in the final minutes of overtime, ending in a 28-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri with 45 seconds left.

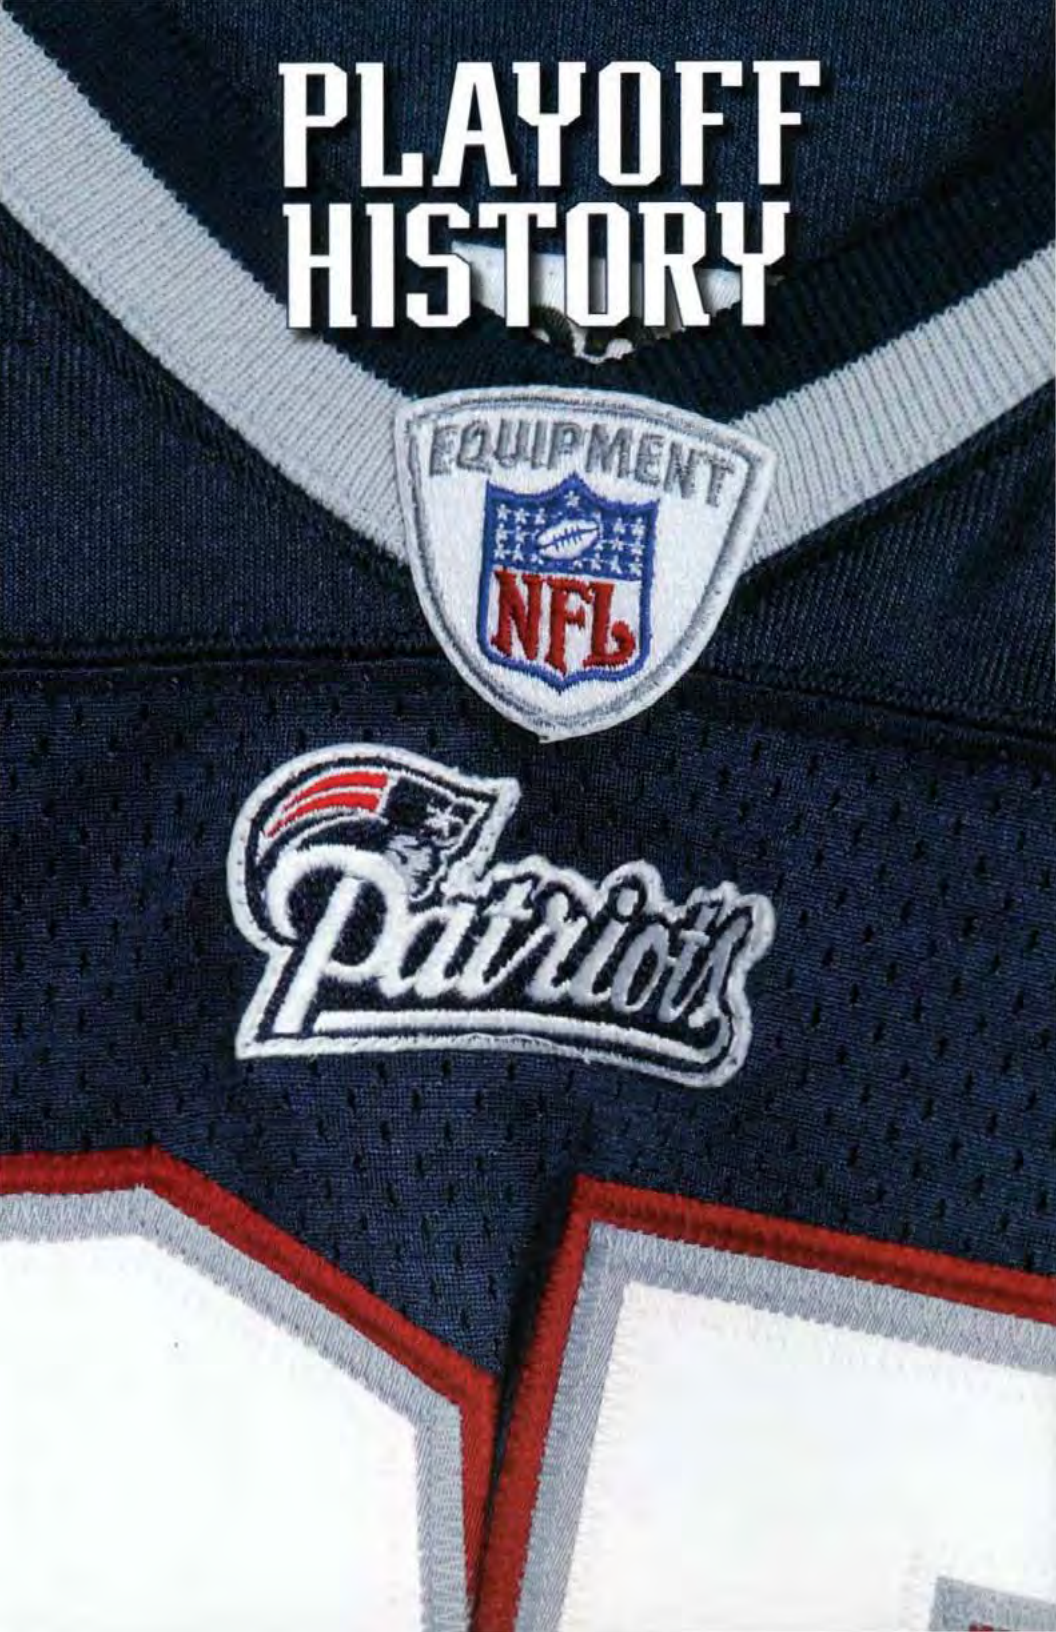
PLAYOFF HISTORY



PATRIOTS PLAYOFF RESULTS

ALL-TIME PLAYOFF RESULTS

The Patriots have played in 31 playoff games during their 47-year history, compiling an overall playoff record of 19-12. The Patriots won an NFL-record 10 consecutive playoff games from the 2001 season to the 2005 season. Since Robert Kraft purchased the Patriots in 1994, the team is 15-6 in the playoffs, and its 15 victories are the most in the NFL over that span.

GAME NOTES

- This was the first of six championship games involving the Patriots. (also Super Bowls XX, XXXI, XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX)
- The 610 yards yielded by the Patriots defense still ranks as the highest total ever given up by the Patriots.
- The Patriots committed only one penalty versus the Chargers. It is the lowest single game total in team playoff history (tied with Dec. 28, 1985 at N.Y. Jets).

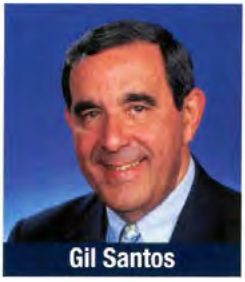
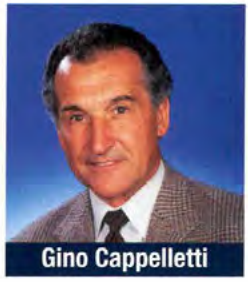
WBCN'S ROCK RADIO NETWORK



Gil Santos



Gino Cappelletti

WBCN 104.1 FM in Boston is in its 13th season as the official flagship station of the three-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots. As a flagship, WBCN was one of the FM broadcasting pioneers in professional sports. Since 1995, football fans in greater Boston have had the pleasure of listening to the call of every Patriots game in stereo sound without static interruption. With FM clarity and stereo surround sound, WBCN has brought fans closer to the action, delivering the many sideline sounds of each game.

In 2007, fans throughout New England can once again catch all the Patriots action by tuning into one of 33 different radio affiliates that simulcast each game on WBCN's Patriots Rock Radio Network. As the network's flagship, WBCN offers Patriots fans the most complete and comprehensive coverage on the dial. In all, they commit over eight hours of programming to each and every Patriots game, kicking off three hours before each game and wrapping up with a two-hour post-game show.

When fans tune in for each Patriots game on WBCN, they are treated to two world-class teams – the one on the field and the one in the broadcast booth. For the past 17 consecutive seasons, Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti have teamed together to provide fans with in-depth game analysis and complete play-by-play detail of every Patriots game. This year, they will celebrate their 24th season together.

For most Patriots fans, there has been but one "Voice of the New England Patriots" and it belongs to Gil Santos. For 31 of the last 42 seasons, Santos has articulated the sights, sounds and all the play-by-play action of over 450 games to millions of Patriots fans. Now in his 31st year as voice of the Patriots, Santos is tied with the Philadelphia Eagles' veteran play-by-play announcer, Merrill Reese, as the two most tenured radio broadcasters in the NFL. Santos began calling games for the Boston Patriots at Fenway Park in 1966. He was the voice of the Patriots for the next 14 seasons (1966-79). He returned to the booth in 1991 and has broadcast every Patriots game since then. The veteran play-by-play broadcaster is also the sports director at WBCN's sister station, WBZ news radio in Boston, where he has earned dozens of honors and awards for his reporting, sportscasting and play-by-play excellence.

If Santos is recognized as the "voice" of the New England Patriots, his long-time broadcast partner Gino Cappelletti might simply be the most recognized Patriot in franchise history. Cappelletti, who is entering his 27th season as a broadcast analyst, first joined the team as one of the original Boston Patriots in 1960. Since then, Cappelletti has been affiliated with the team for 40 of the last 47 seasons as a player (11 years), coach (3) and broadcaster (26). It would be hard to find anyone more knowledgeable on the subject of the Patriots than Cappelletti. After an 11-year all-star career (1960-70) as a wide receiver and a kicker, he retired as the AFL's all-time leading scorer with 1,130 points. The Patriots Hall of Famer currently ranks sixth among the Patriots all-time leading receivers entering the 2007 season. Following his playing career, he spent nine seasons (1972-78) in the broadcast booth with Santos before returning to the sidelines for three seasons (1979-81) as the special teams coach on Ron Erhardt's staff. He returned to the broadcast booth in 1988 and was re-united with Santos in 1991. Together, the two have developed an on-air rapport that is unrivaled in the NFL, to the delight of Patriots fans everywhere.

Coverage on WBCN 104.1 FM begins three hours before each game and will conclude with a two-hour post-game show. Gary Tanguay will host both shows and will welcome weekly guests who will offer unique insight and analysis prior to and immediately following each game.

2007 PRESEASON TV NETWORK

For the 13th consecutive season, Patriots preseason games will be broadcast live on WCVB Channel 5 in Boston and a network of affiliates throughout New England. Kraft Sports Productions will produce the broadcasts.

Award-winning play-by-play veteran Don Criqui returns for his 13th season with the Patriots. He has served as a play-by-play announcer for CBS Sports and NBC Sports for more than three decades and has had the pleasure of announcing two Super Bowls and 14 Orange Bowls, as well as Wimbledon and World Cup matches.

CBS football analyst Randy Cross will return for his fifth season as Criqui's preseason broadcast partner. Cross, a three-time NFL all-pro, played 13 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers and was a part of three Super Bowl Championship teams. After his playing career, he joined CBS Sports as an NFL game analyst.

Mike Lynch, WCVB's principal sports analyst and award-winning sportscaster, returns for his 13th consecutive season as the broadcast team's sideline reporter.

2007 PATRIOTS CHEERLEADERS

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders have been entertaining fans at Patriots games for years. But their work as goodwill ambassadors for the team extends far beyond the sidelines of Gillette Stadium. Supporting the efforts of charitable organizations throughout New England, the cheerleaders are able to make a difference in the community. Additionally, the squad makes over 600 individual public appearances per year, for businesses and corporations, spreading cheer to fans at a variety of events throughout New England and across the country. Those bookings include sales meetings, trade shows, award ceremonies, autograph sessions and Monday Night Football promotions, just to name a few.

While the Patriots Cheerleaders have become accustomed to entertaining thousands of fans from the sidelines, members of the squad have also regularly traveled overseas to entertain thousands of Patriots from the front lines as featured performers at various military bases on goodwill missions. In November, the Patriots Cheerleaders participated in Operation Seasons Greetings 2006, traveling to Iraq, Afghanistan, Germany, Turkey and an undisclosed location to entertain troops.

Previous overseas trips include the Citizen Patriot Tour in 2001, when members of the squad traveled with Clint Black and Al Franken, visiting troops in Germany, Kosovo, Bosnia, Macedonia and Italy. In 2002, members of the squad traveled to the North Arabian Sea to perform on the U.S.S. John F. Kennedy, as part of Operation Enduring Freedom. In 2003, their Operation Seasons Greetings tour took them to Germany, Italy, Turkey, Portugal and England. In 2004, the squad performed in two tours, including the Operation Pacific Greetings tour with visits to bases in Japan, South Korea and Hawaii, traveling with Hootie and the Blowfish, and the Operations Season's Greetings tour with Blues Traveler. In 2005, four cheerleaders traveled to the Persian Gulf to perform several shows for military personnel deployed in support of the Global War on Terror, as a part of a tour sponsored by Navy Morale, Welfare and Recreation. In the spring of 2006, six Patriots cheerleaders traveled around the globe as a part of the Patriotic World Tour. In what was their seventh military tour, the cheerleaders visited and performed for soldiers in Germany, Turkey, Iraq, Kuwait, Japan, South Korea and Hawaii.

In addition to their goodwill military missions and regular visits throughout the United States, the squad has performed and appeared at many venues including performances in Super Bowls, Pro Bowls and an American Bowl in Mexico City.

The squad's most recent adventure was a trip to Beijing and Shanghai, China. The tour was designed to increase awareness and interest in the NFL and the New England Patriots and to support the growing number of American Football fans there.

Almost 300 hopefuls competed for the opportunity to join the 2007 New England Patriots Cheerleaders. The 24 most talented young women earned that honor, including 12 returning veterans. The cheerleaders hail from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Maine, representing many different New England towns. Two weeks after their appointment to the squad, the cheerleaders traveled to Punta Cana in the Dominican Republic to shoot their annual swimsuit calendar. This year's squad will continue to serve not only as day-of-game entertainers, but also as Patriots ambassadors throughout New England and around the world.

Patriots Cheerleaders and Pat Patriot mascot appearances can make functions more memorable for everyone. For more information on booking the Patriots Cheerleaders or Pat Patriot Mascot, please contact Tracy Sormanti at (508) 384-9101.

THE PATRIOTS IN THE COMMUNITY

A WINNING TEAM

The New England Patriots Charitable Foundation is the 501(c)(3) non-profit entity created by the Kraft family to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England. This support comes in the form of direct grants, the donation of signed memorabilia to a variety of charitable causes and from Patriots players who offer their direct support by appearing at charity functions throughout the year.

Robert Kraft established the New England Patriots Charitable Foundation when he purchased the team in 1994 as a way for the organization to give back to the communities it calls home. The Foundation's primary goal is to support programs that aid the youth and families of New England while underscoring the Kraft family's deep commitment to philanthropic activities in the community.

Robert Kraft meets with children from the Hockomock Area YMCA, to which the Kraft family donated $1,000,000.

Over the past 13 years, the Foundation has made donations to thousands of non-profit organizations throughout New England and has partnered with numerous community groups, including the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Boston, the United Way and a host of other New England charities. The Foundation also provides food baskets and toys to hundreds of families and children during the holiday season in partnership with Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries and the Salvation Army.

In addition, the Foundation supports numerous health care initiatives and organizations, including the Robert K. Kraft Family Blood Donor Center at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Children's Hospital Boston. The Charitable Foundation has also raised and donated more than $750,000 to organizations supporting disaster relief efforts in Louisiana and around the globe. The Foundation, in partnership with Fidelity Investments, also debuted its "Write On" scholarship program in 2005, which has awarded nearly $200,000 in college scholarships to more than 80 local students.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION FUNDRAISING EFFORTS

The Foundation holds several annual fundraisers, including the New England Patriots Charitable Foundation Golf Tournament and the Kickoff Gala held at Gillette Stadium in the fall. In 2005, the Patriots teamed up with the Massachusetts RMV to create a specialty license plate, an ongoing fundraiser with proceeds directly benefiting the Foundation and eventually thousands of charitable organizations across New England.

Annual Kickoff Gala and Ron Burton Award

Robert Kraft presents the New England Patriots Ron Burton Community Service Award to Jarvis Green at the 2006 Kickoff Gala.

Each year, the New England Patriots Kickoff Gala is held in the Fidelity Investments Clubhouse at Gillette Stadium to ring in the new season and raise funds for the Patriots Charitable Foundation. Patriots players and staff members come together to mingle with fans on the big night, which includes dinner, live and silent auctions and the presentation of the Ron Burton Community Service Award. The Burton Award honors the Patriots player who most embodies the qualities of Burton, the first player drafted by the team who was also known for his commitment to the community and helping others. Previous winners include offensive lineman Joe Andruzzi (2003), wide receiver Troy Brown (2004), offensive lineman Matt Light (2005) and defensive lineman Jarvis Green (2006).

Patriots Charitable Foundation Golf Tournament

For nearly a decade, Patriots players, coaches and alumni have gathered annually for a day of golf to benefit the Patriots Charitable Foundation. Each summer, fans are given the opportunity to play a round of golf with a Patriots player or celebrity, with all of the proceeds going to support Foundation programs and activities. The day includes 18 holes of golf, appearances by the New England Patriots Cheerleaders, and a lot of friendly competition among Patriots players. In 2006, a longest drive competition was added to the event for the Patriots players to participate in.

Patriots Specialty License Plates

In 2005, the Patriots launched a specialty Patriots license plate that benefits the Charitable Foundation through its sales. For each plate ordered from the Massachusetts RMV, a portion of the total cost goes directly to the Foundation. Upon renewal of the plates, the entire sum benefits the Foundation. In addition, the team has begun to auction off low-numbered plates and plates featuring the jersey numbers of current and alumni players on the team website. The license plate features the Patriots logo centered above the Roman numerals representing each of the team's three Super Bowl Championships. Plates can be ordered online or in person through the Massachusetts RMV.

FOUNDATION EVENTS

Kevin Faulk prepares a Thanksgiving food basket at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries.

Thanksgiving Basket Giveaway

For the past several years, the Kraft family has been joined by nearly a dozen Patriots players at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries headquarters in Boston to assist in distributing 200 holiday baskets filled with turkeys and all of the trimmings to local families in need. The recipients of the baskets include families with children who participated in Goodwill's youth programs, as well as individuals who were enrolled or had recently graduated from Goodwill's job training program.

Salvation Army Holiday Party

For over a decade, the Patriots have treated hundreds of children from Salvation Army centers throughout Massachusetts and Rhode Island to a night of holiday festivities. Patriots players annually attend the party at Gillette Stadium and participate in a number of activities including "Wrap-a-Pat," a game in which the children, working in teams, race to wrap Patriots players in holiday wrapping paper, ribbons and bows. The children are also able to get autographs from players and cheerleaders, visit with Santa Claus and receive holiday gifts provided by the Charitable Foundation.

Patriots players are wrapped in holiday wrapping paper and bows by kids at the Salvation Army Holiday Party.

OUTREACH PROGRAMS

Patriots Kids Cafés

With the Patriots' focus on youth in mind, the Foundation and the Kraft family partnered with Shaw's Supermarkets and the Greater Boston Food Bank to expand the Boys and Girls Club Kids Café program. The purpose of the Kids Cafés, located within each area Boys and Girls Club, is to provide hot meals for underprivileged children who may not receive one at home. Many times this is the only hot meal the child receives the entire day. Kids Cafés currently provide children with 160,000 meals per year at six different locations. With this new partnership, the goal is to increase these numbers to 250,000 meals per year at nine different locations by 2009.

What Moves U

In 2006, the Patriots and the American Heart Association, with support from Shaw's Supermarkets, partnered to create and implement "What Moves U," a program designed to address the diminishing amount of exercise and the decline of healthy eating habits among today's youth. The What Moves U program was designed to assist schools in discovering ways to incorporate physical activity into both the classroom and the overall school culture. The program was implemented at the Lilla G. Frederick Pilot Middle School in Dorchester, Mass. and nearly 700 students participated in the program, which offered incentives for healthy choices and physical activities.

Community MVP Awards

Each year, the Kraft family and the Patriots honor members of the New England community for their service to non-profit organizations around the region. Each Community MVP is recognized for their leadership, dedication and a commitment to bettering their communities during a luncheon at Gillette Stadium with a donation made in their name to the non-profit organization for which they volunteer. In 2007, the Patriots honored more than 20 "Community MVPs" for their commitments to improving their communities through volunteerism. Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft made awards totaling $50,000 to benefit the respective charities of honorees from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maine, Connecticut, Vermont and New Hampshire. The 2007 overall winner was Sheila Aliber, a volunteer at Rosie's Place, a sanctuary for poor and homeless women in Boston's South End. Aliber implemented numerous programs to provide a safe and nurturing environment to help the women of Rosie's Place maintain their dignity, seek opportunity and find security in their lives. Rosie's Place received a $10,000 grant in Aliber's name.

Patriots High School Coach of the Week

Each week during the high school football season, the Patriots honor a high school football coach with their Coach of the Week Award. This season will mark the 12th year in which the Patriots have joined the National Football League in conducting the program, which recognizes outstanding high school coaches and promotes youth football throughout New England. Patriots Hall of Fame linebacker Andre Tippett, who is the team's executive director of community affairs, oversees the program as part of the Foundation's commitment to youth football initiatives. The Patriots award the selected coach each week with a $1,000 grant to benefit the school's football program. At the end of the season, one Coach of the Year is selected from the previous weekly winners and is awarded an additional $2,000 grant. In 2006, Winthrop High School's Tony Fucillo was named the New England Patriots High School Coach of the Year in recognition of his team's Division 2A Super Bowl Championship, despite the program nearly being eliminated three years earlier. Winthrop finished the season with an undefeated 13-0 record en route to their first Super Bowl victory since 1983.

Coach Scott Boyle of Lowell High School accepts a Coach of the Week award from Andre Tippett and Patriots All-Access Host Mike Lynch.

Youth Football

Bill Belichick greets players from several area Pop Warner programs.

In recent years, the Foundation has expanded its concentration into the development of youth football programs throughout New England. Through the Foundation, the Patriots have made donations to improve football facilities at several area fields and have conducted multiple football clinics in the New England region. The Foundation has donated thousands of dollars to local high schools through the Coach of the Week program, hosted the regional Punt, Pass & Kick finals and partnered with USA Football to host a coaching clinic for beginner and youth football coaches. The Foundation plans to continue to expand its support for youth football and to promote programs that encourage good sportsmanship and leadership skills.
